

COLDER TONIGHT

Colder tonight with lowest temperatures zero to 5 above. Friday, continued cold. Yesterday's high, 40; low, 12; at 8 a.m. today, 18. Year ago high, 22; low, 1. River, 10.60 feet.

Thursday, December 27, 1951

THE CIRCLEVILLE HERALD

An Independent Newspaper

FULL SERVICE

Associated Press leased wire for state, national and world news, Central Press picture service, leading columnists and artists, full local news coverage.

66th Year-304

Commies Hint 50,000 Unlisted Allied POWs Died In Prison Camps

MUNSAN, Korea, Friday, Dec. 28.—(P)—The Reds dropped a veiled hint Thursday that 50,000 unlisted Allied prisoners were all dead.

At the same time Allied armistice negotiators indicated that if the Communists would give a full and honest accounting for all prisoners, the Allies might consider the all-for-all exchange that the Reds demand.

The conferences ended, however, with agreement on only one thing: To meet again today at 11 a. m. (9 p. m., Thursday, EST) even though the 30-day deadline on the provisional cease-fire line expired at midnight Thursday.

There was no indication here of any plans to extend the agreement

responsible for the "twilight war" of the last 30 days. The full five-man armistice committees which signed the provisional buffer zone arrangement Nov. 27 did not even meet. An official UN spokesman said neither side asked for an extension.

AT THE MEETING on prisoners, the head of the Allied subcommittee, Rear Adm. R. E. Libby, told the Reds:

"If and when you account for all the prisoners of war you should have and all you have had—after you have given us a complete prisoner-of-war list—then your proposal is worthy of discussion."

"Until we get from you this information we cannot move one inch towards a solution."

The Allies have not committed themselves in any way on an exchange.

But in the same session Thursday at Panmunjom, Libby said the Reds hinted they may report that many of the 50,000 prisoners unaccounted for had died of disease or exposure.

Libby said it was "a rather ominous note. It might have been a forewarning that all these people died of illness."

Subcommittees working on the problems of exchanging war prisoners and supervising a truce still were deadlocked when they adjourned their last session before the scheduled expiration hour.

INCENTIVE TO FIGHT LACKING

Logic Points To Truce In Korea—Eventually

SEOUL, Friday, Dec. 28.—(P)—Expiration of the 30-day cease-fire line period last midnight (10 a. m. Thursday EST) raised the question: Will heavy fighting break out again in Korea?

There is some evidence that it will not at least not right away. There has been no large-scale ground fighting in the last month.

The agreement on a provisional cease-fire line signed Nov. 27 said nothing about stopping or starting ground fighting.

It simply said that if either the Communists or the United Nations took any new ground on either side of the line, and if an armistice was signed in 30 days, each side would have to give up its gains.

The line was based on the battle front as it existed then, and there have been no important changes since.

THE AGREEMENT discouraged full-scale fighting because no one wants to fight and be killed for real estate that has to be turned back at the end of the month.

All during this time the war in the air was going full blast, raging hotter than ever with almost daily jet battles and extra heavy UN bombing attacks, averaging 700 sorties a day. This was the UN way of twisting the Communist arm for a quick armistice.

But on the ground front there were only harassing artillery fire, clashes by roving patrols, UN prisoner raids and Communist probes.

That is one reason why it appears that neither side plans any large-scale offensive immediately. Since mid-December both had a good opportunity to attack and keep their gains. Neither chose to do so.

Today there are no reports of Red concentration along any part of the front equalling their April and May massing of troops. Allied officers say the Reds are spread out pretty evenly in what appears to be mainly a defensive position.

Perhaps the best reason for thinking that no new "big war" will start up again is the fact that neither side has any real hope of gaining any more.

IN 18 MONTHS of war rival armies have shoved each other back and forth on a 100-mile football gridiron—with neither able to score.

It has cost a lot of blood and treasure. But each side has proved its point: The Communists, that we can't march to the Yalu with our present forces; the UN that the Communists can't conquer South Korea with theirs.

There may be more savage fighting and small advances and retreats, but logic points toward an eventual armistice.

INVESTIGATION CONTINUED

Manslaughter Accusation Prepared Against Burris

An accusation of manslaughter was being prepared Thursday against Rodger Burris, 19, of Ashville, who admittedly killed a companion Monday with a blast from a 12-gauge shotgun.

Sheriff Charles Radcliff Thursday stated he was prepared to file the manslaughter accusation against the youth.

Burris was arrested Monday following the death of Bobby Harold Swank, also 19, of Millport. Swank died instantly as the result of a shotgun blast in the left side of his head.

The shooting happened in the home of Millard Hart, Burris' stepfather. Burris stated he shot his companion following an argument, but that he "didn't know the gun was loaded."

The youth has been held in Pickaway County jail since Monday on an open accusation while local authorities completed investigation.

Airlift Carries 200,000th Casualty

TOKYO, Dec. 27.—(P)—The planes which evacuate wounded Allied soldiers from Korea, carried their 200,000th casualty Thursday.

He was a Belgian private—Albert Keirle of Ploegstert.

Air evacuation officers explained the 200,000 figure did not represent that many casualties since some men have been flown from one area to another several times.

Newport Gambling Place Is Raided

NEWPORT, Ky., Dec. 27.—(P)—Newport police, armed with machineguns and tear gas, raided the Merchants Club in the downtown section early Thursday, arrested 23 persons and seized gambling equipment.

Officers confiscated $1,534.55, the cloth top of a dice table, a black jack table, a hi-lo table, card table and they broke up a card game.

2 Men Are Killed

DAYTON, Dec. 27.—(P)—Two men died Thursday when their automobile was hit by a fast Baltimore and Ohio mail-express train at a crossing northeast of here.

Earl Frederick, coroner's investigator, identified the dead as Russell Adkins, 20, and Franklin Shaffer, 26, both of Wright View Heights.

ALTHOUGH Sheriff Radcliff said he will accuse the youth of manslaughter, Coroner Lloyd Jones continues to withhold his official verdict in the case.

Jones said he will continue his investigation and possibly by next week reach a conclusion either way.

Prosecutor Guy Cline said the manslaughter accusation carries a maximum penalty of from one to 20 years in prison upon conviction.

Cline added that the accusation would be prepared Thursday afternoon for the sheriff and that the preliminary hearing before Magistrate Oscar Root probably would take place late Thursday or Friday.

No Mass Miner Stoppage Seen

WEST FRANKFORT, Ill., Dec. 27.—(P)—A few of the nation's coal miners remained idle Thursday in memory of West Frankfort mine blast victims, but there was no indication of a mass work stoppage.

Investigators still are seeking the cause of the explosion that brought death to 119 men.

John L. Lewis, president of the United Mine Workers Union, said he made some "definite conclusions" about the cause, but he wouldn't elaborate.

Allies, Commies Set Up POW Mail Exchange System

TOKYO, Dec. 27.—(P)—The Allies and the Communists have taken steps to clear the way for prisoners of war to exchange letters with loved ones at home.

UN spokesmen said relatives and friends writing Allied prisoners held in North Korean camps should address letters to:

APO 100, care postmaster, San Francisco.

Letters sent to this address will be held until permission is given to effect the delivery. That must come from the Communists.

When the Reds give an OK, presumably mail to Allied prisoners will be handled in the same fashion as mail from them—passed from one side to the other over the truce negotiation table at Panmunjom, Korea.

The Reds delivered 803 letters Wednesday. They arrived in Tokyo Thursday and were turned over to U. S. Army postal authorities.

More letters are said to be on the way from the prison camps in North Korea.

350 Deaths Seen For New Year's

CHICAGO, Dec. 27.—(P)—The National Safety Council estimates 350 persons will die in traffic accidents during the nation's New Year's holiday period.

The estimate was for the period starting 6 p. m. Friday, to midnight Tuesday. The total number of traffic deaths for a similar period over Christmas was 535.

FIRST WOMAN ever to come to the United States from Tibet, Miss Tenki Angmu Tenduf La is interviewed on her arrival in New York. She has been awarded a fellowship by the American Bureau for Medical Aid to China. The Tibetan woman will enter Barnard College in February.

Man, 22, Is Held For Fatal Stabbing In Cincinnati

CINCINNATI, Dec. 27.—(P)—The blond, thin-faced man told Sheriff Dan Tehan:

"The next thing I remember is that I was going up the road with blood on my hands. I do not remember how I picked up the scissors or anything."

But Frank Christopher, 22, did tell the sheriff of the conversation he said led up to the fatal stabbing of Mrs. Elizabeth (Betty) Sloan, also 22, in her College Hill home Wednesday.

He said he stopped at her home to object to the "way she was acting" and to tell her he planned to reenlist in the Marine Corps.

"Betty accused me of cheating on her. She slapped me in the face and that's all I remember."

The young waitress's landlady was in the basement of the home when she heard the dark-haired beauty shriek, "hurry, get a doctor!"

But Mrs. Sloan died before help could arrive. Coroner Herbert P. Lyle reported that 24 stab wounds with a pair of scissors had gouged into Mrs. Sloan's chest, throat and head. A blow through the heart killed her.

Police set up a dragnet for Christopher, but he surrendered to Tehan late Wednesday. He is being held for further questioning.

Even In Death, Fat Man Proves To Be Problem

PIKEVILLE, Ky., Dec. 27.—(P)—Even in death, Virgil Tackett's weight was a problem.

When Tackett's special casket was built at the small home on nearby Robinson Creek, the family had to remove the door frame before they could get the box outside.

Tackett, who tipped the scales between 500 and 600 pounds, died Wednesday in his sturdily built chair which he found more comfortable for sleeping than a bed. Death apparently was caused by a heart disorder.

The 26-year-old Pike County, who will be buried Friday, was big all his life. At birth, he weighed 13 pounds.

Manufacturers didn't make overalls and jackets large enough for the six foot, one inch Kentuckian. The family would buy two pairs of the biggest size made—56—and sew them together. One leg of the overalls would have made a pair of pants for the average fat man.

With his 40-inch thighs and 78-inch waist, Tackett dwarfed his three normal-sized sisters. His parents also are about average in weight.

Convicts Slash Heels In Protest

BUFORD, Ga., Dec. 27.—(P)—State prison officials are looking into a Christmas Day heel-slashing episode here.

Warden Hubert L. Smith of the state's new Rock Quarry Prison, said Wednesday 30 hardened inmates cut their heel tendons with a safety razor blade. Most of the cuts were light.

The prisoners reportedly were demonstrating against limited visiting privileges and a lack of reading material and radios at Rock Quarry.

HITCH DEVELOPS IN DEAL TO RELEASE U.S. FLIERS

VARIED VIEWPOINTS ARE OUTLINED

U.S. Officials Admit Danger Exists In Paying Ransoms

WASHINGTON, Dec. 27.—(P)—Responsible officials have conceded there are dangers for the future in the U. S. decision to pay the $120,000 in fines levied by Communist Hungary against four American airmen.

At the same time these authorities asserted there were compelling reasons for the decision and that in terms of propaganda the result will not necessarily be entirely adverse to the United States.

All this is based on the assumption that Hungary will accept the American offer and will release the fliers. There was some doubt Thursday that the deal actually would be consummated.

Hungary has held the U. S. airmen since Nov. 19 as violators of her border. A Communist court decreed they each would have to spend three months in jail if the fines were not paid. The Hungarian action was widely denounced here as international blackmail and the fines were termed a ransom.

On the negative side of the U. S. decision to pay the fines these dangers of disadvantages were noted:

1. The Communist leadership can and undoubtedly will exploit the U. S. decision in Europe and elsewhere as an evidence of American weakness, and also as evidence of that the airmen were guilty of violating the borders of Hungary to discharge spies.

2. Aside from propagandizing, the Kremlin may be led to think there is a lack of determination in Washington in handling such matters and may be encouraged to run greater risks in the future in dealing with the U. S. and its citizens.

3. The Hungarian incident may lead to a series of similar irritating actions involving greater sums of money and more people—either members of the armed forces, diplomats or private citizens.

This danger is seen as most likely to materialize if the Communists decide they have hit upon a way of getting money out of the U. S.

On the positive side of the decision to pay the $30,000 fine assessed against each of the four, officials said there were these considerations:

1. Payment appeared to be the only way open to assure the prompt release and therefore the safety of the airmen.

2. The decision can be used by the U. S. and its friends in Europe as proof of American patience and restraint in dealing with Communist provocation.

3. The decision shows that the U. S. stands behind members of the armed forces in such a situation as that created by Hungary.

Authorities reported that the decision to pay the fines was reached in consultation among the State Department, Defense Department and White House. They said defense officials favored payment, apparently feeling that the U. S. should act promptly to get uniform personnel released at the earliest possible moment.

The decision to pay the fines drew varied comments and warnings from the nation's newspapers.

Words like "blackmail" and "ransom" and "kidnappers" were sprinkled through editorials denouncing the Hungarian government's action against the fliers.

Some newspapers said the United States could take no other course, but other editorials suggested that this country might have found other means of obtaining the fliers' release.

A number of newspapers expressed fears that many similar troubles are yet to come. Some said the U. S. should consider retaliatory measures against the Communists.

restraint in dealing with Communist provocation.

The executive committee makes decisions; the wage-policy board accepts or rejects them.

As the sessions are secret, no announcement is expected before the larger group completes its session late Thursday.

Since Monday when Philip Murray, president of both the CIO and the USW, called for the meetings, there has been a virtual cessation of strike preparations in the local unions. Talk of a walkout has been at a minimum.

ings from the nation's newspapers.

Some newspapers said the United States could take no other course, but other editorials suggested that this country might have found other means of obtaining the fliers' release.

A number of newspapers expressed fears that many similar troubles are yet to come. Some said the U. S. should consider retaliatory measures against the Communists.

The decision to pay the fines drew varied comments and warnings from the nation's newspapers.

Words like "blackmail" and "ransom" and "kidnappers" were sprinkled through editorials denouncing the Hungarian government's action against the fliers.

Some newspapers said the United States could take no other course, but other editorials suggested that this country might have found other means of obtaining the fliers' release.

A number of newspapers expressed fears that many similar troubles are yet to come. Some said the U. S. should consider retaliatory measures against the Communists.

The decision to pay the fines drew varied comments and warnings from the nation's newspapers.

Words like "blackmail" and "ransom" and "kidnappers" were sprinkled through editorials denouncing the Hungarian government's action against the fliers.

Some newspapers said the United States could take no other course, but other editorials suggested that this country might have found other means of obtaining the fliers' release.

A number of newspapers expressed fears that many similar troubles are yet to come. Some said the U. S. should consider retaliatory measures against the Communists.

The decision to pay the fines drew varied comments and warnings from the nation's newspapers.

Words like "blackmail" and "ransom" and "kidnappers" were sprinkled through editorials denouncing the Hungarian government's action against the fliers.

Some newspapers said the United States could take no other course, but other editorials suggested that this country might have found other means of obtaining the fliers' release.

A number of newspapers expressed fears that many similar troubles are yet to come. Some said the U. S. should consider retaliatory measures against the Communists.

The decision to pay the fines drew varied comments and warnings from the nation's newspapers.

Words like "blackmail" and "ransom" and "kidnappers" were sprinkled through editorials denouncing the Hungarian government's action against the fliers.

Some newspapers said the United States could take no other course, but other editorials suggested that this country might have found other means of obtaining the fliers' release.

A number of newspapers expressed fears that many similar troubles are yet to come. Some said the U. S. should consider retaliatory measures against the Communists.

The decision to pay the fines drew varied comments and warnings from the nation's newspapers.

Words like "blackmail" and "ransom" and "kidnappers" were sprinkled through editorials denouncing the Hungarian government's action against the fliers.

Some newspapers said the United States could take no other course, but other editorials suggested that this country might have found other means of obtaining the fliers' release.

A number of newspapers expressed fears that many similar troubles are yet to come. Some said the U. S. should consider retaliatory measures against the Communists.

The decision to pay the fines drew varied comments and warnings from the nation's newspapers.

Words like "blackmail" and "ransom" and "kidnappers" were sprinkled through editorials denouncing the Hungarian government's action against the fliers.

Some newspapers said the United States could take no other course, but other editorials suggested that this country might have found other means of obtaining the fliers' release.

A number of newspapers expressed fears that many similar troubles are yet to come. Some said the U. S. should consider retaliatory measures against the Communists.

The decision to pay the fines drew varied comments and warnings from the nation's newspapers.

Words like "blackmail" and "ransom" and "kidnappers" were sprinkled through editorials denouncing the Hungarian government's action against the fliers.

Some newspapers said the United States could take no other course, but other editorials suggested that this country might have found other means of obtaining the fliers' release.

Hungarians 'Considering' Yank Offer

U.S. Ready To Pay Reds $120,000 To Ransom 4 Airmen

VIENNA, Dec. 27.—(P)—The U. S. embassy here said Thursday night the Hungarian Communist government is still "considering" the American offer to pay a fine for the freedom of four jailed U. S. fliers.

Such a stand conflicted with the announcement of Hungary's legation in Washington that the offer of $120,000 in ransom had been accepted for the prompt release of the four men.

Thursday night's development raised doubts on the status of negotiations for release of the fliers, convicted of violating Hungary's borders after their plane lost its course on a Munich-Beigrado flight. It seemed possible the Hungarians had raised new conditions.

The ambassador here, Walter J. Donnelly, talked with George Abbott, U. S. charge d'affaires in the American legation in Budapest.

"THE HUNGARIANS merely told Abbott our proposition was being considered," Donnelly said.

But American officials in Budapest still hoped the fliers soon would be on their way to freedom. Abbott also expressed hope that the Hungarians—when their decision was made—would turn the fliers over to the U. S. legation in Budapest rather than turn them on the Austrian border without previous notice.

A group of American officials was ready to go to the border to meet the fliers.

It waited for Soviet permission to cross the Russian occupied zone of Austria to the border town of Nickelsdorf, where Hungary in April released Robert A. Vogel, American businessman imprisoned 17 months by Hungary as a "spy."

Donnelly and his deputy, Walter A. Dowling, are the only American officials in Austria who have the right to move about the Soviet zone without prior Soviet authorization. They planned to go to the border if the Russians delayed authorization for the Nickelsdorf group to operate.

The four fliers are Capt. Dave H. Henderson of Shawnee, Okla., Capt. John Swift of Glens Falls, N. Y., T-Sgt. Jess A. Duff of Spokane, Wash., and Sgt. James A. Elam of Kingsland, Ark.

Survey Says TV No Great Factor In School Work

CINCINNATI, Dec. 27.—(P)—Don't tell Junior this, but a survey report says that "the school performance of children is unaffected by whether or not they have television sets in their homes."

Dr. Raymond F. McCoy, director of the Xavier university graduate division, made known the findings of a survey which undertook to find the answers to two specific questions:

1. How do children who have television sets at home compare with other children in school achievement; and 2. Do children having sets at home do better school work when their parents closely control their television.

Nearly 1,000 children in the sixth and seventh grades of 16 Cincinnati schools participated.

In comparing the achievement of the children who had TV sets in their homes and those who didn't, the study yielded no appreciable difference. Parental control of television habits was no great factor in the children's school work.

Children polled spent more time watching television each week than in going to school. Over the week, counting Saturday and Sunday, youngsters spent 30 hours before their television sets as compared with the 25 hours spent in school.

And, just for the record, all that kidding about youngsters going for Western programs isn't too far-fetched. Milton Berle rated as the most popular TV show with the pre-adolescents, but next in popularity came three Western programs.

Colder tonight with lowest temperatures zero to 5 above. Friday, continued cold. Yesterday's high, 40; low, 12; at 8 a.m. today, 18. Year ago high, 22; low, 1. River, 10.60 feet.

Thursday, December 27, 1951

THE CIRCLEVILLE HERALD

An Independent Newspaper

Associated Press leased wire for state, national and world news, Central Press picture service, leading columnists and artists, full local news coverage.

66th Year—304

Commies Hint 50,000 Unlisted Allied POWs Died In Prison Camps

MUNSAN, Korea, Friday, Dec. 28.—(P)—The Reds dropped a veiled hint Thursday that 50,000 unlisted Allied prisoners were all dead.

At the same time Allied armistice negotiators indicated that if the Communists would give a full and honest accounting for all prisoners, the Allies might consider the all-for-all exchange that the Reds demand.

The conference ended, however, with agreement on only one thing: To meet again today at 11 a. m. (9 p. m., Thursday, EST) even though the 30-day deadline on the provisional cease-fire line expired at midnight Thursday.

There was no indication here of any plans to extend the agreement

responsible for the "twilight war" of the last 30 days. The full five-man armistice committees which signed the provisional buffer zone arrangement Nov. 27 did not even meet. An official UN spokesman said neither side asked for an extension.

AT THE MEETING on prisoners, the head of the Allied subcommittees, Rear Adm. R. E. Libby, told the Reds:

"If and when you account for the prisoners of war you should have and all you have had—after you have given us a complete prisoner-of-war list—then your proposal is worthy of discussion."

"Until we get from you this information we cannot move one inch towards a solution."

The Allies have not committed themselves in any way on an exchange.

But in the same session Thursday at Panmunjom, Libby said the Reds hinted they may report that many of the 50,000 prisoners unaccounted for had died of disease or exposure.

Libby said it was "a rather ominous note. It might have been a forewarning that all these people died of illness."

Subcommittees working on the problems of exchanging war prisoners and supervising a truce still were deadlocked when they adjourned their last session before the scheduled expiration hour.

EACH COMMITTEE scheduled another meeting for 11 a. m. Friday (9 p. m. EST) Thursday in Panmunjom.

Washington sources expressed belief Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway would approve a 15-day extension of the period in which the 45-mile line drawn across Korea Nov. 27 could become a permanent cease-fire line.

High diplomatic officials in Washington said the UN commander had been authorized to approve an extension of up to 15 days if he felt there was hope of reaching an agreement.

On Nov. 27 negotiators drew a tentative cease-fire line and agreed it would become the center of a 2½ mile wide buffer zone if an armistice were signed within 30 days.

Otherwise the line would be redrawn just before truce is signed to follow changes resulting from battle action.

In Thursday's fruitless talks in snow-swept Panmunjom each side accused the other of needlessly delaying the truce.

North Korean Maj. Gen. Lee Sang Choo charged that the UN wasted time by refusing to agree to a Communist proposal for an all-for-all exchange of prisoners.

LIBBY TOLD the Reds they wasted 12 days by refusing to set up a prisoner exchange subcommittee, then delayed for another eight days before agreeing to exchange prisoner lists.

The front was cold and relatively quiet Thursday as temperatures dipped below zero in some sectors. A company-size Red attack on the eastern front near Heartbreak Ridge cut off one Allied unit. UN forces counterattacked in knee deep snow and biting cold.

American Sabre jets shot down two Red jets and badly damaged another in a renewal of air battles over Northwest Korea.

The MIG-15s were shot down in a 30-minute battle between 32 Sabres and 50 fight-minded MIGs.

Earlier 100 MIGs had run for cover when a flight of Sabres opened up on them. The Fifth Air Force said no American planes were hurt in either encounter.

Allies, Commies Set Up POW Mail Exchange System

TOKYO, Dec. 27.—(P)—The Allies and the Communists have taken steps to clear the way for prisoners of war to exchange letters with loved ones at home.

UN spokesmen said relatives and friends writing Allied prisoners held in North Korean camps should address letters to:

APO 100, care postmaster, San Francisco.

Letters sent to this address will be held until permission is given to effect the delivery. That must come from the Communists.

When the Reds give an OK, presumably mail to Allied prisoners will be handled in the same fashion as mail from them—passed from one side to the other over the truce negotiation table at Panmunjom, Korea.

The Reds delivered 803 letters Wednesday. They arrived in Tokyo Thursday and were turned over to U. S. Army postal authorities. More letters are said to be on the way from the prison camps in North Korea.

350 Deaths Seen For New Year's

CHICAGO, Dec. 27.—(P)—The National Safety Council estimates 350 persons will die in traffic accidents during the nation's New Year's holiday period.

The estimate was for the period starting 6 p. m. Friday, to midnight Tuesday. The total number of traffic deaths for a similar period over Christmas was 535.

FIRST WOMAN ever to come to the United States from Tibet, Miss Tenki Angmu Tenduf La is interviewed on her arrival in New York. She has been awarded a fellowship by the American Bureau for Medical Aid to China. The Tibetan woman will enter Barnard College in February.

Man, 22, Is Held For Fatal Stabbing In Cincinnati

CINCINNATI, Dec. 27.—(P)—The blond, thin-faced man told Sheriff Dan Tehan:

"The next thing I remember is that I was going up the road with blood on my hands. I do not remember how I picked up the scissors or anything."

But Frank Christophel, 22, did tell the sheriff of the conversation he said led to the fatal stabbing of Mrs. Elizabeth (Betty) Sloan, also 22, in her College Hill home Wednesday.

He said he stopped at her home to object to the "way she was acting" and to tell her he planned to reenlist in the Marine Corps.

"Betty accused me of cheating on her. She slapped me in the face and that's all I remember."

The young waitress's landlady was in the basement of the home when she heard the dark-haired beauty shriek, "hurry, get a doctor!"

But Mrs. Sloan died before help could arrive. Coroner Herbert P. Lyle reported that 24 stab wounds with a pair of scissors had gouged into Mrs. Sloan's chest, throat and head. A blow through the heart killed her.

Police set up a dragnet for Christophel, but he surrendered to Tehan late Wednesday. He is being held for further questioning.

Even In Death, Fat Man Proves To Be Problem

PIKEVILLE, Ky., Dec. 27.—(P)—Even in death, Virgil Tackett's weight was a problem.

When Tackett's special casket was built at the small home on nearby Robinson Creek, the family had to remove the door frame before they could get the box outside.

Tackett, who tipped the scales between 500 and 600 pounds, died Wednesday in his sturdily built chair which he found more comfortable for sleeping than a bed. Death apparently was caused by a heart disorder.

The 26-year-old Pike Countyman, who will be buried Friday, was big all his life. At birth, he weighed 13 pounds.

Manufacturers didn't make overalls and jackets large enough for the six foot, one inch Kentuckian. The family would buy two pairs of the biggest size made—36—and send them together. One leg of the overalls would have made a pair of pants for the average fat man.

With his 40-inch thighs and 78-inch waist, Tackett dwarfed his three normal-sized sisters. His parents also are about average in weight.

Convicts Slash Heels In Protest

BUFORD, Ga., Dec. 27.—(P)—State prison officials are looking into a Christmas Day heel-slashing episode here.

Warden Hubert L. Smith of the state's new Rock Quarry Prison, said Wednesday 30 hardened inmates cut their heel tendons with a safety razor blade. Most of the cuts were light.

The prisoners reportedly were demonstrating against limited visiting privileges and a lack of reading material and radios at Rock Quarry.

HITCH DEVELOPS IN DEAL TO RELEASE U. S. FLIERS

VARIED VIEWPOINTS ARE OUTLINED

U. S. Officials Admit Danger Exists In Paying Ransoms

WASHINGTON, Dec. 27.—(P)—Responsible officials have conceded there are dangers for the future in the U. S. decision to pay the $120,000 in fines levied by Communist Hungary against four American airmen.

At the same time these authorities asserted there were compelling reasons for the decision and that in terms of propaganda the result will not necessarily be entirely adverse to the United States.

All this is based on the assumption that Hungary will accept the American offer and will release the fliers. There was some doubt Thursday that the deal actually would be consummated.

Hungary has held the U. S. airmen since Nov. 19 as violators of her border. A Communist court decreed they each would have to spend three months in jail if the fines were not paid. The Hungarian action was widely denounced here as international blackmail and the fines were termed a ransom.

On the negative side of the U. S. decision to pay the fines these dangers of disadvantages were noted:

1. The Communist leadership can and undoubtedly will exploit the U. S. decision in Europe and elsewhere as an evidence of American weakness, and also as evidence of that the airmen were guilty of violating the borders of Hungary to discharge spies.

2. Aside from propagandizing, the Kremlin may be led to think there is a lack of determination in Washington in handling such matters and may be encouraged to run greater risks in the future in dealing with the U. S. and its citizens.

3. The Hungarian incident may lead to a series of similar irritating actions involving greater sums of money and more people—either members of the armed forces, diplomats or private citizens.

This danger is seen as most likely to materialize if the Communists decide they have hit upon a way of getting money out of the U. S.

On the positive side of the decision to pay the $30,000 fine assessed against each of the four, officials said there were these considerations:

1. Payment appeared to be the only way open to assure the prompt release and therefore the safety of the airmen.

2. The decision can be used by the U. S. and its friends in Europe as proof of American patience and restraint in dealing with Communist provocation.

Truman Reported To Have Chosen 2 On Cleanup Team

NEW YORK, Dec. 27.—(P)—The New York Times says President Truman is reported to have chosen two of three members for a special commission to investigate and expose wrongdoers in government.

In a story from Independence, Mo., the Times reported Mr. Truman is said to be still seeking a young and widely-known investigator to complete the inquiry team.

The Times story, by W. H. Lawrence, declared the President is said to have obtained acceptance from one Republican and one Democrat, whose names were withheld pending completion of the three-man panel.

Lawrence said the still-unselected board member replaces Federal Judge Thomas F. Murphy of New York who reportedly has withdrawn his acceptance to head the inquiry.

One of the reasons Judge Murphy was reported to have given for refusal to serve on the corruption inquiry group was the commission's lack of subpoena powers.

Nevada's Oldest Indian Dies At 112

ELKO, Nev., Dec. 27.—(P)—Billie Mose, an Indian who said he could remember when Salt Lake City's population of 10 persons lived in a single log cabin, died Tuesday night.

Mose was believed to be 112 years old, Nevada's oldest Indian.

Hungarians 'Considering' Yank Offer

U. S. Ready To Pay Reds $120,000 To Ransom 4 Airmen

VIENNA, Dec. 27.—(P)—The U. S. embassy here said Thursday night the Hungarian Communist government is still "considering" the American offer to pay a fine for the freedom of four jailed U. S. fliers.

Such a stand conflicted with the announcement of Hungary's legation in Washington that the offer of $120,000 in ransom had been accepted for the prompt release of the four men.

Thursday night's development raised doubts on the status of negotiations for release of the fliers, convicted of violating Hungary's borders after their plane lost its course on a Munich-Belgrade flight. It seemed possible the Hungarians had raised new conditions.

The ambassador here, Walter J. Donnelly, talked with George Abbott, U. S. charge d'affaires in the American legation in Budapest.

"THE HUNGARIANS merely told Abbott our proposition was being considered," Donnelly said.

But American officials in Budapest still hoped the fliers soon would be on their way to freedom. Abbott also expressed hope that the Hungarians—when their decision was made—would turn the fliers over to the U. S. legation in Budapest rather than Jun. 7 them on the Austrian border without previous notice.

A group of American officials was ready to go to the border to meet the fliers.

It waited for Soviet permission to cross the Russian occupied zone of Austria to the border town of Nickelsdorf, where Hungary in April released Robert A. Vogeler, American businessman imprisoned 17 months by Hungary as a "spy."

Donnelly and his deputy, Walter A. Dowling, are the only American officials in Austria who have the right to move about the Soviet zone without prior Soviet authorization. They planned to go to the border if the Russians delayed authorization for the Nickelsdorf group to operate.

The four fliers are Capt. Dave H. Henderson of Shawnee, Okla., Capt. John Swift of Glens Falls, N. Y., T-Sgt. Jess A. Duff of Spokane, Wash., and Sgt. James A. Elam of Kingsland, Ark.

Survey Says TV No Great Factor In School Work

CINCINNATI, Dec. 27.—(P)—Don't tell Junior this, but a survey report says that "the school performance of children is unaffected by whether or not they have television sets in their homes."

Dr. Raymond F. McCoy, director of the Xavier university graduate division, made known the findings of a survey which undertook to find the answers to two specific questions:

1. How do children who have television sets at home compare with other children in school achievement; and 2. Do children having sets at home do better school work when their parents closely control their television.

Nearly 1,000 children in the sixth and seventh grades of 16 Cincinnati schools participated.

In comparing the achievement of the children who had TV sets in their homes and those who didn't, the study yielded no appreciable difference. Parental control of television habits was no great factor in the children's school work.

Children polled spent more time watching television each week than in going to school. Over the week, counting Saturday and Sunday, youngsters spent 30 hours before their television sets as compared with the 25 hours spent in school.

And, just for the record, all that kidding about youngsters going for Western programs isn't too far-fetched. Milton Berle rated as the most popular TV show with the pre-adolescents, but next in popularity came three Western programs.

INCENTIVE TO FIGHT LACKING

Logic Points To Truce In Korea—Eventually

SEOUL, Friday, Dec. 28.—(P)—Expiration of the 30-day cease-fire line period last midnight (10 a. m. Thursday EST) raised the question: Will heavy fighting break out again in Korea?

There is some evidence that it will not at least not right away. There has been no large-scale ground fighting in the last month.

The agreement on a provisional cease-fire line signed Nov. 27 said nothing about stopping or starting ground fighting.

It simply said that if either the Communists or the United Nations took any new ground on either side of the line, and if an armistice was signed in 30 days, each side would have to give up its gains.

The line was based on the battle front as it existed then, and there has been no important changes since.

THE AGREEMENT discouraged full-scale fighting because no one wants to fight and be killed for real estate that has to be turned back at the end of the month.

All during this time the war in the air was going full blast, raging hotter than ever with almost daily jet battles and extra heavy UN bombing attacks, averaging 700 sorties a day. This was the UN way of twisting the Communist arm for a quick armistice.

But on the ground front there were only harassing artillery fire, clashes by roving patrols, UN prisoner raids and Communist probes.

That is one reason why it appears that neither side plans any large scale offensive immediately. Since mid-December both had a good opportunity to attack and keep their gains. Neither chose to do so.

Today there are no reports of Red concentration along any part of the front equalling their April and May massing of troops. Allied officers say the Reds are spread out pretty evenly in what appears to be mainly a defensive position.

Perhaps the best reason for thinking that no new "big war" will start up again is the fact that neither side has any real hope of gaining any more.

IN 18 MONTHS of war rival armies have shoved each other back and forth on a 100-mile football gridiron—with neither able to score.

It has cost a lot of blood and treasure. But each side has proved its point: The Communists, that we can't march to the Yalu with our present forces; the UN that the Communists can't conquer South Korea with theirs.

There may be more savage fighting and small advances and retreats, but logic points toward an eventual armistice.

INVESTIGATION CONTINUED

Manslaughter Accusation Prepared Against Burris

An accusation of manslaughter was being prepared Thursday against Roger Burris, 19, of Ashville, who admittedly killed a companion Monday with a blast from a 12-gauge shotgun.

Sheriff Charles Radcliff Thursday stated he was prepared to file the manslaughter accusation against the youth.

Burris was arrested Monday following the death of Bobby Harold Swank, also 19, of Millport. Swank died instantly as the result of a shotgun blast in the left side of his head.

The shooting happened in the home of Millard Hart, Burris' stepfather. Burris stated he shot his companion following an argument, but that he "didn't know the gun was loaded."

The youth has been held in Pickaway County jail since Monday on an open accusation while local authorities completed investigation.

Airlift Carries 200,000th Casualty

TOKYO, Dec. 27.—(P)—The planes which evacuate wounded Allied soldiers from Korea, carried their 200,000th casualty Thursday.

He was a Belgian private—Albert Keirle of Ploegstert.

Air evacuation officers explained the 200,000 figure did not represent that many casualties since some men have been flown from one area to another several times.

Newport Gambling Place Is Raided

NEWPORT, Ky., Dec. 27.—(P)—Newport police, armed with machineguns and tear gas, raided the Merchants Club in the downtown section early Thursday, arrested 23 persons and seized gambling equipment.

Officers confiscated $1,534.55, the cloth top of a dice table, a black jack table, a hi-lo table, card table and they broke up a card game.

2 Men Are Killed

DAYTON, Dec. 27.—(P)—Two men died Thursday when their automobile was hit by a fast Baltimore and Ohio mail-express train at a crossing northeast of here.

Earl Frederick, coroner's investigator, identified the dead as Russell Adkins, 20, and Franklin Shaffer, 26, both of Wright View Height,

WALK-INS SAVE THE DAY

Bloodmobile Obtains 71 Pints During Yule Visit

Seventy-one Pickaway County and area residents gave pints of blood as Christmas gifts to soldiers in Korea.

That total was obtained Wednesday when the Bloodmobile made its December visit to the city in the First Methodist church.

Eighty-one persons presented themselves for blood donations, but several prospective donors were turned down because the minimum two-month time limit had not elapsed since their November donations.

Thirty-five "walk-ins," including persons from Columbus, Chillicothe, St. Louis, Mo., and Baltimore, O., "saved the day" for the Bloodmobile. Only 46 donors had been previously scheduled by the committee when the Bloodmobile equipment was unloaded Wednesday morning.

MEMBERS of the local blood committee expressed appreciation over the fine response of the community, even though the 125 pint quota was not reached.

Next visit of the Red Cross Bloodmobile unit will be on Jan. 22, in Williamsport high school auditorium.

A local spokesman said that 160 prospective Williamsport area donors are already scheduled for the January visit.

The Bloodmobile will visit Circleville again on Feb. 26.

Wednesday donors were listed as follows:

Mrs. Frances Barr, 146 Town street; Noble E. Barr, 160 Town street; Chester Bevins, Ashville; William Blaney, Route 3; Mrs. Dorothy Bosworth, Route 4; Robert Bowers, 104 Reber; John E. Brady, 128½ Watt street; Lawrence Carle, Route 2; Mrs. Ozella Carrothers, 327 East Union street; Mrs. Alma R. Clark, 1220 South Pickaway street.

CLEM Clark, Route 3; Miss Margaret Clark, 161 East Mill street; Norbert Cochran, Route 3; Mrs. Mary Crable, 1216 South Pickaway street; Mr. and Mrs. Homer Cromley, Ashville; Joseph Danenhow, 207 South Algonquin, Columbus; Ray Davis, 120 Montclair; Mrs. Helen Dowler, Ashville; Ralph Dunkle, Route 3; William Duval, Jr., Ashville; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Eitel, 517 North Pickaway street.

George Eitel, 161 West Union street; Mr. and Mrs. Dallas Eitel, 220 North Pickaway street; Paul Elliott, Route 4; Mrs. Mary England, 809 South Pickaway street; Russell England, Route 1; Kingston; Walter Garner, 414 South Washington street; Arthur R. Gifford, Route 1; Julius Gordon, 603 South Court street; Charles E. Gray, 466 East Franklin street; Lawrence Grissom, Route 1; Dr. Walter Heine, 109 East Mound street.

Wayne Hines, Route 1, Ashville; Mr. and Mrs. Howard Huston, Stoutsville; Miss Helene Ingverson, St. Louis, Mo.; Ray M. Jackson, Chillicothe; Marvin L. Jenkins, 353 Watt street; Paul E. Kennedy, 131 South Pickaway street; Mrs. Luella Lape, Route 3; Mrs. Anna Lovenshimer, 370½ East Mound street; Mrs. Mary Margaret Mader, 556 North Pickaway street; Cecil Mancini, 218 Watt street; Paul Mehler, 430 North Court street.

JACK Miller, 904 South Pickaway street; Herschel Moats, 125 Logan street; Dr. E. L. Montgomery, Seyfert avenue; Forrest Moore, Route 2; Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Peters, Route 1, Ashville; Arthur Pettit, 475 North Pickaway street; Thomas Pettit, 475 North Pickaway street; Dick Plum, 112 Reber avenue; Mrs. Sterling Poling, Route 4; Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Renick, 413 East Main street; Mrs. Mary Richards, Route 4.

George Roth, Route 2; Mr. and Mrs. Christian Schwarz, 147 Watt street; Mrs. Carl Scothorn, Route 2, Ashville; Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Scothorn, Route 2, Ashville; Robert Smithers, 471 East Main street; Harry Speakman, Route 2; Everett Stocklen, 146 East High street; Mrs. Helen Strous, Route 4; Carl Thomas, 117 North Scioto street.

Mrs. Mildred Thomas, 1220 South Pickaway street; Mrs. Katherine Thomerson, Route 4; Gordon F. Thompson, Route 1, Laureville; Robert Valentine, 357 East Franklin street; Keith O. Wagner, 121 Monroe street, Baltimore, O.; Mrs. Grace Walters, 301 East High street; Mr. and Mrs. James Ward, Route 2; Frank Wantz, 121 Montclair avenue; Umberto Wiggins, Route 2, Amanda.

ATWELL was arrested Tuesday on Route 23 at Bell's Siding when his auto struck the center support of the divided underpass. Carfrey was arrested last Friday on Route 62 after narrowly avoiding several head-on crashes.

Both men appeared before Judge William D. Radcliff on affidavits presented by Prosecuting Attorney Guy Cline.

Driver Fined For Speeding

Ray K. Masser of Steubenville was fined $10 and $470 in costs Wednesday in mayor's court on a speeding accusation.

He was arrested Dec. 23 on Route 22 by State Patrolman Clyde Well.

MARKETS

GRAIN FUTURES
CHICAGO, Dec. 27.—(AP)—Grains opened with small price changes in very quiet dealings on the Board of Trade Thursday. For the most part the market was steady, although a few contracts sank below Wednesday's close.

Wheat was steadied by the prospect of exports to France and West Germany, while winter weather was a help to feed grains.

Wheat started ¼ cent lower to ¼ higher, March $2.60½; corn was ¼ lower to ¼ higher, March 96½-94. Soybeans were unchanged to ¼ higher, January $3.00½.

CASH quotations made to farmers in Circleville:
Eggs ..... 44
Cream, Regular ..... 70
Cream, Premium ..... 75
Butter, Grade A, wholesale ..... 63
POULTRY
Fries, 3 lbs. and up ..... 27
Heavy Hens ..... 24
Roasters ..... 27
Light Hens ..... 27
O'kesters ..... 32

CHICAGO LIVESTOCK
CHICAGO, Dec. 27.—(USDA)—Saleable hogs 23,000; receipts at least 2,000 larger than early estimate and the run largest for a Thursday since January, 1941; general market unevenly 75 to 100 lower on both butchers and sows; extremes off more compared with Wednesday's best prices, particularly on heavier butchers, most sales 170-220 lb. barrows and gilts 18.50-19; latter price freely paid by order buyers for 180-210 lb. 230-270 lb. 17.40-18.50; 280-310 lb. 17-17.25; sows 400 lb. and down 15-16.50; 400-500 lb. 14.25-15.25; occasional heavier sows below 14.

Saleable cattle 7,000; saleable calves 200; yearling steers and heifers fairly active early but trade slowed later on all steers and heifers; light steers around 1,050 lb down and heifers steady to 50 lower; steers weighing around 1,100 lb up weak to 75 lower; generally 50 off; cows and bulls scarce, active, steady to 25 higher; vealers steady to 100 higher for two days; top 4 high prime 1,050 lb steers 38.50; bulk choice and prime steers and yearlings 33.75-37.50; good to low-choice steers 31.50-33.50; utility and commercial steers 27.50-31; load prime mixed steers and heifers 26.50; most good to low prime 25-27; utility cows 22-24.50; canners and cullers 19-22; utility to good bulls 26.50-30.75; commercial 1 prime vealers 28-37.

Saleable sheep 5,000; nothing done on slaughter lambs; asking fully steady or 31.50 down on woolled lambs; bidding 50 or more lower; yearlings and ewes scarce, steady; utility to good yearlings 22; ewes 12-15.50.

CIRCLEVILLE CASH GRAIN PRICES
Wheat ..... 2.45
Corn ..... 1.87
Soybeans ..... 2.80

PROHIBITION ERA beer baron Irving "Waxy Gordon" Wexler (holding handkerchief to face), 63, enters Sing Sing Prison, Ossining, N. Y., with other prisoners to start serving his sentence. He received two concurrent terms of 25 years to life for selling narcotics. (International Exclusive)

Pumpkin Show On Profit Side Of 1951 Ledger

Circleville's 1951 Pumpkin Show, which attracted thousands of persons during its four-day run, was operated on the profit side of the ledger this year.

Treasurer Bob Colville announced Thursday that total receipts for this year's street extravaganza were $12,632.91, while expenditures amounted to $12,940.10.

Colville explained that these figures show a balance of $287.19 deficit for the 1951 Show, although some semi-permanent improvements were made during the exposition to make the books show a profit.

The report shows $757.33 spent in improvements this year — lumber for a new two-story information booth and vegetable exhibits — which has been added to the profit side. Colville added that depreciation for the one year of use on the new number amounted to $189.33 (25 per cent), meaning that the improvement was a net gain to the Show of $568 and the 1951 Show therefore earned $280.81 profit.

In expenditures, the biggest outlay during the Show was $2,487.53 for premiums, while $2,308.50 was paid for the bands which made the parades successful.

SUPPLIES cost $1,716.57 and entertainment and free acts cost $1,410. Other expenditures listed were: printing and advertising, $737.77; miscellaneous, $1,718.82; judges, $173.49; labor, $561.25; watchmen and police, $859.74; insurance, $170.33; deposits returned, $20; and rent, $850.90.

Receipts collected during the Show were $7,272.90 from concessions; $2,388.81 from rides; $1,552.12 from donations; $1,093.63 from the pumpkin pie booth; $75 from shows; and $270.45 from refunds.

Man Fined $50 On Lesser Count

A Columbus man arrested last August on an accusation of drunken driving has been fined $50 and costs in Pickaway County common pleas court on a lesser offense of reckless operation.

He is Leoney Warren, arrested on South Pickaway street here Aug. 12 by Officer Carl Thompson. When first heard before the court, he entered a plea of innocent to the drunken driving count.

However, on a case presented this week by County Prosecutor Guy Cline, Warren entered a plea of guilty to the lesser offense of reckless operation.

Solon Wants 363 Americans Freed

WASHINGTON, Dec. 27.—(AP)—Senator Knowland (R.-Calif) has demanded that the U. S. government, during Korea cease-fire negotiations, try to arrange the release of 363 Americans he says are prisoners in Communist China.

Knowland said he understands that 33 Americans are now jailed in China, 30 or more are under house arrest and 300 were refused exit visas when they tried to get out of the country.

New Citizens

MISS MOOTZ
Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mootz of 342 East Mound street, are the parents of a daughter, born at 9:07 a. m. Thursday in Berger hospital.

DEAD STOCK

Horses ..... $1.00 each
Cows ..... $1.00 each
According to Size and Condition
Phone Call 870 Circleville
Hogs and Small Stock Removed Promptly

Buchsieb Fertilizer Co.

Williamsport

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Shaw of Columbus and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Huffines were Saturday evening dinner guests of Mrs. Mary Tinker.

Eddie Gallaher, a student at Georgia School of Technology in Atlanta, Ga., is spending the holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Gallaher.

Miss Helen G. Betts of Cleveland spent Christmas with her father, Mr. Fred Betts.

Mr. and Mrs. John Steinhauser and daughters, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Whitten and sons, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Shaeffer and Mr. and Mrs. Don Steinhauser and sons were among the guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Shaeffer of Grange Hall, Christmas Day.

Norman Godden of Goodfellow Air Force Base, San Angelo, Texas, is home on a leave with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dean Godden.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth List and son of New Knoxville spent Christmas with friends and relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. L. V. Ebenbach of Kent and Mr. and Mrs. Merton Garrison and family of Frankfort were Saturday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Marcus Ebenbach.

Gary Dennis Beougher, who has spent the past three months with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Webb Steinhauser, has returned to the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Denny Beougher of Columbus.

Lonnie Pemberton was a Christmas dinner guest of Mr. and Mrs. William Hastings Jr. and sons.

Mr. and Mrs. List and son Bob spent Christmas with Mr. and Mrs. Dan Kessler of Groveport.

David Snyder, who is stationed in California, spent the Christmas holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Snyder.

Mr. and Mrs. Webb Steinhauser had as their guests Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Marion Steinhauser and family; Mr. and Mrs. John Steinhauser and daughters and Mr. and Mrs. Don Steinhauser and sons.

Mrs. Glen Picklesimer received word from her husband, Pvt. Glen Picklesimer that he had arrived safely in Japan on Christmas Day.

Too Late To Classify

MODERN 8 room house for rent, Mingo St. just off Main. Ph. 5861 or inq. 370 E. Mound.

1949 MERCURY fordor—sale or trade, priced to sell. Ph. 3908 or 954G.

RELAX! ENJOY A MOVIE—

Chakares Theatre
CLIFTONA
Circleville, Ohio.
Now-Fri.-Sat.
—A LAUGH HIT—

RED SKELTON IS
The Yellow Cab Man
GLORIA DE HAVEN
ACTION HIT NO. 2

TIM HOLT
Saddle Legion
RICHARD MARTIN—DOROTHY MALONE
—Also—
Perils of Pearl Pureheart

Mainly About People

ONE MINUTE PULPIT

There are more talents that are hidden in the ground than there are talents that are used. A few schools train and inspire youth to recognize and use their talents. Some inspired ministers have this gift too. But he that received one talent went and digged in the earth, and his lord's money. — Matt. 25:18.

Patty Hines, six-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Hines of 129 Park street, underwent a tonsillectomy in Berger hospital Thursday morning.

Jesse Lloyd of Frankfort, was removed Wednesday to his home, following surgery in Berger hospital.

There will be a Fox drive starting at intersection Rts. 22 and 104 at 9 a. m. Saturday, December 29. Shotguns only will be used, free lunch will be served—everyone welcome. —ad.

Mrs. George Keaton of Atlanta, was admitted to Berger hospital Thursday as a medical patient.

Mrs. Eugene Barthelmas and son were removed Wednesday from Berger hospital to their home, 123 Park street.

A card party to be held in the New Holland High School, Saturday, December 29 starting at 8 p. m. will be sponsored by the PTO. —ad.

Edith Jones, 12-year-old daughter of Mrs. Florence Jones of 328 East Ohio street, was admitted to Berger hospital Thursday for a tonsillectomy.

Mrs. Fred Cook of Circleville, Route 3, slipped on the ice while in Columbus Wednesday afternoon and fell fracturing her left hip. Mrs. Cook had a similar accident four years ago when she fractured her right hip. She is a patient in Doctors hospital.

Two Building Permits OK'd

Two new building permits have been approved by the Circleville planning and zoning commission.

John N. Bowers of 315 East Main street has received approval to build a new brick and frame home on Pershing Drive, located near the new Atwater elementary school building.

The new home, estimated to cost about $10,000, will measure 45x23 feet and consist of a story and a half, according to the permit.

Homer Lowery of Lowery Lane has received permission to build a $75 frame shed measuring 7x14 feet.

American Girl, Ex-Priest Wed

MILAN, Dec. 27.—(AP)—Claire Young, a blonde Chicago girl, 21, was married Thursday to Luciano Negri, 43, a former Roman Catholic priest.

The way to marriage had been tangled with red tape that took months to untangle.

Claire gave up her American citizenship, Negri was defrocked by the church and both are excommunicated.

As many as 45 Ohio counties have at some time produced oil.

GRAND THEATRE
Gala New Year's Eve Samba
HURRY! ONLY THEATRE CAPACITY WILL BE SOLD! TICKETS NOW ON SALE

Screen—Premiere Showing! Robert Taylor "Westward the Women" Big! New! Exciting!

Songs, Cartoons, Novelties

STANLEY R. DOMBROWIAK, who ran an ad in a Joliet, Ill., paper offering to sell one of his eyes for $1,000, is shown with his wife Anna and two of their four children, Mary Elaine, 3, and Anna Marie, 1. Dombrowiak, a factory worker, said he needed the money to pay debts and buy food. (International Soundphoto)

Tax On Commies Being Urged

BATON ROUGE, Dec. 27.—(AP)—The national commander of the Marine Corps League wants the U. S. to tax Communists in this country to pay the fines Hungary assessed against four American fliers.

John R. O'Brien of Passaic, N. J., said Wednesday he sent a suggestion to Rep. Canfield (R-N.J.) that Congress enact legislation at the next session imposing the tax on Communists.

CROP Program Here Reported Behind Quota

The late Dr. S. C. Michelfelder, reporting to CROP headquarters in Chicago from the vantage point of five years experience in Switzerland, recently said: "Men like Truman, Marshall and Eisenhower have admitted that goodwill arising from voluntary agency gifts such as CROP is far greater than that from any tax-supported program. They have not only saved the churches of Europe but the faith in western democracy."

Voluntary giving to the Christian Rural Overseas Program in Pickaway County, while good as far as it goes, yet is far from reaching the goal hoped for. To date Lloyd Minor, CROP treasurer, reports that the cash total is only $648.25, with an additional grain total of 144 bushels of corn.

It is suggested that farmers who have not been called on, but want to give to provide food for homeless and destitute families in other countries, take a grain gift to any elevator in Pickaway County or mail a check made out to Christian Rural Overseas Program to CROP Treasurer Lloyd Minor, Circleville Route 2.

3,113 Pickaway Employees Get Compensation

A total of 3,113 employees in all Pickaway County industries were covered under Ohio Unemployment Compensation law during the second quarter of 1951.

Figures released by the Division of Research and Statistics Thursday showed breakdown of local employees in seven categories.

They were listed as follows: Contract construction, 238; manufacturing, 1,461; transportation, communication and public utilities, 269; wholesale and retail trade, 927; finance, insurance and real estate, 73; service, 106; miscellaneous divisions and those with less than three employees, 39.

At the same time, a total of $1,996,307 was paid to Pickaway County employees under the Unemployment Compensation law, for the quarter.

RESULTS were tabulated from employer tax reports for the second quarter, 1951, received through Dec. 14.

Manufacturing employees received $1,019,307; contract construction, $195,423; transportation, communication and public utilities, $226,263; wholesale and retail trade, $453,536; finance, insurance and real estate, $43,119; service, $35,644; and miscellaneous, $31,935.

Mrs. Hafey Resigns Post

Pickaway County commissioners Wednesday accepted the resignation of Mrs. Evelyn Hafey from her post as clerk in the county relief office.

Mrs. Hafey, now ill in White Cross hospital, Columbus, resigned her position effective Jan. 1. No replacement has been named.

DEATHS and Funerals

MRS. MINNIE DUMM

Mrs. Minnie Dumm, 85, of Circleville Route 3, died at 6:45 p. m. at her residence on Walnut Creek pike.

Born in Ross County on March 15, 1866, she was the daughter of Levi and Caroline (Whisler) Holtermann.

Her husband, George W. Dumm, preceded her in death in January, 1946.

Survivors include two sons, Dorwin J. Dumm, with whom she lived; and Lawrence T. Dumm, of San Francisco, Calif.; and three grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held at 1:30 p. m. Saturday from the Deffenbaugh Funeral Home. Burial will be in Hitler-Ludwig cemetery.

Friends may call at the funeral home after noon on Friday.

Imler Bound To Jury On Check Count

Harold Imler of Circleville was bound to Pickaway County grand jury on $300 bond Thursday morning in Magistrate Oscar Root's court on accusation of forgery.

In an affidavit signed by Carle E. Snider, Imler is accused of passing a worthless check amounting to $30 at Snider's place of business, on Dec. 14.

Snider stated in the affidavit that Imler had used the name Charles C. Kocher, in signing the check.

35 To Report For Draft Exams

A total of 35 Pickaway County men are to report for pre-induction physical examinations in January.

The local selective service office said the men will report for their examinations in Columbus Jan. 23. Local pre-induction quota for December was 45 men.

—ENDS TONITE— Our Big Xmas Show

—NO. 1—
RANDOLPH SCOTT — In "CARIBOO TRAIL"

—NO. 2—
MICKEY ROONEY — In "THE STRIP"

—At Your—

Chakares Theatre
GRAND
Circleville, O.

FRI.-SAT.!

—TWO TOP HITS—
—FOR THE FAMILY—

"Close to my Heart"
will be very close to yours!

—RAY GENE MILLAND TIERNEY
—2ND FAMILY HIT—

Kids' New Year's Party
Saturday—12:30 P. M.

Sunday—Monday

Too good to miss!
June Allison Johnson
Too Young to Kiss

HEY KIDS!!

ANOTHER SWELL PARTY AT THE

Your New Year's Party
Chakares Theatre
GRAND
Circleville, O.
Doors Open 12:30—Show At 1 P. M.

Gala New Year's CARTOON CARNIVAL — SAT.
POPEYE! DONALD DUCK!
WOODY WOODPECKER!
—And All The Rest—

PLUS! PLUS!

Second Chapter Of
"ATOM MAN vs. SUPERMAN"
—AND OUR REGULAR SHOW—

Roy Rogers "Pals Of The Golden West"
—2nd Feature—
"Close To My Heart" — with Ray Milland

FREE COCA COLA TO ALL!

Compliments Of The
CIRCLEVILLE COCA COLA CO.

BRING MOM and DAD!
THEY LIKE CARTOONS, TOO!

Admission For This Show Only!

CHILD 25c — ADULTS 50c

WALK-INS SAVE THE DAY

Bloodmobile Obtains 71 Pints During Yule Visit

Seventy-one Pickaway County and area residents gave pints of blood as Christmas gifts to soldiers in Korea.

That total was obtained Wednesday when the Bloodmobile made its December visit to the city in the First Methodist church.

Eighty-one persons presented themselves for blood donations, but several prospective donors were turned down because the minimum two-month time limit had not elapsed since their November donations.

Thirty-five "walk-ins," including persons from Columbus, Chillicothe, St. Louis, Mo., and Baltimore, O., "saved the day" for the Bloodmobile. Only 46 donors had been previously scheduled by the committee when the Bloodmobile equipment was unloaded Wednesday morning.

MEMBERS of the local blood committee expressed appreciation over the fine response of the community, even though the 125 pint quota was not reached.

Next visit of the Red Cross Bloodmobile unit will be on Jan. 22, in Williamsport high school auditorium.

A local spokesman said that 160 prospective bloodmobile area donors are already scheduled for the January visit.

The Bloodmobile will visit Circleville again on Feb. 26.

Wednesday donors were listed as follows:

Mrs. Frances Barr, 146 Town street; Noble E. Barr, 160 Town street; Chester Bevens, Ashville; William Blaney, Route 3; Mrs. Dorothy Bosworth, Route 4; Robert Bowers, 104 Reber; John E. Brady, 128½ Watt street; Lawrence Carle, Route 2; Mrs. Ozella Carrothers, 327 East Union street; Mrs. Alma R. Clark, 1220 South Pickaway street.

CLEM Clark, Route 3; Miss Margaret Clark, 161 East Mill street; Norbert Cochran, Route 3; Mrs. Mary Crable, 1216 South Pickaway street; Mr. and Mrs. Homer Cromley, Ashville; Joseph Danenhower, 207 South Algonquin, Columbus; Ray Davis, 120 Montclair; Mrs. Helen Dowler, Ashville; Ralph Dunkle, Route 3; William Duval, Jr., Ashville; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Eitel, 517 North Pickaway street.

George Eitel, 161 West Union street; Mr. and Mrs. Dallas Elliot, 220 North Pickaway street; Paul Elliott, Route 4; Mrs. Mary England, 809 South Pickaway street; Russell England, Route 1, Kingston; Walter Garner, 414 South Washington street; Arthur R. Gifford, Route 1; Julius Gordon, 603 South Court street; Charles E. Gray, 466 East Franklin street; Lawrence Grissom, Route 1; Dr. Walter Heine, 109 East Mound street.

Wayne Hines, Route 1, Ashville; Mr. and Mrs. Howard Huston, Stoutsville; Miss Helene Ingiverson, St. Louis, Mo.; Ray M. Jackson, Chillicothe; Marvin L. Jenkins, 353 Watt street; Paul E. Kennedy, 131 South Pickaway street; Mrs. Luella Lape, Route 3; Mrs. Anna Lovenshimer, 370½ East Mound street; Mrs. Mary Margaret Mader, 556 North Pickaway street; Cecil Mancini, 218 Watt street; Paul Mehler, 430 North Court street.

JACK Miller, 904 South Pickaway street; Herschel Moats, 125 Logan street; Dr. E. L. Montgomery, Seyfert avenue; Forrest Moore, Route 2; Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Peters, Route 1, Ashville; Arthur Pettit, 475 North Pickaway street; Thomas Pettit, 475 North Pickaway street; Dick Plum, 112 Reber avenue; Mrs. Sterling Poling, Route 4; Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Renick, 413 East Main street; Mrs. Mary Richards, Route 4.

George Roth, Route 2; Mr. and Mrs. Christian Schwarz, 147 Watt street; Mrs. Carl Scothorn, Route 2, Ashville; Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Scothorn, Route 2, Ashville; Robert Smithers, 471 East Main street; Harry Speakman, Route 2; Everett Stocklen, 146 East High street; Mrs. Helen Strous, Route 4; Carl Thomas, 117 North Scioto street.

Mrs. Mildred Thomas, 1220 South Pickaway street; Mrs. Katherine Thompson, Route 4; Gordon F. Thompson, Route 1, Laurelville; Robert Valentine, 357 East Franklin street; Keith O. Wagner, 121 Monroe street, Baltimore, O.; Mrs. Grace Walters, 301 East High street; Mr. and Mrs. James Ward, Route 2; Frank Wartz, 121 Montclair avenue; Umberto Wiggins, Route 2, Amanda.

U.S. Casualties

Now Total 103,418

WASHINGTON, Dec. 27.—(AP)—Announced U. S. battle casualties in Korea have risen to 103,418, including 17,670 battle deaths and 11,048 currently listed as missing in action.

The new totals were announced by the Defense Department Wednesday. It identified 115 additional battle casualties in Korea. The new list reported 25 killed in action, 61 wounded, 11 missing and 18 injured in accidents.

Man Slays Family Of Three, Self

MANCHESTER, Conn., Dec. 27.—(AP)—Four persons were found shot to death Thursday in the home of W. Harry England, wealthy lumberman and builder.

Police identified them as England himself; his wife, and two of their eight children, Jane, 24 and Jonathan, 4. It appeared England killed his wife and children, then committed suicide. Mrs. England had a divorce action pending.

LIMA, Dec. 27.—(AP)—A 38-year-old bandit who held up a Lima store Wednesday night and escaped with $271 in cash, has pleaded guilty in municipal court to armed robbery.

He is Ballard Gayhart of Middle-town, Municipal Court Judge James Steiner bound him over to the January term of the Allen County grand jury and set bail at $15,000.

Monismism was introduced at Palmyra, N.Y., in 1823.

PROHIBITION ERA beer baron Irving "Waxey Gordon" Wexler (holding handkerchief to face), 63, enters Sing Sing Prison, Ossining, N. Y., with other prisoners to start serving his sentence. He received two concurrent terms of 25 years to life for selling narcotics. (International Exclusive)

Pumpkin Show On Profit Side Of 1951 Ledger

Circleville's 1951 Pumpkin Show, which attracted thousands of persons during its four-day run, was operated on the profit side of the ledger this year.

Treasurer Bob Colville announced Thursday that total receipts for this year's street extravaganza were $2,652.91, while expenditures amounted to $12,940.10.

Colville explained that these figures show a balance of $287.19 deficit for the 1951 Show, although some semi-permanent improvements were made during the exposition to make the books show a profit.

The report shows $757.33 spent in improvements this year — lumber for a new two-story information booth and vegetable exhibits — which has been added to the profit side. Colville added that depreciation for the one year of use on the new number amounted to $189.33 (25 per cent), meaning that the improvement was a net gain to the Show of $68 and the 1951 Show therefore earned $280.81 profit.

In expenditures, the biggest outlay during the Show was $2,487.50 for premiums, while $2,308.50 was paid for the bands which made the parades successful.

SUPPLIES cost $1,716.57 and entertainment and free acts cost $1,410. Other expenditures listed were: printing and advertising, $737.77; miscellaneous, $1,718.82; judges, $173.49; labor, $561.25; watchmen and police, $859.74; insurance, $170.53; deposits returned, $20; and rent, $850.90.

Receipts collected during the Show were $7,272.90 from concessions; $2,388.81 from rides; $1,552.12 from donations; $1,093.63 from the pumpkin pie booth; $75 from shows; and $270.45 from refunds.

Man Fined $50 On Lesser Count

A Columbus man arrested last August on an accusation of drunken driving has been fined $50 and costs in Pickaway County common pleas court on a lesser offense of reckless operation.

He is Leeone Warren, arrested on South Pickaway street here Aug. 12 by Officer Carl Thompson. When first heard before the court, he entered a plea of innocent to the drunken driving count.

However, on a case presented this week by County Prosecutor Guy Cline, Warren entered a plea of guilty to the lesser offense of reckless operation.

Solon Wants 363 Americans Freed

WASHINGTON, Dec. 27.—(AP)—Senator Knowland (R - Calif) has demanded that the U. S. government, during Korea cease-fire negotiations, try to arrange the release of 363 Americans he says are prisoners in Communist China.

Knowland said he understands that 33 Americans are now jailed in China, 30 or more are under house arrest and 300 are refused exit visas when they tried to get out of the country.

New Citizens

MISS MOOTZ
Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mootz of 342 East Mound street, are the parents of a daughter, born at 9:07 a. m. Thursday in Berge hospital.

DEAD STOCK
Horses ..... $1.00 each
Cows ..... $1.00 each
According to Size and Condition
Phone Callers 876 Circleville
Hogs and Small Stock Removed Promptly

Also
Perils of Pearl Pureheart
Buchsieb Fertilizer Co.

Williamsport

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Shaw of Columbus and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Huffins were Saturday evening dinner guests of Mrs. Mary Tinker.

Eddie Gallaher, a student at Georgia School of Technology in Atlanta, Ga., is spending the holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Gallaher.

Miss Helen G. Betts of Cleveland spent Christmas with her father, Mr. Fred Betts.

Mr. and Mrs. John Steinhauer and daughters, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Whitten and sons, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Shaeffer and Mr. and Mrs. Don Steinhauer and sons were among the guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Shaeffer of Grange Hall, Christmas Day.

Norman Godden of Goodfellow Air Force Base, San Angelo, Texas, is home on a leave with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dean Godden.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth List and son of New Knoxville spent Christmas with friends and relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. L. V. Ebenbach of Kent and Mr. and Mrs. Merton Garrison and family of Frankfort were Saturday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Marcus Ebenbach.

Gary Dennis Beougher, who has spent the past three months with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Webb Steinhauer, has returned to the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Denny Beougher of Columbus.

Lonnie Pemberton was a Christmas dinner guest of Mr. and Mrs. William Hastings Jr. and sons.

Mr. and Mrs. Noah List and son Bob spent Christmas at Groveport.

David Snyder, who is stationed in California, spent the Christmas holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Snyder.

Mr. and Mrs. Webb Steinhauer had as their guests Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Marion Steinhauer and family; Mr. and Mrs. John Steinhauer and daughters and Mr. and Mrs. Don Steinhauer and sons.

Mrs. Glen Picklesimer received word from her husband, Pvt. Glen Picklesimer that he had arrived safely in Japan on Christmas Day.

Too Late To Classify

MODERN 8 room house for rent, Mingo St. just off Main. Ph. 586L or inq. 370 E. Mound.

1949 MERCURY sedan—Sale or trade, priced to sell. Ph. 3905 or 954G.

RELAX! ENJOY A MOVIE—

a Chakares Theatre
CLIFTONA
Circleville, Ohio.
Now-Fri.-Sat.
—A LAUGH HIT—

RED SKELTON IS
The Yellow Cab Man
—ACTION HIT NO. 2—

TIM HOLT
Saddle Legion
—Also—
Perils of Pearl Pureheart

Mainly About People

ONE MINUTE PULPIT

There are more talents than there are talents that are used. A few schools train and inspire youth to recognize and use their talents. Some inspired ministers have this gift too. But he that received one talent went and hid it in the earth, and his lord's money. — Matt. 25:18.

Patty Hines, six-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Hines of 129 Park street, underwent a tonsillectomy in Berge hospital Thursday morning.

Jesse Lloyd of Frankfort, was removed Wednesday to his home, following surgery in Berge hospital.

There will be a Fox drive starting at intersection Rts. 22 and 104 at 9 a. m. Saturday, December 29. Shotguns only will be used, free lunch will be served—everyone welcome. —ad.

Mrs. George Keaton of Atlanta, was admitted to Berge hospital Thursday as a medical patient.

Mrs. Eugene Barthelmas and son were removed Wednesday from Berge hospital to their home, 123 Park street.

A card party to be held in the New Holland High School, Saturday, December 29 starting at 8 p. m. will be sponsored by the PTO. —ad.

Edith Jones, 12-year-old daughter of Mrs. Florence Jones of 328 East Ohio street, was admitted to Berge hospital Thursday for a tonsillectomy.

Mrs. Fred Cook of Circleville Route 3, slipped on the ice while in Columbus Wednesday afternoon and fell fracturing her left hip. Mrs. Cook had a similar accident four years ago when she fractured her right hip. She is a patient in Doctors hospital.

Two Building Permits OK'd

Two new building permits have been approved by the Circleville planning and zoning commission.

John N. Bowers of 315 East Main street has received approval to build a new brick and frame home on Pershing Drive, located near the new Atwater elementary school building.

The new home, estimated to cost about $10,000, will measure 45x23 feet and consist of a story and a half, according to the permit.

Homer Lowery of Lowery Lane has received permission to build a $75 frame shed measuring 7x14 feet.

American Girl, Ex-Priest Wed

MILAN, Dec. 27.—(AP)—Claire Young, a blonde Chicago girl, 21, was married Thursday to Luciano Negrini, 43, a former Roman Catholic priest.

The way to marriage had been tangled with red tape that took months to untangle.

Claire gave up her American citizenship, Negrini was defrocked by the church and both are excommunicated.

As many as 45 Ohio counties have at some time produced oil.

GRAND THEATRE
Gala New Year's Eve Jamboree!
at 11:30 P.M.
HURRY! LIMITED SEATING!
TICKETS NOW ON SALE!

Screen—Premiere Showing!
Robert Taylor
"Westward the Women"
Big! New! Exciting!

Songs, Cartoons, Novelties

STANLEY R. DOMBROWIAK, who ran an ad in a Joliet, Ill., paper offering to sell one of his eyes for $1,000, is shown with his wife Anna and two of their four children, Mary Elaine, 3, and Anna Marie, 1. Dombrowiak, a factory worker, said he needed the money to pay debts and buy food. (International Soundphoto)

Tax On Commies Being Urged

BATON ROUGE, Dec. 27.—(AP)—The national commander of the Marine Corps League wants the U. S. to tax Communists in this country to pay the fines Hungarian assessed against four American fliers.

John R. O'Brien of Passaic, N. J., said Wednesday he sent a suggestion to Rep. Canfield (R-N.J.) that Congress enact legislation at the next session imposing the tax on Communists.

CROP Program Here Reported Behind Quota

The late Dr. S. C. Michelfelder, reporting to CROP headquarters in Chicago from the vantage point of five years experience in Switzerland, recently said: "Men like Truman, Marshall and Eisenhower have admitted that goodwill arising from voluntary agency gifts such as CROP is far greater than that from any tax-supported program. They have not only saved the churches of Europe but the faith in western democracy."

Voluntary giving to the Christian Rural Overseas Program in Pickaway County, while good as far as it goes, yet is far from reaching the goal hoped for. To date Lloyd Minor, CROP treasurer, reports that the cash total is only $648.25, with an additional grain total of 144 bushels of corn.

It is suggested that farmers who have not been called on, but want to give to provide food for homeless and destitute families in other countries, take a grain gift to any elevator in Pickaway County or mail a check made out to Christian Rural Overseas Program to CROP Treasurer Lloyd Minor, Circleville Route 2.

3,113 Pickaway Employees Get Compensation

A total of 3,113 employees in all Pickaway County industries were covered under Ohio Unemployment Compensation law during the second quarter of 1951.

Figures released by the Division of Research and Statistics Thursday showed breakdown of local employees in seven categories.

They were listed as follows: Contract construction, 238; manufacturing, 1,461; transportation, communication and public utilities, 269; wholesale and retail trade, 927; finance, insurance and real estate, 73; service, 106; miscellaneous divisions and those with less than three employees, 39.

At the same time, a total of $1,996,307 was paid to Pickaway County employees under the Unemployment Compensation law, for the quarter.

Manufacturing employees received $1,010,307; contract construction, $195,423; transportation, communication and public utilities, $226,263; wholesale and retail trade, $453,536; finance, insurance and real estate, $43,119; service, $35,644; and miscellaneous, $31,935.

Mrs. Hafey Resigns Post

Pickaway County commissioners Wednesday accepted the resignation of Mrs. Evelyn Hafey from her post as clerk in the county relief office.

Mrs. Hafey, now ill in White Cross hospital, Columbus, resigned her position effective Jan. 1. No replacement has been named.

DEATHS and Funerals

MRS. MINNIE DUMM

Mrs. Minnie Dumm, 85, of Circleville Route 3, died at 6:45 p. m. at her residence on Walnut Creek pike.

Born in Ross County on March 15, 1866, she was the daughter of Levi and Caroline (Whisler) Holderman.

Her husband, George W. Dumm, preceded her in death in January, 1946.

Survivors include two sons, Dorwin J. Dumm, with whom she lived; and Lawrence T. Dumm, of San Francisco, Calif.; and three grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held at 1:30 p. m. Saturday from the Deffenbaugh Funeral Home. Burial will be in Hitler-Ludwig cemetery.

Friends may call at the funeral home after noon on Friday.

Imler Bound To Jury On Check Count

Harold Imler of Circleville was bound to Pickaway County grand jury on $300 bond Thursday morning in Magistrate Oscar Root's court on accusation of forgery.

In an affidavit signed by Carle E. Snider, Imler is accused of passing a worthless check amounting to $30 at Snider's place of business, on Dec. 14.

Snider stated in the affidavit that Imler had used the name Charles C. Kocher, in signing the check.

35 To Report For Draft Exams

A total of 35 Pickaway County men are to report for pre-induction physical examinations in January.

The local selective service office said the men will report for their examinations in Columbus Jan. 23. Local pre-induction quota for December was 45 men.

—ENDS TONITE—

Our Big Xmas Show

—NO. 1—

RANDOLPH SCOTT — In

"CARIBOO TRAIL"

—NO. 2—

MICKEY ROONEY — In

"THE STRIP"

—At Your—

a Chakares Theatre
GRAND
Circleville, O.

FRI.-SAT.!

—TWO TOP HITS—

—FOR THE FAMILY—

"Close to my Heart"
will be very close to yours!
RAY MILLAND GENE TIERNEY
—2ND FAMILY HIT—

ROY ROGERS
TRIGGER
PALS OF THE GOLDEN WEST
A REPUBLIC PICTURE

Kids' New Year's Party
Saturday—12:30 P. M.

FREE COCA COLA TO ALL!
Compliments Of The
CIRCLEVILLE COCA COLA CO.

BRING MOM and DAD!
THEY LIKE CARTOONS, TOO!

Admission For This Show Only!
CHILD 25c — ADULTS 50c

Sunday-Monday
Too good to miss!
MRS. H. Joyfully presents
June Allison Johnson
"Too Young to Kiss"

SAVE at EAVEY'S

The STORE For YOU

all thru '52

OLIVES No. 3 Jar 22c
DOVE FANCY

Maraschino Cherries
Eavey's Red 8-Oz Bot 26c

JELLO OR ROYAL 3 Pkgs 27c

Candied Dill Sticks
or Eavey's Sweet Mix 16-Oz Jar 41c

LEA & PERRIN SAUCE 5-Oz Bot 35c

Sauer Kraut Silver Fleece Nice Long Shreds NO. 2 CAN 10c 2 25c

Pork 'N' Beans No. 2 1/2 Cans 2 25c

Eavey's Evaporated Milk 2 Tall Cans 25c

Merrit Tomato Juice Good Quality and Flavor 46-Oz Can 25c

Tuna Fish Society Brand, Large Full Fancy Flakes in Brine. Packed Without Oil. Makes Wonderful Salads Can 23c

Freshlike Cut Green Beans Fancy Pack 11-Oz Can 19c

Freshlike Peas Young Tender Vac Pack 12-Oz Can 19c

Freshlike Whole Kernel Corn Yellow 12-Oz Can 17c

Freshlike Spinach Clean, Free from Grit, Vac Pac 13-Oz Can 17c

Campbell's Tomato Soup 2 Cans 23c

CHEER COFFEE Soap Powder GIANT 79c Lge Box 27c

Eavey's Premium Vac Pak Lb Can 85c

Peter Pan Peanut Butter 13-Oz Jar 36c

Eavey's Mince Meat 9-Oz Pkg 17c

Large, Juicy GRAPEFRUIT
Marsh Seedless 10 For 49c

GRAPES
Luscious California Emperor 2 Lbs 25c

BANANAS Golden Ripe 2 Lbs 29c

PASCAL CELERY Large Green California Stalk 25c

GREEN BEANS 2 Lbs 29c CALIF. ORANGES 12 59c

FIRST GRADE TENDER MEAT

PORK ROAST
Picnic Style Lb 33c
Small Tender

Skinless Wieners Lb 45c

Smoked Hams Eavey's Hickory Cured, 10 to 14 lb Whole Hams Lb 57c

Spare Ribs Small, Lean, Meaty Cook with Sauerkraut Lb 49c

Sliced Bacon Eavey's Special Lb 49c

Boiled Ham Swift's Premium 1/2-Lb 69c

Chuck Roast Choice Cuts Grade A Beef 1lb 69c

Realemon Lemon Juice 8-Oz Bot 19c

Libby's Tomato Juice 46-Oz Can 29c

Armour's Chopped Ham 12-Oz Can 55c

Corned Beef Hash Armour's Store 16-Oz Can 42c

Armour's Beef Stew 16-Oz Can 54c

Armour's TREET 12-Oz Can 49c

Armour's Vienna Sausage 4-Oz Can 23c

Armour's Potted Meat 3 1/2-Oz Can 17c

Eavey's Egg Noodles Fine Med 16-Oz Can 26c

Eavey's Pie Crust Mix 9-Oz Pkg 15c

Dairy PRODUCTS

Fresh Milk Quart 21c

Velveeta Cheese 2 Lb 95c

Phil Cream Cheese 3-Oz Pkg 19c

Kraft Sliced Cheese 8-Oz Pkg 39c

Ballard Biscuits 2 cans 29c

Frozen FOODS

PEAS Snow Crop Pkg 23c

Birdseye Cut Corn Pkg 22c

Snow Crop Waffles Pkg 24c

Strawberry Short Cake Pkg 32c

Birdseye French Fries Pkg 24c

Party Snacks

POTATO CHIPS — PRETZELS

POPCORN — PEANUTS — 7 "UP"

COCA COLA — GINGER ALE

CRACKERS — AND MANY OTHERS

RITZ CRACKERS N.B.C. Lb Pkg 35c

RINSO Large Box 30c	JOY LIQUID SOAP 4-Oz Bot 30c	FAB ODDLES OF SUDS Lge Box 30c
IVORY SNOW Large Box 30c	IVORY SOAP LARGE SIZE 2 For 29c	PALMOLIVE TOILET SOAP 2 Both Bars 24c
SWEETHEART REG. SIZE 3 Bars 26c	LUX SOAP REG. SIZE 3 Bars 24c	LUX SOAP LARGE SIZE 2 Bars 24c

Nu Maid Oleo Lb Ctn 26c
IT'S TABLE GRADE

Del Monte Prunes Large Dried Lb Pkg 26c

Merrit Kidney Beans 3 No. 2 Cans 33c

Krey Beef & Gravy Adv on TV 20-Oz Can 67c

Superfine Limagrands 16-Oz Can 15c

Betty Zane Popcorn 10-Oz Can 18c

Butterfield Potato Sticks No. 2 Can 15c

Pancake Flour Aunt Jemima 20-Oz Pkg 18c

Mother's Oats Reg. or Quick 20-Oz Pkg 17c

"Resolutions," the old philosopher says, "are a pleasant crop to sow." And this is the time of year when we can be pardoned for blowing our horn a bit. It is the time for new and better RESOLUTIONS. For us it is a case of simply renewing the old ones, because friendship and service (our stock in trade) change not as the years go by. And so we say to you, our customers, that we will continue to count your good will and confidence by making your shopping trips to our store a pleasure. You'll always find a full variety of the best known brands, enough of everything to do all your marketing under one roof, prices that need no comparison and friendly personal service. It's been a pleasure to serve you and we hope we'll remain good friends in '52.

H. E. Eavey, President

STORE HOURS
Monday thru Thurs. — 8:30 to 6:00
Fri. and Sat. — 8:30 to 9:00
146 W. Main St. Circleville, O.

SAVE at EAVEY'S

The STORE For YOU

all thru '52

OLIVES
DOVE FANCY
No. 3 Jar 22c

Maraschino Cherries
Eavey's Red 8-Oz Bot 26c

JELLO OR ROYAL
3 Pkgs 27c

Candied Dill Sticks
16-Oz Jar 41c

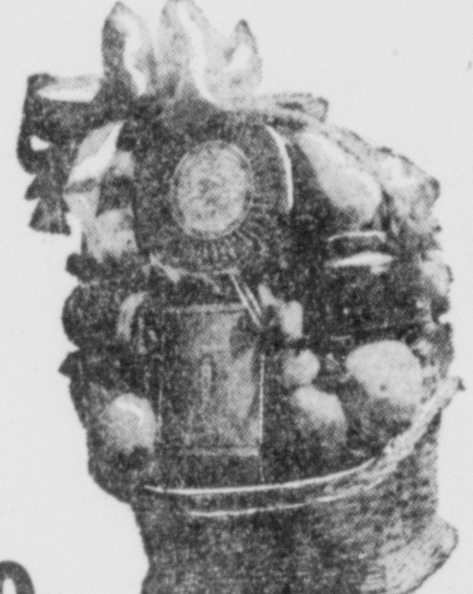

or Eavey's Sweet Mix

LEA & PERRIN SAUCE
5-Oz Bot 35c

Large, Juicy GRAPEFRUIT
Marsh Seedless 10 For 49c

GRAPES
Luscious California Emperor 2 Lbs 25c

BANANAS
PASCAL CELERY
GREEN BEANS 2 Lbs 29c

CALIF. ORANGES
Large Green California 12 59c

Dairy PRODUCTS

Fresh Milk	Quart 21c
Velveta Cheese	2 Lb 95c
Phil Cream Cheese	2-Oz Pkg 19c
Kraft Sliced Cheese	8-Oz Pkg 39c
Ballard Biscuits	2 cans 29c

Party Snacks

POTATO CHIPS - PRETZELS
POPCORN - PEANUTS - 7 "UP"
COCA COLA - GINGER ALE
CRACKERS - AND MANY OTHERS

RINSO Large Box 30c	JOY LIQUID SOAP 6-Oz Bot 30c	FAB ODDLES OF SUDS 1-Lb Box 30c
IVORY SNOW Large Box 30c	IVORY SOAP LARGE SIZE 2 29c	PALMOLIVE TOILET SOAP 2 Both Bors 24c
SWEETHEART REG. SIZE 3 Bors 26c	LUX SOAP REG. SIZE 3 Bors 24c	LUX SOAP LARGE SIZE 2 Bors 24c

Sauer Kraut
Silver Fleece Nice Long Shreds NO. 2 CAN 10c 2 25c

Pork 'N' Beans
No. 2 1/2 Cans 2 25c

Eavey's Evaporated Milk
2 Tall Cans 25c

Merrit Tomato Juice
Good Quality and Flavor 46-Oz Can 25c

Tuna Fish
Society Brand, Large Full Fancy Flakes in Brine, Packed Without Oil. Makes Wonderful Salads Can 23c

Freshlike Cut Green Beans
Young Tender Vac Pack 11-Oz Can 19c

Freshlike Peas
Yellow 12-Oz Can 17c

Freshlike Whole Kernel Corn
Clean, Free from Grit, Vac Pac 13-Oz Can 17c

Freshlike Spinach
2 Cans 23c

Campbell's Tomato Soup

CHEER COFFEE
Soap Powder GIANT 79c

Peter Pan Peanut Butter
Eavey's Premium Vac Pak Lge Box 27c

Eavey's Mince Meat
12-Oz Jar 36c

8-Oz Bot 17c

FIRST GRADE TENDER MEAT

PORK ROAST
Picnic Style Lb 33c
Small Tender

Skinless Wieners
Eavey's Hickory Cured, 10 to 14 lb Whole Hams Lb 45c

Smoked Hams
Small, Lean, Meaty Cook with Sauerkraut Lb 57c

Spare Ribs
Eavey's Special 1/2-Lb 49c

Sliced Bacon
Swift's Premium 1/2-Lb 69c

Boiled Ham
Choice, Cuts Grade A Beef 1/2-Lb 69c

Chuck Roast

Nu Maid Oleo
IT'S TABLE GRADE Lb 26c

Del Monte Prunes
3 No. 2 Cans 33c

Merrit Kidney Beans
20-Oz Can 67c

Krey Beef & Gravy
16-Oz Can 15c

Superfine Limagrands
10-Oz Can 18c

Betty Zane Popcorn
No. 2 Can 15c

Butterfield Potato Sticks
20-Oz Pkg 18c

Pancake Flour
Aunt Jemima 20-Oz Pkg 17c

Mother's Oats
Reg. or Quick

"Resolutions," the old philosopher says, "are a pleasant crop to sow." And this is the time of year when we can be pardoned for blowing our horn a bit. It is the time for new and better RESOLUTIONS. For us it is a case of simply renewing the old ones, because friendship and service (our stock in trade) change not as the years go by. And so we say to you, our customers, that we will continue to count your good will and confidence by making your shopping trips to our store a pleasure. You'll always find a full variety of the best known brands, enough of everything to do all your marketing under one roof, prices that need no comparison and friendly personal service. It's been a pleasure to serve you and we hope we'll remain good friends in '52.

H. E. Eavey, President

STORE HOURS
Monday thru Thurs. - 8:30 to 6:00
Fri. and Sat. - 8:30 to 9:00
146 W. Main St. Circleville, O.

Child Problems and Solutions

By GARRY CLEVELAND MYERS, PhD

Any mother of a child from one to five may know what a tantrum is. The first show of anger in the infant may come when she dresses or bathes him, when his freedom of movements is hampered, or when he must wait long for some accustomed attention.

Tantrums often develop in the infant when he is not taken up promptly following his usual cries. As fulfillment of his wants is delayed, he, naturally, grows more angry and responds more violently, employing his feet and hands and as much of his body as possible to express his rage.

Careful, tender handling of the infant and adjustment of his clothing with a minimum of hampering of his normal bodily movements can prevent most early tantrums in him.

IF THE infant is always taken up when he seems to want to be taken up and, later, given always what he wants right when he wants it, he may have no strong anger for some weeks or even months. But as all of his apparent wants are promptly supplied, these wants increase manifoldly, and there soon comes a time when they won't or cannot be supplied promptly.

Then his rages will inevitably increase. The best way to prepare a baby to have many tantrums later is to start early to give him always what he wants right when he wants it.

Tantrums often develop when the mother, not sure whether she should ever let her baby "cry it out," sometimes lets him cry a long while before taking him up and at other times takes him up rather promptly. Or, she may, after being reassured by her physician, resolve to let the youngster cry it out.

But after he has cried for ten, fifteen or thirty minutes, growing more and more angry the while, she finally succumbs. The longer he thus struggles before he gets the reward, the more ready he is to cry longer and longer next time.

WHETHER your child is six months, thirteen months or two years of age, if you are sure you should let him cry it out, as in the case of his crying to be taken into bed with you, consult your doctor if you have doubts and then see the matter through. Unless you are going to do so, let him have what he wants right away. No sense in making him fight longer and longer each time and get more practice in rage. As you see, the harder and longer he has fought, the more glorious his victory when he finally wins.

Tantrums at two, three or four may also grow in your child who on his hearing you say NO, is able to make you change it to YES.

Snatching by force a forbidden object from a youngster under two can arouse violent tantrums. Wise parents patiently win him to give up the object willingly.

Another source of tantrums is use of pain or other force to get the child under three or four to do what you want him to do, failing to draw the line between restraint and cooperation. Also, tantrums can grow out of physical causes which only the physician can diagnose and treat properly. (My bulletins, "Tantrums," "Stubbornness" and "The Nervous, Jittery Mother," may be had in a stamped envelope sent me in care of this paper.)

Answering Parents' Questions

Q. Doesn't a child who earns all the money he spends gain good appreciation of the value of money?

A. Yes, when he really earns it. But only a very few children can secure jobs for normal earning of their spending money. To pay them for jobs about the home means that they rarely really earn regularly the amount they receive, and hardly gain a feeling of family sharing and responsibility.

Exams To Fill Police Eligible List Set Jan. 21

Civil service examinations to fill the eligible list for patrolman of the city police department will be held on Monday, Jan. 21, at 7 p. m. in the council chamber, city building.

The Cincinnati Municipal Civil Service Commission announced Thursday that blank applications may be secured at the Commission office in the city building, or any member of the Commission.

Applications must be returned not later than 7 p. m. on Friday, Jan. 18.

A fee of $1 will be charged for all examinations where salaries exceed $1,000 per year.

APPLICANTS must be resident voters of Pickaway County, and must not be less than 5 feet, 6 inches in height and weigh not less than 155 pounds. They must be between the ages of 21 and 31 years.

For information as to salaries interested persons may inquire of Luther Bower, chairman of the Commission, or J. S. Barr, vice-chairman or V. L. Hawkes, secretary.

Martin Urging Full OK Of Japan, Spain, Nationalists

BOSTON, Dec. 27.—U. S. Rep. Joseph W. Martin Jr., (R-Mass.) has urged the United States to accept Japan, Nationalist China and Franco Spain as full-fledged partners in the fight against Communism.

Addressing some 60 community leaders Wednesday night, Martin said the Japanese would make valuable allies because "they realize their interests lie with us."

Recently returned from a world tour, he said he found the Chinese Nationalists training with wooden machineguns and suggested "money being wasted in Siam and the Philippines" be diverted to them.

"In the event of a Communist success in Indo-China, Siam would fall and thereafter the whole Middle East and North Africa," he said and added:

"If Russia dominates North Africa, Europe will be strangled."

Martin described General Franco as "soft-spoken, gentlemanly and forthright" and said Spain has 300,000 troops which would fight well if properly equipped.

He also urged extensive aid for Greece, Turkey and Yugoslavia.

JOHNNY MOORE (middle), Colington Island, N. C., the only living witness to Orville and Wilbur Wright's epic flight on the sand dunes at Kitty Hawk, N. C., 48 years ago, holds a model of the Wright brothers' first plane at Kitty Hawk as he tells about the historical event. Listening are Alexander P. de Severalsky (left), aviation authority, and Maj. Gen. Edward J. Timberlake, Jr., U. S. 8th Air Force commanding general. (International Soundphoto)

If War Comes In 1952, It Will Be Boner, Red Deserter Says

HAMBURG, Germany, Dec. 27.—The stocky man with shrewd eyes was a major in the Soviet army until two years ago.

At Potsdam, in the occupation era, he served on the staff of Russia's greatest military governors: Zhukov, Sokolovsky and Chuikov.

He recalls vividly the secret briefing which general Vassily Chuikov, hero of Stalingrad, delivered at his headquarters in 1949 after the end of the Berlin blockade.

"Our present forces in Germany are strong enough to sweep to the English Channel, but we do not have the order," the general said.

The former major, V. M. Denisov, shrugs at the memory:

"I believe 1952 will be the most dangerous year of all," he says.

"The tension is near the breaking point.

"But if war comes, it will be because of blunders. Soviet policy is not to launch a sudden attack—but to wait, to grow stronger, to let the West splurge into an economic catastrophe.

"CHUIKOV DID not receive the order to attack in 1949. I am convinced he will not receive it in 1952. But war may come. The tension is big."

Denisov, in the eyes of the Soviet government, is a deserter and traitor. In West Germany, he is tolerated as one of thousands of unwanted political refugees.

But it wasn't politics that drove him to forsake career and country. It was something more deeply human.

He did it for a German woman. They fell in love during the fiery conquest of Germany and were married secretly afterward in defiance of military command.

He saved her, their young daughter, and his German mother-in-law when he deserted. He smuggled them into the British sector of Berlin. Together, they were flown out to West Germany.

He appraises his own future coldly:

"As long as there is a Soviet government, they will shoot me if they catch me. But I am not one

Campaign Cost Airing Is Urged

WASHINGTON, Dec. 27.—Senator Humphrey (D-Minn.) has invited fellow Congress members to "tell the people the sorry truth" about the high cost of running for federal office, and who pays the bills.

"It would be a good idea if every member of Congress were required to go before a subcommittee and tell how his campaign was financed," the senator declared.

He contended "far too much" is spent on campaigning, the bulk of it raised by contributions from well wishers.

There are more women than men eligible to vote in the United States.

Shop Kroger In '52

AND LIVE BETTER FOR LESS

The past has shown you... the future will continue to prove that Kroger fine foods and low prices help you Live Better for Less!

Kroger Grapefruit Juice

Buy The Big 46 Oz. Can

23c

KROGER—Rich in Vitamin C and Tasty

Orange Juice 46 oz. can 27c

KROGER—A Delicious Blend of Goodness

Blended Juice 46 oz. can 25c

Wingspread	Cheese Spread—Tasty Melts Easily—Thrifty .2 lb. loaf	75c
Spotlight	Coffee—Hot Dated You Know It's Fresh! . . . lb. bag	77c
Rye Bread	Kroger Baked—Fresh Tender and Crusty . . 20 oz. loaf	19c
Tuna Fish	North Bay Brand Grated, Economical No. 1/2 can	23 1/2c
Spice Cake	Kroger Fresh A Delicious Treat 2 1/2 oz. cake	59c
Swift's Prem	Keep Plenty Of It For Quick Meals .12 oz. can	45c
Fresh Butter	Kroger—Creamery Fresh—Golden . . . . . lb. roll	85c
Dinner Rolls	Brown 'N Serve . . . . . pkg. of 12	17c
Tomato Juice	Kroger—Finest . . . . . 46 oz. can	25c
Thin Crackers	Kroger Fresh . . . . . lb. pkg.	27c
Maxwell House	Coffee Flavorful . . . . . lb. can	89c

KROGER

Vacuum Packed

COFFEE

LB. CAN

87c

Margarine	Eatmore Brand Yellow Quarters . . . . . lb. pkg.	24c
Sauerkraut	Kroger—Try It With Spareribs . . . . . No. 303 can	10c
Cigarettes	All Popular Brands Stock Up Now . . . . . ctn.	$1.85
Baked Beans	Heinz—Hearty Good Eating . . . . . lb. can	15c
Hormel Spam	Quick-Fix Meals Keep It Handy . . . . . 12 oz. can	47c
Kidney Beans	Joan Of Arc . . . . . 2 No. 2 cans	25c
Potato Chips	Kay's Fresh . . . . . lb. bag	65c
Salad Dressing	Embassy Brand . . . . . qt. jar	43c

KROGER

EXTRA SOFT

BREAD

1 1/2 LB. LOAF

15c

CHUK-L-ETS

"Heaven's sake, I didn't know I had it in me!"

Phone 95 For Pick-up and Delivery of Your Car

Majors & Brannan

TIRES BATTERIES WASHING LUBRICATION EXPERTS

PHONE 95 NO COURT ST.

A NEW LOW IN PRICE for an RCA VICTOR

$21.95 RCA Victor 8X541 Deep maroon plastic

it has the "Golden Throat"

HOOVER

MUSIC and APPLIANCE CO.

134 W. MAIN ST. PHONE 754

LOVELESS ELECTRIC CO.

156 W. Main St. Phone 408

Why not dry clothes INDOORS, AUTOMATICALLY, ANY TIME, with

HAMILTON

AUTOMATIC CLOTHES DRYER

SAVE $30.00 While 2 Last!

*We have 2 Automatic Gas Dryers that were shipped before the increase in Federal Excise Tax.

Save $30.00

LOVELESS ELECTRIC CO.

156 W. Main St. Phone 408

I'm FOG

I'll fool you and trick you. You may think things will dry Hung out on your washline. They won't! You just try!

Fresh Picnic Style . . . 4 to 8 Lb. Avg.

PORK ROAST

Lb. 33c

Hams	David Davies—Smoked—Short Shank 12 to 16 Lb. Avg.—Whole or Full Shank Half . . lb.	57c
Pork Steak	Fresh Boston Butt Slices Lean, Meaty, Tasty . . . . . lb.	49c
Large Bologna	Swift Premium or Armour Star—Sliced . . . . . lb.	59c
Skinless Weiners	Swift Premium . . . . . lb.	59c
SLICED BACON	SWIFT PREMIUM, lb.	59c
Pork Roast	Fresh Boston Butt Style—Very Little Bone . . . . . lb.	45c
Jowl Bacon	David Davies Ideal For Seasoning . . . . . lb.	19c
Ground Beef	Freshly Ground—Lean Economical—Versatile . . . . . lb.	63c
Frying Chickens	Kroger—Fresh, Cut-Up, Tray-Packed . . . . . lb.	55c
SLICED BACON	ARMOUR STAR . . . . . lb.	55c
	"OUR OWN" BRAND . . . . . lb.	49c

NEW CABBAGE

2 Lbs. 27c

Potatoes U. S. No. 1 Ohio—All-Purpose . . . . . 15 lb. bag 79c

Green Onions Freshly Pulled Tasty—Thrifty . . . . . 2 bch. 15c

Fresh Limes Extra Juicy Tree Ripened . . . . . tube 19c

Fresh Spinach Cello Wrapped . . . . . pkg. 29c

Fresh BROCCOLI

Compact Heads—Tender Stalks—Clean—Thrifty Bch. 29c

Child Problems and Solutions

By GARRY CLEVELAND MYERS, PhD

Any mother of a child from one to five may know what a tantrum is. The first show of anger in the infant may come when she dresses or bathes him, when his freedom of movements is hampered, or when he must wait long for some accustomed attention.

Tantrums often develop in the infant when he is not taken up promptly following his usual cries. As fulfillment of his wants is delayed, he, naturally, grows more angry and responds more violently, employing his feet and hands and as much of his body as possible to express his rage.

Careful, tender handling of the infant and adjustment of his clothing with a minimum of hampering of his normal bodily movements can prevent most early tantrums in him.

IF THE infant is always taken up when he seems to want to be taken up and, later, given always what he wants right when he wants it, he may have no strong anger for some weeks or even months. But as all of his apparent wants are promptly supplied, these wants increase manifoldly, and there soon comes a time when they won't or cannot be supplied promptly.

Then his rages will inevitably increase. The best way to prepare a baby to have many tantrums later is to start early to give him always what he wants right when he wants it.

Tantrums often develop when the mother, not sure whether she should ever let her baby "cry it out," sometimes lets him cry a long while before taking him up and at other times takes him up rather promptly. Or, she may, after being reassured by her physician, resolve to let the youngster cry it out.

But after he has cried for ten, fifteen or thirty minutes, growing more and more angry the while, she finally succumbs. The longer he thus struggles before he gets the reward, the more ready he is to cry longer and longer next time.

WHETHER your child is six months, thirteen months or two years of age, if you are sure you should let him cry it out, as in the case of his crying to be taken into bed with you, consult your doctor if you have doubts and then see the matter through. Unless you are going to do so, let him have what he wants right away. No sense in making him fight longer and longer each time and get more practice in rage. As you see, the harder and longer he has fought, the more glorious his victory when he finally wins.

Tantrums at two, three or four may also grow in your child who on his hearing you say NO, is able to make you change it to YES.

Snatching by force a forbidden object from a youngster under two can arouse violent tantrums. Wise parents patiently win him to give up the object willingly.

Another source of tantrums is use of pain or other force to get the child under three or four to do what you want him to do, failing to draw the line between restraint and cooperation. Also, tantrums can grow out of physical causes which only the physician can diagnose and treat properly. (My bulletins, "Tantrums," "Stubbornness" and "The Nervous, Jittery Mother," may be had in a stamped envelope sent me in care of this paper.)

Answering Parents' Questions

Q. Doesn't a child who earns all the money he spends gain good appreciation of the value of money?

A. Yes, when he really earns it. But only a very few children can secure jobs for normal earning of their spending money. To pay them for jobs about the home means that they rarely really earn regularly the amount they receive, and hardly gain a feeling of family sharing and responsibility.

JOHNNY MOORE (middle), Collington Island, N. C., the only living witness to Orville and Wilbur Wright's epic flight on the sand dunes at Kitty Hawk, N. C., 48 years ago, holds a model of the Wright brothers' first plane at Kitty Hawk as he tells about the historical event. Listening are Alexander P. de Seversky (left), aviation authority, and Maj. Gen. Edward J. Timberlake, Jr., U. S. 9th Air Force commanding general. (International Soundphoto)

If War Comes In 1952, It Will Be Boner, Red Deserter Says

HAMBURG, Germany, Dec. 27.—(AP)—The stocky man with shrewd eyes was a major in the Soviet army until two years ago.

At Potsdam, in the occupation era, he served on the staff of Russia's greatest military governors: Zhukov, Sokolovsky and Chuikov.

He recalls vividly the secret briefing which general Vassily Chuikov, hero of Stalingrad, delivered at his headquarters in 1949 after the end of the Berlin blockade.

"Our present forces in Germany are strong enough to sweep to the English Channel, but we do not have the order," the general said.

The former major, V. M. Denisov, shrugs at the memory:

"I believe 1952 will be the most dangerous year of all," he says.

"The tension is near the breaking point.

"But if war comes, it will be because of blunders. Soviet policy is not to launch a sudden attack—but to wait, to grow stronger, to let the West splurge into an economic catastrophe.

***

"CHUIKOV DID not receive the order to attack in 1949. I am convinced he will not receive it in 1952. But war may come. The tension is big."

Denisov, in the eyes of the Soviet government, is a deserter and traitor. In West Germany, he is tolerated as one of thousands of unwanted political refugees.

But it wasn't politics that drove him to forsake career army country. It was something more deeply human.

He did it for a German woman. They fell in love during the fiery conquest of Germany and were married secretly afterward in defiance of military command.

He saved her, their young daughter, and his German mother-in-law when he deserted. He smuggled them into the British sector of Berlin. Together, they were flown out to West Germany.

He appraises his own future coldly:

"As long as there is a Soviet government, they will shoot me if they catch me. But I am not one

Highway Repairs Curb New Roads

COLUMBUS, Dec. 27.—(AP)—The state highway department reports it had to repair so many roads this year it couldn't build as many new ones as planned.

Highway Director T. J. Kauer says 4,732 miles of roads were repaired. He said the severity of last winter and increased traffic damaged Ohio's roads more than usual. About 91 miles of new road and 99 new bridges were built, however.

Turnpike Opened

PITTSBURGH, Dec. 27.—(AP)—The 57-mile western extension of the Pennsylvania Turnpike, running to the Ohio border, was opened to traffic Wednesday. Ohioans now may get on the turnpike near Petersburg, O., and travel it 327 miles to the outskirts of Philadelphia.

I'm FOG

I'll fool you and trick you. You may think things will dry Hung out on your washline. They won't! You just try!

Exams To Fill Police Eligible List Set Jan. 21

Civil service examinations to fill the eligible list for patrolman of the city police department will be held on Monday, Jan. 21, at 7 p. m. in the council chamber, city building.

The Circleville Municipal Civil Service Commission announced Thursday that blank applications may be secured at the Commission office in the city building, or any member of the Commission.

Applications must be returned not later than 7 p. m. on Friday, Jan. 18.

A fee of $1 will be charged for all examinations where salaries exceed $1,000 per year.

APPLICANTS must be resident voters of Pickaway County, and must not be less than 5 feet, 6 inches in height and weigh not less than 155 pounds. They must be between the ages of 21 and 31 years.

For information as to salaries interested persons may inquire of Luther Bower, chairman of the Commission, or J. S. Barr, vice-chairman or V. L. Hawkes, secretary.

Martin Urging Full OK Of Japan, Spain, Nationalists

BOSTON, Dec. 27.—(AP)—U. S. Rep. Joseph W. Martin Jr., (R-Mass.) has urged the United States to accept Japan, Nationalist China and Franco Spain as full-fledged partners in the fight against Communism.

Addressing some 60 community leaders Wednesday night, Martin said the Japanese would make valuable allies because "they realize their interests lie with us."

Recently returned from a world tour, he said he found the Chinese Nationalists training with wooden machineguns and suggested "money being wasted in Siam and the Philippines" be diverted to them.

"In the event of a Communist success in Indo-China, Siam would fall and thereafter the whole Middle East and North Africa," he said and added:

"If Russia dominates North Africa, Europe will be strangled."

Martin described General Franco as "soft-spoken, gentlemanly and forthright" and said Spain has 330,000 troops which would fight well if properly equipped.

He also urged extensive aid for Greece, Turkey and Yugoslavia.

CHUK-L-ETS

"Heaven's sake, I didn't know I had it in me!"

Phone 95 For Pick-up and Delivery of Your Car

Majors & Brannan

TIRES BATTERIES WASHING LUBRICATION EXPERTS

PHONE 95 NO COURT ST.

A NEW LOW IN PRICE for an RCA VICTOR

$21.95 RCA Victor 8X541 Deep maroon plastic

it has the "Golden Throat"

HOOVER

MUSIC and APPLIANCE CO.

134 W. MAIN ST. PHONE 754

Why not dry clothes INDOORS, AUTOMATICALLY, ANY TIME, with Hamilton AUTOMATIC CLOTHES DRYER

SAVE $30.00 While 2 Last!

"We have 2 Automatic Gas Dryers that were shipped before the increase in Federal Excise Tax."

Save $30.00

LOVELESS ELECTRIC CO.

156 W. Main St. Phone 408

Campaign Cost Airing Is Urged

WASHINGTON, Dec. 27.—(AP)—Senator Humphrey (D-Minn.) has invited fellow Congress members to "tell the people the sorry truth" about the high cost of running for federal office, and who pays the bills.

"It would be a good idea if every member of Congress were required to go before a subcommittee and tell how his campaign was financed," the senator declared.

He contended "far too much" is spent on campaigning, the bulk of it raised by contributions from well wishers.

There are more women than men eligible to vote in the United States.

Shop Kroger In '52

AND LIVE BETTER FOR LESS

The Best Advice I Can Give You...

The past has shown you... the future will continue to prove that Kroger fine foods and low prices help you Live Better for Less!

Kroger Grapefruit Juice

Buy The Big 46 Oz. Can 23c

KROGER—Rich in Vitamin C and Tasty

Orange Juice 46 oz. can 27c

KROGER—A Delicious Blend of Goodness

Blended Juice 46 oz. can 25c

Wingspread	Cheese Spread—Tasty Melts Easily—Thrifty . . . 2 lb. loaf	75c
Spotlight	Coffee—Hot Dated You Know It's Fresh! . . . lb. bag	77c
Rye Bread	Kroger Baked—Fresh Tender and Crusty . . . 20 oz. loaf	19c
Tuna Fish	North Bay Brand Grated, Economical No. 1/2 can	23 1/2c
Spice Cake	Kroger Fresh A Delicious Treat 26 1/2 oz. cake	59c
Swift's Prem	Keep Plenty Of It For Quick Meals . . . 12 oz. can	45c
Fresh Butter	Kroger—Creamery Fresh—Golden . . . lb. roll	85c
Dinner Rolls	Brown 'N Serve . . . pkg. of 12	17c
Tomato Juice	Kroger—Finest . . . 46 oz. can	25c
Thin Crackers	Kroger Fresh . . . lb. pkg.	27c
Maxwell House	Coffee Flavorful . . . lb. can	89c

KROGER Vacuum Packed COFFEE

LB. CAN 87c

Margarine	Eatmore Brand Yellow Quarters . . . lb. pkg.	24c
Sauerkraut	Kroger—Try It With Spareribs . . . No. 303 can	10c
Cigarettes	All Popular Brands Stock Up Now . . . ctn.	$1.85
Baked Beans	Heinz—Hearty Good Eating . . . lb. can	15c
Hormel Spam	Quick-Fix Meals Keep It Handy . . . 12 oz. can	47c
Kidney Beans	Joan Of Arc . . . 2 No. 2 cans	25c
Potato Chips	Kay's Fresh . . . lb. bag	65c
Salad Dressing	Embassy Brand . . . qt. jar	43c

KROGER EXTRA SOFT BREAD

1 1/4 LB. LOAF 15c

Fresh Picnic Style . . . 4 to 8 Lb. Avg.

PORK ROAST 33c Lb.

Hams	David Davies—Smoked—Short Shank 12 to 16 Lb. Avg.—Whole or Full Shank Half, . lb.	57c
Pork Steak	Fresh Boston Butt Slices Lean, Meaty, Tasty . . . lb.	49c
Large Bologna	Swift Premium or Armour Star—Sliced . . . lb.	59c
Skinless Weiners	Swift Premium . . . lb.	59c
SLICED BACON	SWIFT PREMIUM, lb.	59c
Pork Roast	Fresh Boston Butt Style—Very Little Bone . . . lb.	45c
Jowl Bacon	David Davies Ideal For Seasoning . . . lb.	19c
Ground Beef	Freshly Ground—Lean Economical—Versatile . . . lb.	63c
Frying Chickens	Kroger—Fresh, Cut-Up, Tray-Packed . . . lb.	55c
SLICED BACON	ARMOUR STAR . . . lb.	55c
	"OUR OWN" BRAND . . . lb.	49c

NEW CABBAGE 2 Lbs. 27c

Potatoes	U. S. No. 1 Ohio—All Purpose . . . 15 lb. bag	79c
Green Onions	Freshly Pulled Tasty—Thrifty . . . 2 bch.	15c
Fresh Limes	Extra Juicy Tree Ripened . . . tube	19c
Fresh Spinach	Cello Wrapped . . . pkg.	29c
Fresh BROCCOLI	Compact Heads—Tender Stalks—Clean—Thrifty Bch.	29c

Looks Like Ingenious Kid, But Ray Malone Is 22-Year Veteran of Show Business

By CELIA WEBSTER
Central Press Correspondent
NEW YORK—For a guy who looks like a teen-ager, it's astonishing to hear him tell of 22 years in show business, not to mention that he has a wife and 3-year-old daughter.

The young man with the deceptively boyish appearance is Ray Malone, whose dancing feet brought him to the attention of millions of television viewers on the late Broadway Open House show.

His style of tap dancing lends itself to the unusual. Ideas and situations go to Malone's feet, eventually arriving before the footlights and cameras in the guise of an intricate dance routine.

Ray has almost always known the call of the entertainment world. As a child of four, he and his brother, Howard, who was then eight, started in show business as dancers.

THE TWO youngsters and Joe Caleb, their partner, also of a tender age, toured the circuits booked as "The Three Southern Gentlemen." When Ray was eight, he and Howard joined the Major Bowes circuit.

Eventually, Ray graduated to such Broadway hits as Best Foot Forward, Raze the Roof and Banjo Eyes with Eddie Cantor. The movies have also helped to round out his career.

Since the final curtain fell on the raucous Open House, Ray has been a very busy young man making many personal appearances, television guest spots, and entertaining in night clubs throughout the country.

Malone tells of the original purpose Broadway Open House realized in its short life. It was intended to give talented, little known showpeople a chance. As a result, it skyrocketed an unknown girl by the name of Virginia Egnor, now the fabulous Dagmar, to fame and brought to light such talented people as Buddy Greco, Eileen Barton, Dave Street and others.

Ray, in speaking of Dagmar, serves "I love to work with

"I love to work with Dagmar." Dagmar. She keeps in touch with me." Dagmar used to refer to Ray as her little hush puppy.

THE FEELING of professional people, as well as those in front of the footlights, runs high for the 26-year-old Malone. Everyone regards him as a "swell little guy." His favorite summer pastime is baseball, which, he says, "uses a lot of muscles I don't use in dancing."

Not too long ago, Ray appeared at New York's famed Copacabana for a run of 22 weeks. Later, while appearing at Bill Miller's Riviera, he met Jeanne Parsons, whom he later married. Ray and Jeanne live in New York with their daughter, Leslie.

Malone is enthusiastic about color television. NBC has placed him on its staff as a choreographer and, in recent color telecasts, he was given much responsibility in the dance sequences. Color TV is hiding its time at present, owing to the materials situation, but Ray regards it as much more complicated than black and white.

POOR FISH IN RENO? COULD BE TROUT!

They Got Hooked—But Not at Roulette, Crap Tables

By RICHARD H. SYRING
Central Press Correspondent
RENO, Nev. — Gambling and quick divorces are not the only products of Reno. Add to them trout. Yes, delicious palatable rainbows!

Perhaps the story of Paul K. Christman will give you a tip on how, in a smaller way, you might beat the high-cost of living. Christman raises rainbow trout. His trout "ranch" is reputed to be the world's largest.

Here in the shadows of the high Sierra mountains are 29 acres, mostly covered by ponds in which at all times are at least 2,500,000 rainbow trout. Daily, workers scoop up several thousand of these beauties, grown to the right size, for the market. Also, each day several thousand new trout are being hatched.

Within 20 minutes after the trout leaves a Christman pond, it is packed in an individual cellophane jacket—ready for the market.

The Christman ranch is pretty much of a self-contained fish factory, except for the trout eggs and food which must be brought in. All told, about 400,000 pounds of fish are sold annually.

The ranch has 36 growing ponds, each 20 feet wide, 125 feet long and 3½ feet deep. These ponds and a main 200-foot reservoir are supplied with fresh well water at about 58 degrees Fahrenheit.

THE NECESSARY extra oxygen is added to the water by throwing it high in the air from a six-inch header pipe. A system of sprays over the ponds also provide additional aeration which is often needed.

This is an assembly-line business. As the trout grow larger, they are allowed to swim into another pond. A Christman rainbow trout's life cycle goes something like this:

Most eggs are flown in from Idaho and Montana, some coming from Canada. An average ice-packed shipment is about 250,000 eggs on small screen-bottomed trays covered with cheese cloth. They are so small that it takes 360 to make an ounce.

The so-called "green eggs" are immediately put in troughs of fresh water in the incubation room. The embryos, now called "fry," break from the egg sac in five to seven days.

Three workmen scoop up a netful of trout on Reno fish ranch.

They lie on the bottom of the troughs for 15 to 20 days, feeding only on the remains of the egg sac. Once the sacs are consumed, the fry rise to the surface and they then are fed finely ground beef livers.

For about the next two weeks, the tiny fry are fed hourly, with feeding times reduced to three, then twice daily. Once the fry show an ability to eat well they are moved to outside rearing ponds. By then they are at least one-inch long and are known as "fingerlings."

Not until they are two to three inches long are they called trout, and not before they are six to seven inches long are they moved to the larger growing ponds.

These trout are pampered. For instance, water temperatures and dissolved oxygen content are determined daily by the number of trout in a pond. They are healthier and grow faster if the water's temperature is about 58 to 60 degrees Fahrenheit. Former Army camouflage nets keep off the sun's rays in the summertime.

Trout are affected by the seasons. They eat less and use less oxygen in the winter. Rainbows are fed a balanced diet once daily, consisting mainly of ground beef, wheat, wheat germ, yeast and vitamin B-12. From 1,500 to 2,000 pounds per day of these ingredients are put through Christman's grinders.

A daily check also is made to insure Mr. Trout's health. Random fish are taken from each pond and checked for disease or parasites. Any epidemic of either could wipe out the growing rainbows. The trout are moved progressively from pond to pond as they mature. By the time they are ready for the freezer, they are from 8½ to 9 inches long.

Only one crop of flax can be raised from the same soil in seven years.

The hummingbird, for its weight, is regarded as the best fighter among birds.

Derby

A picture titled "Nativity Shrine" was presented by Rose Adene Hoffman to the primary department of the Sunday school on last Sunday morning. The painting was hand painted by Mrs. Madge Hoffman. Figurines used were imported from Italy and photographed in a Columbus Cathedral by the Schreick studio of Columbus.

Mr. and Mrs. Grant Carmac and children from Pennsylvania are spending their Christmas vacation with Mrs. Carmac's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alva Skinner. This is little Susan Elizabeth's first visit with her grand-parents.

Mrs. Ethel Ridgway is spending the holidays with her daughter, Etta Margaret and family of Greenfield, Ind. Mrs. Ridgway's other daughter Maxine and family of Tennessee are also guests in the home.

Friends from this community attended the golden wedding reception Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Neff at their home near here.

A Christmas program was presented in the church Sunday morning by the children's department. The children were given a treat.

Young folks of the Sunday school sang Christmas Carols Sunday evening to a number of the sick and shut-in.

Goodbye Heartburn - Hello TUMS!
Quick relief for sour stomach, gas, and indigestion. Sells only 10c.

GLASS
ALL POPULAR SIZES AND CUT TO ORDER

ANKROM LUMBER and SUPPLY

W. Main St. Phone 237

SOME OF THE 23 investigators representing six agencies attempting to learn cause of the airliner wreck fatal to 56 persons in Elizabeth, N. J., confer near the crash scene. Standing (from left), Louis T. Lombardi, Union county chief detective; Lt. Louis Sklarey, Essex county prosecutor's office; George Clark, CAB safety investigator; Joseph H. Farnacci, CAA safety agent; Frank E. Kimball, New Jersey aeronautics director. Seated, CAB Chief Investigator Joseph O. Fluet; Edward Cohn, Union county prosecutor. (International Soundphoto)

The Adler planetarium and Astrophysical Observatory is the first institution of its kind in astronomical museum in Chicago was America.

Tots' Books

Their Favorites Are Here at Murphy's

5¢ to 25¢

You'll find Murphy's has a large selection of books for children. Tots' story books and nursery rhymes in beautifully illustrated editions; paint books and cut-out books.

G.C. Murphy Co.

CIRCLEVILLE'S FRIENDLY STORE

CHEMISTS MAY HAVE ANSWER

Vast U.S. Oil Reserves Sought By Engineers

NEW YORK, Dec. 27.—Oil men know exactly where billions and billions of barrels of oil lie under the United States that they haven't yet been able to coax to the surface.

Some of them think they're going to be able to find the way—and soon. Defense needs of the nation for oil reserves that can be used spur the oil engineers and chemists on.

Other billions of barrels that oil men once gave up as lost forever they have now learned how to bring forth. By injecting salt water or natural gas deep into the earth they have brought back to life old oil fields they once thought milked dry. They expect this way to recover an estimated 75 billion barrels.

But that still leaves oil they know is there but can't pull out of the pores of the rock and sand where nature produced it.

PERHAPS 150 billion or 200 billion barrels are in known oil fields but beyond the reach of current methods of recovery. This oil is a prize worth working for—especially in the nation's defense.

Now they are turning to chemistry to get at it. They are sticking hypodermic needles of acid deep into the earth to eject the oil from the rocks. Some are using detergents to flush oil loose from the porous rocks in which it hides.

Some use carbon dioxide in the water with which they flood old oil fields to push the oil toward the bottom of wells that are going dry.

Fatty acids and ammonia salts are also said to induce the rocks to cast off the oil that clings to them.

Other chemists are experimenting with bacteria to stimulate the underground flow of oil from the oil-bearing sands to the bottom of the wells. Some are testing out the effects of heat on the reluctant oil stores.

Much of this oil was once thought lost because in the early days of the oil industry men knew only one way of getting oil — pumping out the petroleum which flowed by natural means to the bottom of the well. The natural means was pressure. The fruitful sands bore not only oil but gas and water.

Pressure of the gas and water forced the heavy, slow-flowing oil from the porous rock toward the point of relief — the well casing where the pressure could escape from the earth.

So rapid is the change in the pharmaceutical industry that many medicinal preparations widely used 10 or 15 years ago are completely unused today.

A. Janes & Sons

Division of Inland Products, Inc.

HIGHEST PRICES PAID FOR DEAD STOCK

Horses ..... $1.00 each

Cows ..... $1.00 each

According to Size and Condition

Promptly Removed

Phone Collect

Circleville 104

JOE MOATS MOTOR SALES

159 E. Franklin St. Phone 301

DESOTO and PLYMOUTH

SALES & SERVICE

Use Only The Best In Your Car

FACTORY-MADE PARTS

PAUL M. YAUGER MEMORIAL STUDIOS

LONDON, O.

ESTABLISHED 1914

Rev. Clarence Swearingen

CIRCLEVILLE DISTRICT MANAGER

WILLIAMSPORT, OHIO

PHONE 291

THERE IS NO SUBSTITUTE FOR FAIR DEALING

We Wish You All a Prosperous and HAPPY NEW YEAR

Table Roasted Coffee Lb. 77c

Puffed Wheat 2 boxes 25c

Baked Beans 2 cans 33c

Sauerkraut 2 cans 28c

Spare Ribs . . . . lb. 49c

Fresh Shoulder . . . lb. 49c

Fresh Side . . . . lb. 35c

Bulk Sausage Lb. 39c

Cabbage 2 lbs. 17c

Armour's Milk 2 Cans 27c

Pure Cane Sugar 5 lbs. 51c

Cream Style Corn 2 cans 35c

Pineapple

No. 2½ can 37c

Apricot Juice

46 oz. can 45c

Jello All Flavors

3 boxes 27c

Jello-Pudding

3 boxes 25c

Popcorn Ear

2 lbs. 35c

Pumpkin

2 cans 35c

Peaches Delhi

can 29c

Oranges

2 doz. 49c

Tangerines

doz. 25c

Celery

1ge. stalk 29c

NUTS and CANDIES

OYSTERS and FROZEN FISH

OPEN DAILY 7 A. M. TO 6 P. M.—SATURDAY 7 A. M. TO 10:30 P. M.

WALTERS' FOOD MKT.

Corner Franklin & Washington Sts. Free Delivery Anywhere In Town Phone 152

Read A Magazine Tonight — Our

MAGAZINES

Are

Changed

Twice Weekly!

Rid Your House Of The Pests!

De CON

Rat and Mouse

Eradicator

We Have A

Complete Line

Of

School Supplies!

Our Eggs

Come Direct

From the Farm!

You Can Always Park Free In Front of Our Door-- And Save on Food Buys!

Falters and Fetherolls

Meats

At Lowest Possible Prices!

BACK BONES . . . . . lb. 29c

NECK BONES . . . . . lb. 15c

PORK BRAINS . . . . . lb. 28c

Try Our Cold Blue Water Fish

HADDOCK & PERCH

Full Line Fruits and

Vegetables

SEE US FOR—

Butchering — Curing — Smoking

Rendering — Processing

Wholesale — Retail

Lockers — Locker Supplies

We Sell Our Own Cured Hams, Bacon and Loins

Sugar Cured and Hickory Smoked

Circleville

Fast Freeze Food Locker

P. J. GRIFFIN

Owner and Operator

161 EDISON AVENUE

CIRCLEVILLE, OHIO

HELD'S SUPER MKT.

CORNER S. WASHINGTON ST. & LOGAN ST.

CIRCLEVILLE

Looks Like Ingenious Kid, But Ray Malone Is 22-Year Veteran of Show Business

By CELIA WEBSTER
Central Press Correspondent
NEW YORK—For a guy who looks like a teen-ager, it's astonishing to hear him tell of 22 years in show business, not to mention that he has a wife and 3-year-old daughter.

The young man with the deceptively boyish appearance is Ray Malone, whose dancing feet brought him to the attention of millions of television viewers on the late Broadway Open House show.

His style of tap dancing lends itself to the unusual. Ideas and situations go to Malone's feet, eventually arriving before the footlights and cameras in the guise of an intricate dance routine.

Ray has almost always known the call of the entertainment world. As a child of four, he and his brother, Howard, who was then eight, started in show business as dancers.

THE TWO youngsters and Joe Caleb, their partner, also of a tender age, toured the circuits booked as "The Three Southern Gentlemen." When Ray was eight, he and Howard joined the Major Bowes circuit.

Eventually, Ray graduated to such Broadway hits as Best Foot Forward, Race the Roof and Banjo Eyes with Eddie Cantor. The movies have also helped to round out his career.

Since the final curtain fell on the raucous Open House, Ray has been a very busy young man making many personal appearances, television guest spots, and entertaining in night clubs throughout the country.

Malone tells of the original purpose of Broadway Open House realized in its short life. It was intended to give talented, little known showpeople a chance. As a result, it skyrocketed an unknown girl by the name of Virginia Egnor, now the fabulous Dagmar, to fame and brought to light such talented people as Buddy Greco, Eileen Barton, Dave Street and others.

Ray, in speaking of Dagmar, exclaims "I love to work with

"I love to work with Dagmar." Dagmar. She keeps in touch with her little hush puppy.

THE FEELING of professional people, as well as those in front of the footlights, runs high for the 26-year-old Malone. Everyone regards him as a "swell little guy." His favorite summer pastime is baseball, which, he says, "uses a lot of muscles I don't use in dancing."

Not too long ago, Ray appeared at New York's famed Copacabana for a run of 22 weeks. Later, while appearing at Bill Miller's Riviera, he met Jeanne Parsons, whom he later married. Ray and Jeanne live in New York with their daughter, Leslie.

Malone is enthusiastic about color television. NBC has placed him on its staff as a choreographer and, in recent color telecasts, he was given much responsibility in the dance sequences. Color TV is biding its time at present, owing to the materials situation, but Ray regards it as much more complicated than black and white.

POOR FISH IN RENO? COULD BE TROUT! They Got Hooked—But Not at Roulette, Crap Tables

By RICHARD H. SYRING
Central Press Correspondent
RENO, Nev. — Gambling and quick divorces are not the only products of Reno. Add to them trout. Yes, delicious palatable rainbows!

Christmas the story of Paul K. Christman will give you a tip on how, in a smaller way, you might beat the high-cost of living. Christman raises rainbow trout. His trout "ranch" is reputed to be the world's largest.

Here in the shadows of the high Sierra mountains are 29 acres, mostly covered by ponds in which at all times are at least 2,500,000 rainbow trout. Daily, workers scoop up several thousand of these beauties, grown to the right size, for the market. Also, each day several thousand new trout are being hatched.

Within 20 minutes after the trout leaves a Christmas pond, it is packed in an individual cellophane jacket—ready for the market.

The Christmas ranch is pretty much of a self-contained fish factory, except for the trout eggs and food which must be brought in. All told, about 400,000 pounds of fish are sold annually.

The ranch has 36 growing ponds, each 20 feet wide, 125 feet long and 3½ feet deep. These ponds and a main 200-foot reservoir are supplied with fresh well water at about 58 degrees Fahrenheit.

THE NECESSARY extra oxygen is added to the water by throwing it high in the air from a six-inch header pipe. A system of sprays over the ponds also provide additional aeration which is often needed.

This is an assembly-line business. As the trout grow larger they are allowed to swim into another pond. A Christmas rainbow trout's life cycle goes something like this:

Most eggs are flown in from Idaho and Montana, some coming from Canada. An average ice-packed shipment is about 250,000 eggs on small screen-bottomed trays covered with cheese cloth. They are so small that it takes 390 to make an ounce.

The so-called "green eggs" are immediately put in troughs of fresh water in the incubation room. The embryos, now called "fry,"

Three workmen scoop up a netful of trout in Reno fish ranch.

break from the egg sac in five to seven days.

They lie on the bottom of the troughs for 15 to 20 days, feeding only on the remains of the egg sac. Once the sacs are consumed, the fry rise to the surface and they then are fed finely ground beef livers.

For about the next two weeks, the tiny fry are fed hourly, with feeding times reduced to three, then twice daily. Once the fry show an ability to eat well they are moved to outside rearing ponds. By then they are at least one-inch long and are known as "fingerlings."

Not until they are two to three inches long are they called trout, and not before they are six to seven inches long are they moved to the larger growing ponds.

These trout are pampered. For instance, water temperatures and dissolved oxygen content are determined daily by the number of

The hummingbird, for its weight, is regarded as the best fighter among birds.

In Denison, Ia., it is illegal for anyone to stand at a jail window and heckle the inmates.

Derby

A picture titled "Nativity Shrine" presented by Rose Adene Hoffman to the primary department of the Sunday school on last Sunday morning. The painting was hand painted by Mrs. Madge Hoffman. Figurines used were imported from Italy and photographed in a Columbus Cathedral by the Schreck studio of Columbus.

Mr. and Mrs. Grant Carmac and children from Pennsylvania are spending their Christmas vacation with Mrs. Carmac's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alva Skinner. This is little Susan Elizabeth's first visit with her grand-parents.

Mrs. Ethel Ridgway is spending the holidays with her daughter, Etta Margaret and family of Greenfield, Ind. Mrs. Ridgway's other daughter Maxine and family of Tennessee are also guests in the home.

Friends from this community attended the golden wedding reception Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Neff at their home near here.

A Christmas program was presented in the church Sunday morning by the children's department. The children were given a treat.

Young folks of the Sunday school sang Christmas Carols Sunday evening to a number of the sick and shut-in.

Goodbye Heartburn - Hello TUMS!
Quick relief for sour stomach, gas and indigestion. Sells only 10c.
TUMS FOR THE TUMMY

GLASS
ALL POPULAR SIZES AND CUT TO ORDER
ANKROM LUMBER and SUPPLY
W. Main St. Phone 237

SOME OF THE 23 investigators representing six agencies attempting to learn cause of the airliner wreck fatal to 56 persons in Elizabeth, N. J., confer near the crash scene. Standing (from left), Louis T. Lombardi, Union county chief detective; Lt. Louis Sklarey, Essex county prosecutor's office; George Clark, CAA safety investigator; Joseph H. Farinacci, CAA safety agent; Frank E. Kimball, New Jersey aeronautics director. Seated, CAB Chief Investigator Joseph O. Fluet; Edward Cohn, Union county prosecutor. (International Soundphoto)

The Adler planetarium and As-the first institution of its kind in astronomical museum in Chicago was America.

Tots' Books
Their Favorites Are Here at Murphy's
5c to 25c
You'll find Murphy's has a large selection of books for children. Tots' story books and nursery rhymes in beautifully illustrated editions; paint books and cut-out books.
G.C. Murphy Co.
CIRCLEVILLE'S FRIENDLY STORE

CHEMISTS MAY HAVE ANSWER

Vast U.S. Oil Reserves Sought By Engineers

NEW YORK, Dec. 27.—Oilmen know exactly where billions and billions of barrels of oil lie under the United States that they haven't yet been able to coax to the surface.

Some of them think they're going to be able to find the way—and soon. Defense needs of the nation for oil reserves that can be used spur the oil engineers and chemists on.

Other billions of barrels that oilmen once gave up as lost forever they have now learned how to bring forth. By injecting salt water or natural gas deep into the earth they have brought back to life old oil fields they once thought milked dry. They expect this way to recover an estimated 75 billion barrels.

But that still leaves oil they know is there but can't pull out of the pores of the rock and sand where nature produced it.

PERHAPS 150 billion or 200 billion barrels are in known oil fields but beyond the reach of current methods of recovery. This oil is a prize worth working for—especially in the nation's defense.

Now they are turning to chemistry to get at it. They are sticking hypodermic needles of acid deep into the earth to eject the oil from the rocks. Some are using detergents to flush oil loose from the porous rocks in which it hides.

Some use carbon dioxide in the water with which they flood old oil fields to push the oil toward the bottom of wells that are going dry.

Fatty acids and ammonia salts are also said to induce the rocks

to cast off the oil that clings to them.

Other chemists are experimenting with bacteria to stimulate the underground flow of oil from the oil-bearing sands to the bottom of oil wells. Some are testing out the effects of heat on the reluctant oil stores.

Much of this oil was once thought lost because in the early days of the oil industry men knew only one way of getting oil — pumping out the petroleum which flowed by natural means to the bottom of the well. The natural means was pressure. The fruitful sands bore not only oil but gas and water.

Pressure of the gas and water forced the heavy, slow-flowing oil from the porous rock toward the point of relief — the well casing where the pressure could escape from the earth.

So rapid is the change in the many medicinal preparations widely used 10 or 15 years ago are completely unused today.

A. Janes & Sons
Division of Inland Products, Inc.
HIGHEST PRICES PAID FOR DEAD STOCK
Horses ..... $1.00 each
Cows ..... $1.00 each
According to Size and Condition
Small Stock Promptly Removed
Phone Collect
Circleville 104

JOE MOATS MOTOR SALES
159 E. Franklin St. Phone 301
DESOTO and PLYMOUTH SALES & SERVICE
Use Only The Best in Your Car
FACTORY-MADE PARTS

PAUL M. YAUGER MEMORIAL STUDIOS
LONDON, O. ESTABLISHED 1914
Rev. Clarence Swearingen
CIRCLEVILLE DISTRICT MANAGER
WILLIAMSPORT, OHIO
PHONE 291
THERE IS NO SUBSTITUTE FOR FAIR DEALING

DELICIOUS DOLLAR-STRETCHING menu treats!

We Wish You All a Prosperous and HAPPY NEW YEAR

Table Roasted Coffee Lb. 77c	Sauerkraut 2 cans 28c	Armour's Milk 2 Cans 27c
Puffed Wheat 2 boxes 25c	Spare Ribs . . . . lb. 49c	Pure Cane Sugar 5 lbs. 51c
Baked Beans 2 cans 33c	Fresh Shoulder . . . lb. 49c	Cream Style Corn 2 cans 35c
	Fresh Side . . . . lb. 35c
	Bulk Sausage Lb. 39c
	Cabbage 2 lbs. 17c
Pineapple . . . . No. 2½ can 37c	Pumpkin . . . . 2 cans 35c
Apricot Juice . . . 46 oz. can 45c	Peaches . . . . . can 29c
Jello All Flavors . . 3 boxes 27c	Oranges . . . . . 2 doz. 49c
Jello-Pudding . . . 3 boxes 25c	Tangerines . . . . . doz. 25c
Popcorn Ear . . . . 2 lbs. 35c	Celery . . . . . lge. stalk 29c

NUTS and CANDIES OYSTERS and FROZEN FISH

OPEN DAILY 7 A. M. TO 6 P. M.—SATURDAY 7 A. M. TO 10:30 P. M.

WALTERS' FOOD MKT.
Corner Franklin & Washington Sts. Free Delivery Anywhere In Town Phone 152

SEE US FOR—
Butchering—Curing—Smoking
Rendering—Processing
Wholesale—Retail
Lockers—Locker Supplies
We Sell Our Own Cured Hams, Bacon and Loins
Sugar Cured and Hickory Smoked
Circleville Fast Freeze Food Locker
P. J. GRIFFIN
Owner and Operator
161 EDISON AVENUE CIRCLEVILLE, OHIO

OPEN NEW YEAR'S DAY UNTIL 12 NOON!

Read A Magazine Tonight — Our MAGAZINES Are Changed Twice Weekly!

Rid Your House Of The Pests!
De CON
Rat and Mouse Eradicator
We Have A Complete Line Of
School Supplies!

You Can Always Park Free In Front of Our Door-- And Save on Food Buys!
Falters and Fetherolfs Meats
At Lowest Possible Prices!
BACK BONES . . . . . lb. 29c
NECK BONES . . . . . lb. 15c
PORK BRAINS . . . . . lb. 28c
Try Our Cold Blue Water Fish
HADDOCK & PERCH
Full Line Fruits and
FRESH, SELECTED Vegetables
Our Eggs Come Direct From the Farm!

HELD'S SUPER MKT.
CORNER S. WASHINGTON ST. & LOGAN ST. CIRCLEVILLE

The Circleville Herald

Consolidation of The Circleville Herald, Established 1883 and The Daily Union Herald, Established 1894.

Published Evenings Except Sunday By
THE CIRCLEVILLE PUBLISHING COMPANY
210 N. Court Street, Circleville

T. E. WILSON ..... PUBLISHER

Member Ohio Newspaper Association, Associated Press, Central Press Association and the Ohio Select List.

NATIONAL ADVERTISING REPRESENTATIVES,
JOHN W. CULLEN COMPANY
230 N. Michigan Avenue, Chicago, 630 Fifth Avenue, New York, 3044 N. Grand Blvd., Detroit

SUBSCRIPTION
Pickaway County and Circleville trading territory. By Carrier in Circleville, 30c per week. By mail per year, $6 in advance. Zones one and two, $7 per year in advance, beyond first and second postal zones, per year $8 in advance.

Entered at Postoffice at Circleville, Ohio, as Second Class Matter.

LET THE PEOPLE KNOW

SEVERAL weeks ago President Truman accused a press wire service of falsifying a report indicating a cease-fire agreement had been reached in Korea. While he did not succeed in making a case, he retaliated by ruling that his recent talk on conditions in Korea was off the record, and none of the 168 reporters who attended his news conference was permitted to make the report public, although relatives of the men fighting in Korea were eager to learn of conditions there.

While Americans, including relatives of American boys fighting and dying in Korea, were denied the news, it went directly to Moscow. Two reporters present who were not bound by the agreement for secrecy represented the Russian news agency, Tass, and the Communist Daily Worker, published in New York.

Fortunately, there was nothing sensational in the report, or facts which would give aid and comfort to the enemy. But whatever value it may have contained was destined solely for Communist ears.

Concerned about the state of the nation and the progress of events in Korea, the American people certainly haven't been fully informed on either. But they are being continually urged to greater efforts in behalf of preparedness and defense. The result is the people are groping in the dark.

Outside of strictly military secrets, the people are entitled to know what is going on. They have no way of obtaining the facts except through the newspapers. When attempts are made to throttle the press the American people are the targets of the censor.

AT THE MATERIAL HEIGHT

THAT AMERICA is revolutionary while Soviet Russia is reactionary is the gist of the thought presented to the Congress of American Industry in New York City the other day.

America with its free enterprise, free press and other democratic institutions has given material man the peak of his well-being. Russia is trying to turn the clock back toward the "divine" right of kings and the slave system by which man does the work and accepts the pay that is dictated to him.

There can be no doubt that this is the truth. But all too many of the peoples of the world do not understand it. In the have-not countries many people would be glad for any change that promised them a little more in their bellies and a little more on their backs. They are slaves to a backward system and can see no particular menace to becoming slaves to a political order if the new order might win them a higher grade of subsistence.

Even here in America, where most people have everything, some of them do not understand their system is the best ever devised and a few of them would change it. But to discard the democratic system in favor of one operated by tyrants would certainly be surrendering any hope of human betterment.

Currently it is the steelworkers' union that is on the rampage, but John L. Lewis' turn will come soon.

George E. Sokolsky's

These Days

The time has come for the United States to insist upon decency in the relations among countries. The time has come for our government to demand that the inviolability of American life be recognized. Only conquered countries pay ransom. Self-respecting nations fight for their citizens. Russia is testing how afraid we really are.

Even during World War II, when we were aiding the Russians, when we gave them $11 billion of the earnings of our people, American fliers who found themselves forced down on Russian soil were treated as enemies. What kind of an ally was that, and do we know the whole truth about that? Do we know what happened to other Americans who found themselves in Russian territory during the war years?

The Vogeler case shocked the sensibilities of this country. Was it really such an extraordinary incident that an American, finding himself in Soviet territory on proper business, should be imprisoned and tortured?

Robert A. Vogeler was a brave man and it is reported that he has said that the ransom paid for him was too high. That is not humility or modesty; it is a patriotic insistence that the United States pays no ransom. This country ought not to submit to blackmail. Ransom is submission. The Russians are showing the world that we are cowardly.

The reporter, William N. Oatis, remains in a vile Czech jail, a suffering and tortured American, accused of espionage. Oatis was no spy. He sought the news, as American reporters seek the news, unslanted, uncensored, truthful. For that he was called a spy, brutally tortured, and remains in prison, rotting his young life away.

Now four American fliers who lost their way are imprisoned in Hungary and have been tried as spies. It is the same pattern. Whoever travels behind the Iron Curtain, uninvited, is to be killed, lest what he has witnessed be made known to the world. Not human life but the Iron Curtain is to be inviolate.

One can point to our revulsion even to the accusation of espionage. It took 11 years to convict Alger Hiss. He was given two public jury trials, a grand jury and a House Committee on Un-American Activities investigation. The atom bomb spies were given every opportunity to defend themselves and for appeal. Judith Coplon is still free. The criminal conspiracy of the Communist leaders, investigated by the House Committee on Un-American Activities since 1937, was finally exposed and the guilty punished in one of the longest trials in history. And so it goes in a free land, where we seek to avoid punishing a man for the reprehensible crime of espionage. When he is found guilty here, there can be no question of a fair, open trial in accordance with the protectives of our Constitution.

It is possible to say that the FBI should pick up every Russian spy in this country. There are plenty of them here, particularly so-called diplomats assigned to the United Nations. Many of them belong to the satellite nations and are delegated to the United Nations only to do the work of spies among us. Their presence is known and could easily be investigated by the McCarran committee without the slightest regard to the State Department, diplomatic immunity or diplomatic courtesy. There is no reason why the United States should tolerate spies in this country even if they bear diplomatic passports.

Retaliation of that sort would quickly teach the Russians not to treat lightly the liberty and life of an American citizen. There are so many of their agents in this land and they are roaming among us freely.

(Continued on Page Eleven)

It is estimated that 45 per cent of the population reads no books. But there is always the weather to talk about.

LAFF-A-DAY

DIET AND HEALTH

Modern Surgery Offers Hope For Cancer of the Esophagus

By HERMAN N. BUNDESEN, M.D.

THE tube that carries food from the throat to the stomach is called the esophagus. This passage is one of the places frequently attacked by cancer. According to statistics, about five men to every woman in this country have cancer of the esophagus.

Until recently, there was no known way of helping people with cancer of the esophagus, but now there is new hope for such patients as surgeons have developed safe and effective methods of handling this disease. Today, thanks to modern surgery, a person with this type of cancer stands an excellent chance of cure if treated early enough.

Early Warning

Difficulty in swallowing is one of the early warnings of cancer of the esophagus. At first, the person finds it hard to swallow foods such as hard rolls, raw celery, carrots and meat. Together with this difficulty, he often has a feeling of pain or discomfort in the chest. He usually turns to a soft or liquid diet to avoid the discomfort in swallowing.

It sometimes happens that the difficulty in swallowing improves for short periods, and the person is led to believe the trouble is growing better or has left him. The difficulty returns, however, and grows worse. As it persists, the person noticeably loses weight. Sometimes, if the cancer is high up in the esophagus, the voice may sound hoarse, or there may be a bell-like cough. This is due to pressure on the nerves of the larynx, or "voice-box."

Anyone with persistent difficulty in swallowing should consult his physician as soon as possible. By the use of X-rays, the doctor can readily detect the cancer if it is present. The patient is fed a liquid containing barium, a substance that blocks X-rays and makes it possible for the doctor to watch the liquid as it passes from mouth to stomach. If a growth is present in the esophagus, the X-ray picture clearly shows that the barium does not have free passage into the stomach.

(Copyright, 1951, King Features Syndicate, Inc.)

Treated By Surgery

Many cancers of the esophagus are now being treated by surgery, with very good results. Operations are being performed in which the cancerous portion of the esophagus is removed, and the stomach brought up into the chest where it is connected directly to the remaining portion of the esophagus. Some surgeons are also using a new plastic tube to replace the esophagus after it is removed.

Cancer of the esophagus is thus another disease in which many who were formerly doomed are now being cured. However, it is important for a person to consult his physician as soon as he notices any of the symptoms I have described—especially the early ones. Don't wait until pain and discomfort force you to see your doctor.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Q. I. P. B.: I had rheumatic fever when I was eight years old. I am now 20. I have been running a low-grade fever for the past two weeks. I have occasional chills. What would you advise?

A. Answer: It might be best for you to have a complete physical examination by your physician. You may have a recurrence of rheumatic fever, or you may have an infection of one of the valves of the heart, which may prove very dangerous if not taken care of immediately.

Looking Back In Pickaway County

FIVE YEARS AGO

Dr. and Mrs. J. J. Rooney, East Union street, celebrated their 54th wedding anniversary, Christmas Day.

Miss Kathleen Hinton of Tuscon, Ariz., is spending the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Hinton, Pickaway Township.

Mrs. Mary M. Jones, whose Park Place home was badly damaged by fire several weeks ago, was admitted to Berger hospital Thursday for medical treatment.

TEN YEARS AGO

Two hundred couples attended the annual Mistletoe Charity Ball, Friday in Memorial Hall.

Philip Moore and David Jackson, have been pledged to Ohio State university chapter of Scabbard and Blade, honorary military society.

Dr. E. L. Montgomery has returned to Camp Shelby, Miss., after spending the holidays with Mrs. Montgomery and children.

By HAL BOYLE

A Soviet historian will announce in Pravda that a Russian scientist first invented the common cold. He will explain that it was most Russian names end with a sneeze.

Inflation will force the five percenters to become ten percenters.

A monument will be erected to a congressman who returns from Europe without any inside information as to Gen. Eisenhower's plans.

And who's going to be elected President in November? To this query the crystal ball replied:

"I will predict flatly only that his wife will not appear at the inauguration ceremony in a mink coat."

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO
The fire department was called out last night to extinguish a blaze in the home of Robert Zwicker, corner of Elm avenue and Corwin street.

Frank Fuller of East Mound street was struck by a passing car near Ritt's Crossing.

Miss Mercedes Mason has returned to Chicago after spending the holidays at home.

You're Telling Me!

By William Ritt
Central Press Writer

In order that TV programs may be sent around the world, it's suggested that television impulses be bounced off the moon. The Lady that's known as Luna may be in for a surprise.

Report that croquet may be added to the Olympic Games sports events has Grandpappy Jenkins indulging in a little secret practice.

The national capital, insists a GOP pal, is not only where the government sits but what it also spends.

Today's Fable: Once upon a time there was a family of kids who didn't insist that Pop buy a Christmas tree taller than the living room ceiling was high.

Betcha Dollar Dier says he's still looking for a sure winner—a race horse that's scared of all the other nags.

Then there was the musician who was always pulling strings but didn't get anywhere. Played a harp, it seems?

The Air Force, says a news item, has an electronic brain that can play chess or direct traffic. How good is it at solving crossword puzzles?

The PARSON

SYNOPSIS
Returning to the home at Greenwood after four years absence, Anne Atwood, the Parson's daughter, is tightly shocked by the scene for an unconventional life, a touch of safety, luxury, ease. Joe Melick, the town's rich show-off bachelor, had already tried to woo Anne, but he is not the type easily to win a girl's trust. She has met Donald Kent, a newly appointed teacher at the Greenwood high school, and while he, too, tries to court her, Anne discourages his attentions because she loathes his pompous teaching profession.

CHAPTER SEVEN
"DO YOU think now would be a good time to visit our new neighbors?" Barth asked.

"I think so, yes," Constance replied. "They're just sitting out there under their wisteria vine reading the Sunday paper."

The Parson glanced down at his black gown which he was carrying over his arm on his way up the driveway to the house from the morning service. He was filled with a benign contentment over the hour just passed. Anne may not have been present with her mother, but he was not worried about her. He knew her filial loyalty to him and her strong sense of duty. The phase through which she was passing was natural. If it should create temporarily a little adverse comment, he believed he could handle it. He did not think it would be a serious matter. He trusted his congregation as well as he trusted his daughter. Standing above them this morning, he had felt flowing between him and them a strong, invisible tide of great and deep affection. They trusted him, too, he thought now. It was a beautiful feeling for a beautiful summer morning.

"I wouldn't want them to think I was drumming up trade," he said, lowering his voice.

"Oh, well, I don't believe—"

"I mean to say I don't want my appearance at this moment to seem like a reproof to them. After all, they may belong to another church."

"Just the same, we'd better go now," Constance decided. "They've been here nearly a week and we'll seem unfriendly if we don't." Only with Anne very with us," she added, thinking of Donald. Anne had not been nice to Donald, and he was really a fine young man.

"We'll have to let Anne alone," the Parson returned. "We can't put any pressure on her at all. For anything," he added pointedly. "I know," Constance said, "but when people say—and everybody said it this morning—'Where's Anne?' I thought she was home, what am I going to answer?"

"Answer, 'She is, and stop there. Our whole congregation exercises freedom of choice about attending services. Why shouldn't she?'"

Constance made no reply. Barth was proving a great deal more tolerant in his acceptance of Anne's attitude than she had anticipated.

Copyright, 1951, by Alice Ross Colver. Distributed by King Features Syndicate.

TODAY'S GRAB BAG

By LILIAN CAMPBELL
Central Press Writer

THE ANSWER, QUICK!

1. Who was Croesus?
2. Where did Benedict Arnold commit treason?
3. How many dozen are there in a gross?
4. What college was the alma mater of Henry W. Longfellow?
5. What state does Senator Ernest W. McFarland represent in Congress?

IT'S BEEN SAID

Put not your trust in money, but put your money in trust.—Oliver Wendell Holmes.

WATCH YOUR LANGUAGE

CIRCUMVENT (circ-um-vent)—verb, transitive, to surround, as by craft or stratagem, especially by entrap; to gain advantage over by stratagem or deception; to delude; to go round. Origin: Latin—Circumventus, past participle derivative of Circum plus venire, to come.

YOUR FUTURE

It's a good time for producing new methods or improving old ones that have served you well. Work out details by yourself and good fortune is likely to follow. A stalwart character is predicted for a child born today.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY

Birthday greetings go today to Louis Bromfield, author and columnist; Oscar Levant, pianist; Actress Marlene Dietrich; and Sydney Greenstreet, motion picture actor.

Bennett Cerf's

Try, Stop Me

A hoity-toity hostess exhibited open scorn when one of her guests ignored the sugar tong and took a cube in her fingers. "Empty the bowl," she instructed the butler, "and refill it with fresh sugar." When the luncheon was over, the guest who had committed the heinous crime approached the hostess. In her hand she carried her cup and saucer—obviously specimens of the rarest and most costly china. "I'm sure," she cooed, "that you would never want these utensils used again," smashed them on the stone fireplace, and exited triumphantly while the hostess reached weakly for an aspirin.

"The far ends of the earth" is an empty phrase today. As Willis Brown points out, there is no spot

Then her husband's friendly resonant tones rang out on the summer air.

"Good morning, neighbors! Is this a convenient time for us to offer you a welcome to our town?"

Virginia, looking up at the sound of the Parson's call, spoke in a low voice to Philip. "This is it, my love. Get up." The next moment she had lifted herself from the rattan chair in which she was reclining and had moved forward across the lawn with one hand extended and the newspaper tucked under her other arm.

"What a pleasure!" she said, forcing her voice to a note of polite sincerity. "Philip, bring another chair from the porch. Oh, you must sit down for a moment, at least. Don has been telling us about you, and we've been looking forward—" She broke off to glance up at a window overhead. "Don! Are you there? Dr. and Mrs. Atwood have come to see us."

"Be right down!" Don called. "Now we don't mean to disturb anybody," Barth began, but Virginia protested that they weren't at all, and in a moment the four of them were seated under the heavy foliage of a vine.

"Beautiful, this wisteria," Barth said, his eyes traveling over it. "You missed it at its loveliest, however. Wait until next April or May. You'll see purple sprays as long as my arm. Simply beautiful."

He was speaking with his usual gracious ease. Was it possible he did not feel, as Constance did, a faint mockery, an undercurrent of resentment beneath the courtesy of these strangers?

Her eyes moved from one to the other as they talked. Virginia, a woman probably in her early forties, was wearing with complete unconsciousness or indifference—or both—her favorite outfit, a navy blue suit. Soiled white sneakers were on her feet, and a multicolored bandana was twisted carelessly about her head. From beneath this, above her shrewd good-humored eyes, a fuzzy pompon of gray curls bobbed, and dangling silver earrings swung with every motion she made. Her husband, more ponderous than she in speech and movement, was barefoot; while buttoned across a hairy chest at their approach, hung outside of his creaseless khaki shorts.

Constance said, "Are you beginning to feel at home yet, Mrs. Moore? Have you—ah—found everything finally?" And then, before Virginia's sharp knowledgeable look, she could have bitten her tongue out. But the accusation fell.

"You heard us," Barth said quickly. "Certainly we heard you. How could we help it? Although, actually, we didn't try very hard not to. We even came to feel you were, perhaps, putting on a show for our particular benefit."

Virginia's glance turned in faint suspicion toward the Parson. But his expression was blandly innocent.

"Perhaps I should explain," he went on. "You do all your living on the south side, as we do. However, we have an advantage over you for we can keep out of sight and sound with our house between us and you. Our kitchen and dining room windows on the north we can stand unobserved and see all, hear all, know all." He lifted an interrogative eyebrow while Constance sat frozen and Philip and Virginia stared. "I suppose we should have come over and told you this sooner? We debated the matter, but, I must confess, we were enjoying our front row seats too greatly. We didn't want the curtain rung down. I think I have never known a moving-in to be accomplished with so much—shall I say—guile?"

After a second of surprised silence, Virginia burst into hearty laughter. "Don told us," she murmured. And then, "Philip, did you hear what he said?"

Philip, who had dropped cross-legged on the grass, took his pipe from his mouth and fixed his expressionless stare on the Parson. Squinting like that, Constance thought, and so huge and with those round brown eyes and his bald head, he looks like a Buddha. But he was speaking.

"We've been spied on. And by a minister. Brother! I can hardly believe it." He bent forward and reached out a big brown hand to Barth. "Let me, again." He shook hands gravely. "And now tell me, do you commit any other mortal sins?"

"Oh, my, yes," Barth was getting into stride. "We steal."

He nodded. "All of us. Including my daughter. In fact, I encourage her in it. I send her out in the dark to do it. You'll see her in the fall, creeping around on her knees on our driveway picking up the apples that fall from your trees. As neighbors," he went on cheerfully, "we may prove to be quite obnoxious. Although I do believe it's a moot question whether that is actual thievery. After all, if you can't keep your apples on your own place, is it our fault? But I never cared to investigate the legality of the matter because they cook up into such delicious applesauce."

He nodded toward Virginia. "I'll bring you over some later on. I make it—create it, I mean, because I consider that I am a culinary artist—since my wife doesn't care about the kitchen. Her greatest pleasure lies in getting out of it."

(To Be Continued)

Copyright, 1951, by Alice Ross Colver. Distributed by King Features Syndicate.

FOLKS OF FAME—GUESS THE NAME

Master of Arts in 1912. He was married in the latter year and has two children. Government service beckoned him in 1939, opening year of World War II, when he became honorary adviser to the secretary of state for war. He subsequently served as minister of food, minister of reconstruction and lord president of the council. From 1943 to 1945, he was a member of Prime Minister Winston Churchill's war cabinet. When the Conservatives were returned to office in the fall of 1951, this former cabinet member returned to his post as lord president of the council. In addition to his political interests, he is a director of numerous British corporations. Perhaps you can name him by his title as First Baron of Liverpool.

IT HAPPENED TODAY

1800—Louis Pasteur, French biologist, born. 1941—In World War II, Japanese bombed Manila. 1945—Big Three foreign ministers, Vichayoslav Molotov, Russia; Ernest Bevin, Great Britain, and James A. Byrnes, United States, adjourned conference in Moscow after agreeing on Atom Energy Commission for United Nations.

HOW'D YOU MAKE OUT?

1. A fabulously rich king of Lydia in 560 B.C.
2. At West Point, N.Y.
3. Twelve.
4. Bowdoin college, Brunswick, Me.
5. Arizona.

scrap metal purchased from outside the industry.

The world ski jumping record in 1887 was 37 feet. The present record is better than 350 feet.

The United States had 18,351 motion picture theaters in 1949. Europe had 52,344.

The Parthenon at Athens, Greece, was completed in 438 B.C.

There are approximately 700 private schools in the United States.

There are some 3,650 iron lungs in the United States.

The eye is 16 times more sensitive than the ear.

The original structures in Moscow's Kremlin were built by two Italians between 1485 and 1495.

Time To Look Into Old Crystal Ball

NEW YORK—It is time to look into the old crystal ball for an advance view of 1952.

What lies ahead? Well, button down the storm cellar boys and girls—it's going to be one of the dizziest years of the century.

It is the kind of a year that Rip Van Winkle would hardly choose to wake up in. You might look for these things:

The hottest national political campaign since the Bull Moose campaign of 1912. More mud will be deposited around the landscape than was left by the Midwest floods of 1951.

A man will patent a new gigantic brain able to outthink Congress. It will be given the task of figuring a way to collect more taxes. However, it will explode—and Congress will meet as usual.

Television will come up with a bright new star—a lady able to wrestle an alligator and a boa constrictor at one and the same time, while she sings a cigaret commercial.

The biggest food sensation of the year: A non-crunchy breakfast cereal. The children can see and taste it, but the parents don't have to listen to it.

A scandal will break out in world chess circles. Bull fighting will then be revived in Texas to give the nation an honest amateur sport.

A spiritualist will at last succeed in making contact with the ghost of Houdini. His message:

"Let me alone; I know when I'm well off."

The traffic problem will be solved by creation of a national network of four-lane, no-way streets. Nobody will get anywhere, but they'll do it more safely.

Dr. Kinsey will finally publish his gigantic survey on the sex life of American women. It will turn out to be a four-page pamphlet. He will then undertake his masterpiece—a study of Freudian variations in the rabbit.

Taxes will go sideways, as they no longer can go up.

A revolutionary new discovery will be brought to the market as a substitute for nylon. It will be called silk.

The Circleville Herald

Consolidation of The Circleville Herald, Established 1883 and The Daily Union Herald, Established 1894.

Published Evenings Except Sunday By
THE CIRCLEVILLE PUBLISHING COMPANY
210 N. Court Street, Circleville

T. E. WILSON ..... PUBLISHER

Member Ohio Newspaper Association, Associated Press, Central Press Association and the Ohio Select List.

NATIONAL ADVERTISING REPRESENTATIVES,
JOHN W. CULLEN COMPANY
230 N. Michigan Avenue, Chicago, 630 Fifth Avenue,
New York, 3044 N. Grand Blvd., Detroit

SUBSCRIPTION

Pickaway County and Circleville trading territory. By Carrier in Circleville, 30c per week. By mail per year, $6 in advance. Zones one and two, $7 per year in advance, beyond first and second postal zones, per year $8 in advance.

Entered at Postoffice at Circleville, Ohio, as Second Class Matter.

LET THE PEOPLE KNOW

SEVERAL weeks ago President Truman accused a press wire service of falsifying a report indicating a cease-fire agreement had been reached in Korea. While he did not succeed in making a case, he retaliated by ruling that his recent talk on conditions in Korea was off the record, and none of the 168 reporters who attended his news conference was permitted to make the report public, although relatives of the men fighting in Korea were eager to learn of conditions there.

While Americans, including relatives of American boys fighting and dying in Korea, were denied the news, it went directly to Moscow. Two reporters present who were not bound by the agreement for secrecy represented the Russian news agency, Tass, and the Communist Daily Worker, published in New York.

Fortunately, there was nothing sensational in the report, or facts which would give aid and comfort to the enemy. But whatever value it may have contained was destined solely for Communist ears.

Concerned about the state of the nation and the progress of events in Korea, the American people certainly haven't been fully informed on either. But they are being continually urged to greater efforts in behalf of preparedness and defense. The result is the people are groping in the dark.

Outside of strictly military secrets, the people are entitled to know what is going on. They have no way of obtaining the facts except through the newspapers. When attempts are made to throttle the press the American people are the targets of the censor.

AT THE MATERIAL HEIGHT

THAT AMERICA is revolutionary while Soviet Russia is reactionary is the gist of the thought presented to the Congress of American Industry in New York City the other day.

America with its free enterprise, free press and other democratic institutions has given material man the peak of his well-being. Russia is trying to turn the clock back toward the "divine" right of kings and the slave system by which man does the work and accepts the pay that is dictated to him.

There can be no doubt that this is the truth. But all too many of the peoples of the world do not understand it. In the have-not countries many people would be glad for any change that promised them a little more in their bellies and a little more on their backs. They are slaves to a backward system and can see no particular menace to becoming slaves to a political order if the new order might win them a higher grade of subsistence.

Even here in America, where most people have everything, some of them do not understand their system is the best ever devised and a few of them would change it. But to discard the democratic system in favor of one operated by tyrants would certainly be surrendering any hope of human betterment.

Currently it is the steelworkers' union that is on the rampage, but John L. Lewis' turn will come soon.

Time To Look Into Old Crystal Ball

NEW YORK—It is time to look into the old crystal ball for an advance view of 1952.

What lies ahead? Well, button down the storm cellar boys and girls—it's going to be one of the dizziest years of the century. It is the kind of a year that Rip Van Winkle would hardly choose to wake up in. You might look for these things:

The hottest national political campaign since the Bull Moose campaign of 1912. More mud will be deposited around the landscape than was left by the Midwest floods of 1951.

A man will patent a new gigantic brain able to outthink Congress. It will be given the task of figuring a way to collect more taxes. However, it will explode—and Congress will meet as usual.

Television will come up with a bright new star—a lady able to wrestle an alligator and a boa constrictor at one and the same time, while she sings a cigar commercial.

The biggest food sensation of the year: A non-crunchy breakfast cereal. The children can see and taste it, but the parents don't have to listen to it.

A scandal will break out in world chess circles. Bull fighting will then be revived in Texas to give the nation an honest amateur sport.

A spiritualist will at last succeed in making contact with the ghost of Houdini. His message:

"Let me alone; I know when I'm well off."

The traffic problem will be solved by creation of a national network of four-lane, no-way streets. Nobody will get anywhere, but they'll do it more safely.

Dr. Kinsey will finally publish his gigantic survey on the sex life of American women. It will turn out to be a four-page pamphlet. He will then undertake his masterpiece—a study of Freudian variations in the rabbit.

Taxes will go sideways, as they no longer can go up.

A revolutionary new discovery will be brought to the market as a substitute for nylon. It will be called silk.

George E. Sokolsky's

These Days

The time has come for the United States to insist upon decency in the relations among countries. The time has come for our government to demand that the inviolability of American life be recognized. Only conquered countries pay a ransom. Self-respecting nations fight for their citizens. Russia is testing how afraid we really are.

Even during World War II, when we were aiding the Russians, when we gave them $11 billion of the earnings of our people, American fliers who found themselves forced down on Russian soil were treated as enemies. What kind of an ally was that, and do we know the whole truth about that? Do we know what happened to other Americans who found themselves in Russian territory during the war years?

The Vogeler case shocked the sensibilities of this country. Was it really such an extraordinary incident that an American, finding himself in Soviet territory on proper business, should be imprisoned and tortured?

Robert A. Vogeler was a brave man and it is reported that he has said that the ransom paid for him was too high. That is not humility or modesty; it is a patriotic insistence that the United States pays no ransom. This country ought not to submit to blackmail. Ransom is submission. The Russians are showing the world that we are cowardly.

The reporter, William N. Oatis, remains in a vile Czech jail, a suffering and tortured American, accused of espionage. Oatis was no spy. He sought the news, as American reporters seek the news, unslanted, uncensored, truthful. For that he was called a spy, brutally tortured, and remains in prison, rotting his young life away.

Now four American fliers who lost their way are imprisoned in Hungary and have been tried as spies. It is the same pattern. Whoever travels behind the Iron Curtain, uninvited, is to be killed, lest what he has witnessed be made known to the world. Not human life but the Iron Curtain is to be inviolate.

One can point to our revulsion even to the accusation of espionage. It took 11 years to convict Alger Hiss. He was given two public jury trials, a grand jury and a House Committee on Un-American Activities investigation. The atom bomb spies were given every opportunity to defend themselves and for appeal. Judith Coplon is still free. The criminal conspiracy of the Communist leaders, investigated by the House Committee on Un-American Activities since 1937, was finally exposed and the guilty punished in one of the longest trials in history. And so it goes in a free land, where we seek to avoid punishing a man for the reprehensible crime of espionage. When he is found guilty here, there can be no question of a fair, open trial in accordance with the protectives of our Constitution.

It is possible to say that the FBI should pick up every Russian spy in this country. There are plenty of them here, particularly so-called diplomats assigned to the United Nations. Many of them belong to the satellite nations and are delegated to the United Nations only to do the work of spies among us. Their presence is known and could easily be investigated by the McCarran committee without the slightest regard to the State Department, diplomatic immunity or diplomatic courtesy. There is no reason why the United States should tolerate spies in this country even if they bear diplomatic passports.

Retaliation of that sort would quickly teach the Russians not to treat lightly the liberty and life of an American citizen. There are so many of their agents in this land and they are roaming among us freely.

(Continued on Page Eleven)

It is estimated that 45 per cent of the population reads no books. But there is always the weather to talk about.

LAFF-A-DAY

"It's probably something I ate."

DIET AND HEALTH

Modern Surgery Offers Hope For Cancer of the Esophagus

By HERMAN M. BUNDESEN, M.D.

THE tube that carries food from the throat to the stomach is called the esophagus. This passage is one of the places frequently attacked by cancer. According to statistics, about five men to every woman in this country have cancer of the esophagus. Until recently, there was no known way of helping people with cancer of the esophagus, but now there is new hope for such patients as surgeons have developed safe and effective methods of handling this disease. Today, thanks to modern surgery, a person with this type of cancer stands an excellent chance of cure if treated early enough.

Early Warning

Difficulty in swallowing is one of the early warnings of cancer of the esophagus. At first, the person finds it hard to swallow foods such as hard rolls, raw celery, carrots and meat. Together with this difficulty, he often has a feeling of pain or discomfort in the chest. He usually turns to a soft or liquid diet to avoid the discomfort in swallowing.

It sometimes happens that the difficulty in swallowing improves for short periods, and the person is led to believe the trouble is growing better or has left him. The difficulty returns, however, and grows worse. As it persists, the person noticeably loses weight. Sometimes, if the cancer is high up in the esophagus, the voice may sound hoarse, or there may be a bell-like cough. This is due to pressure on the nerves of the larynx, or "voice-box."

Anyone with persistent difficulty in swallowing should consult his physician as soon as possible. By the use of X-rays, the doctor can readily detect the cancer if it is present. The patient is fed a liquid containing barium, a substance that blocks X-rays and makes it possible for the doctor to watch the liquid as it passes from mouth to stomach. If a growth is present in the esophagus, the X-ray picture clearly shows that the barium does not have free passage into the stomach.

(Copyright, 1951, King Features Syndicate, Inc.)

Treated By Surgery

Many cancers of the esophagus are now being treated by surgery, with very good results. Operations are being performed in which the cancerous portion of the esophagus is removed, and the stomach brought up into the chest where it is connected directly to the remaining portion of the esophagus. Some surgeons are also using a new plastic tube to replace the esophagus after it is removed.

Cancer of the esophagus is thus another disease in which many who were formerly doomed are now being cured. However, it is important for a person to consult his physician as soon as he notices any of the symptoms I have described—especially the early ones. Don't wait until pain and discomfort force you to see your doctor.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

I. P. B.: I had rheumatic fever when I was eight years old. I am now 20. I have been running a low-grade fever for the past two weeks. I have occasional chills. What would you advise?

Answer: It might be best for you to have a complete physical examination by your physician. You may have a recurrence of rheumatic fever, or you may have an infection of one of the valves of the heart, which may prove very dangerous if not taken care of immediately.

Looking Back In Pickaway County

FIVE YEARS AGO

Dr. and Mrs. J. J. Rooney, East Union street, celebrated their 54th wedding anniversary, Christmas Day.

Miss Kathleen Hinton of Tucson, Ariz., is spending the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Hinton, Pickaway Township.

Mrs. Mary M. Jones, whose Park Place home was badly damaged by fire several weeks ago, was admitted to Berger hospital Thursday for medical treatment.

TEN YEARS AGO

Two hundred couples attended the annual Mistletoe Charity Ball, Friday in Memorial Hall.

Philip Moore and David Jackson, have been pledged to Ohio State university chapter of Scabbard and Blade, honorary military society.

Dr. E. L. Montgomery has returned to Camp Shelby, Miss., after spending the holidays with Mrs. Montgomery and children.

By HAL BOYLE

A Soviet historian will announce in Pravda that a Russian scientist first invented the common cold. He will explain that is why most Russian names end with a sneeze.

Inflation will force the five percenters to become ten percenters.

A monument will be erected to a congressman who returns from Europe without any inside information as to Gen. Eisenhower's plans.

And who's going to be elected President in November? To this query the crystal ball replied:

"I will predict flatly only that his wife will not appear at the inauguration ceremony in a mink coat."

Twenty-five years ago the fire department was called out last night to extinguish a blaze in the home of Robert Zwickler, corner of Elm avenue and Corwin street.

Frank Fuller of East Mound street was struck by a passing car near Ritt's Crossing.

Miss Mercedes Mason has returned to Chicago after spending the holidays at home.

You're Telling Me!

By William Ritt
Central Press Writer

In order that TV programs may be sent around the world, it's suggested that television impulses be bounced off the moon. The lady that's known as Luna may be in for a surprise.

Report that croquet may be added to the Olympic Games sports events has Grandpappy Jenkins indulging in a little secret practice.

The national capital, insists a GOP pal, is not only where the government sits but what it also spends.

Today's Fable: Once upon a time there was a family of kids who didn't insist that Pop buy a Christmas tree taller than the living room ceiling was high.

Betcha Dollar Dier says he's still looking for a sure winner—a race horse that's scared of all the other nags.

Then there was the musician who was always pulling strings but didn't get anywhere. Played a harp, it seems.

The Air Force, says a news item, has an electronic brain that can play chess or direct traffic. How good is it at solving crossword puzzles?

SYNOPSIS
Returning to the Manor at Crestwood after four years absence at college, Anne Atwood, the Parson's daughter, is highly discontent. She yearns for an unconventional life, a touch of gaiety, luxury, ease. Joe Melick, the town's rich show-off bachelor, has already tried to woo Anne, but she is not the type easily won by a girl's trust. She has met Donald Kent, a newly appointed teacher at the Crestwood high school, and while he, too, tries to court her, Anne discourages his attentions because she loathes his pretentious teaching profession.

CHAPTER SEVEN

"DO YOU think now would be a good time to visit our new neighbors?" Barth asked.

"I think so, yes," Constance replied. "They're just sitting out there under their wisteria vine reading the Sunday paper."

The Parson glanced down at his black gown which he was carrying over his arm on his way up the driveway to the Manor from the morning service. He was filled with a benign contentment over the hour just passed. Anne may not have been present with her mother, but he was not worried about her. He knew her filial loyalty to him and her strong sense of duty. The phase through which she was passing was natural. If it should create temporarily a little adverse comment, he believed he could handle it. He did not think it would be a serious matter. He trusted his congregation as well as he trusted his daughter. Standing above them this morning, he had felt flowing between him and them a strong, invisible tide of great and deep affection. They trusted him, too, he thought now. It was a beautiful feeling for a beautiful summer morning.

"I wouldn't want them to think I was drumming up trade," he said, lowering his voice.

"Oh, well, I don't believe—"

"I mean to say I don't want my appearance at this moment to seem like a reproof to them. After all, they may belong to another church."

"Just the same, we'd better go now," Constance decided. "They've been here nearly a week and we've seen them friendly if we don't. I only wish Anne were with us," she added, thinking of Donald. Anne had not been nice to Donald, and he was really a fine young man.

"We'll have to let Anne alone," the Parson returned. "We can't put any pressure on her at all. For anything," he added pointedly.

"I know," Constance said, "but when people say—and everybody said it this morning—'Where's Anne?' thought she was home, what am I going to answer?"

"Answer, 'She is, and stop there. Our whole congregation exercises freedom of choice about attending services. Why shouldn't she?'"

Constance made no reply. Barth was proving a great deal more tolerant in his acceptance of Anne's attitude than she had anticipated.

Copyright, 1951, by Alice Ross Colver. Distributed by King Features Syndicate.

TODAY'S GRAB BAG

THE ANSWER, QUICK!

1. Who was Croesus?
2. Where did Benedict Arnold commit treason?
3. How many dozen are there in a gross?
4. What college was the alma mater of Henry W. Longfellow?
5. What state does Senator Ernest W. McFarland represent in Congress?

IT'S BEEN SAID

Put not your trust in money, but put your money in trust.—Oliver Wendell Holmes.

WATCH YOUR LANGUAGE

CIRCUMVENT—(circum-VENT)—verb transitive; to surround, as by craft or stratagem, especially to entrap; to gain advantage over by stratagem or deception; to delude; to go round. Origin: Latin—Circumventus, past participle derivative of Circum plus venire, to come.

YOUR FUTURE

It's a good time for producing new methods or improving old ones that have served you well. Work out details by yourself and good fortune is likely to follow. A stalwart character is predicted for a child born today.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY

Birthday greetings go today to Louis Bromfield, author and columnist; Oscar Levant, pianist; Actress Marlene Dietrich, and Sydney Greenstreet, motion picture actor.

FOLKS OF FAME—GUESS THE NAME

1—This president of a motion picture company was born in San Francisco, Cal. July 11, 1894. He was first producer of plays in London and New York, then executive producer of a Hollywood motion picture studio, then shifted to another. To mention just a few of the pictures he has produced are Queen Christina, Gabriel Over the White House, The Bitter Tea of General Yen, Washington Merry-go-Round, The President Vanishes, Private Worlds, Shanghai Trail, The Lone Pine, Algiers, Foreign Correspondent, Salome, Where She Danced, etc. Joan of Arc with Ingrid Bergman and Tulsa were later. His wife is Joan Bennett, film star. Who is he?

2—This British business leader and politician was born as Frederick James Marquis Aug. 24, 1883. After graduating from Manchester grammar school, he attended Manchester university, where he received his Bachelor of Science degree in 1906 and his

Master of Arts in 1912. He was married in the latter year and has two children. Government service beckoned him in 1939, opening year of World War II, when he became honorary adviser to the secretary of state for war. He subsequently served as minister of food, minister of reconstruction and lord president of the council. From 1943 to 1945, he was a member of Prime Minister Winston Churchill's war cabinet. When the Conservatives were returned to office in the fall of 1951, this former cabinet member returned to his post as lord president of the council. In addition to his political interests, he is a director of numerous British corporations. Perhaps you can name him by his title as First Baron of Liverpool.

IT HAPPENED TODAY

1800—Louis Pasteur, French biologist, born. 1941—In World War II, Japanese bombed Manila. 1945—Big Three foreign ministers, Viacheslav Molotov, Russia; Ernest Bevin, Great Britain, and James A. Byrnes, United States, adjourned conference in Moscow after agreeing on Atom Energy Commission for United Nations.

HOW'D YOU MAKE OUT?

1. A fabulously rich king of Lydia in 560 B.C.
2. At West Point, N.Y.
3. Twelve.
4. Bowdoin college, Brunswick, Me.
5. Arizona.

scrap metal purchased from outside the industry.

The world ski jumping record in 1887 was 37 feet. The present record is better than 350 feet.

The United States had 18,351 motion picture theaters in 1949. Europe had 52,344.

The Parthenon at Athens, Greece, was completed in 438 B.C.

There are approximately 700 private schools in the United States.

There are some 3,650 iron lungs in the United States.

The eye is 16 times more sensitive than the ear.

The original structures in Moscow's Kremlin were built by two Italians between 1485 and 1495.

Factographs

The surrealism movement was founded in Paris in 1924.

The positions of the stars are commonly computed from a point in the sky known as the vernal equinox.

Korea's mean temperature is 75 degrees in Summer, 33 degrees in Winter.

The libraries of Western Reserve university in Cleveland own 635,000 volumes.

In 1950 the American steel industry used daily nearly 70,000 tons of

:—: Social Happenings - Personals - News Of Interest To Women :—:

Gay Holiday Festivities Climaxed With Annual Kiwanis Mistletoe Ball

Welfare Program To Get Funds

Approximately 500 dancers attended the annual Mistletoe Ball held Wednesday night in Fairgrounds Coliseum and had so much fun that they "persuaded" Ned Mapes and his orchestra to stay overtime, prolonging the merry-making past the scheduled hour of 1 a. m.

The Coliseum was beautifully decorated for the highlight of the social season, in red and green streamers with sprays of the traditional mistletoe hanging over the dancers.

Long tables were placed around the hall for those who wished to "sit-out" a dance or two and listen to the orchestra which is so popular with the social set in Circleville.

Most of the couples were in formal attire, complete with corsages and evening wraps, but others attended without "dressing-up" and seemed to have just as much fun. The merrymakers expressed delight with the music provided by Mapes and his crew of specialty singers and entertainers.

Circleville Kiwanis Club sponsors the Ball as an annual affair to raise funds for the club's child welfare program which includes aid to underprivileged children, to the physically handicapped, vocational guidance and Key Clubs—junior Kiwanis clubs which are being planned for youth in the County school system.

Funds for the Summer playground program at Ted Lewis Park are received from the Ball. Future plans of the local Kiwanians call for a vocational guidance program in the local high school which will include speakers and visits to local industries in order to assist the students in selecting their vocations.

Both large and small parties were given before and after the dance for Circleville folk and many other guests from out-of-town.

Hedges Chapel Group Entertains With Yule Party

Children of Pickaway County Home were guests of Methodist Youth Fellowship and Woman's Society of Christian Service of Hedges Chapel church at a party given Friday evening in Walnut Township school.

Following a covered dish dinner, members of MYF and boys and girls from the Home participated. A film, "Christmas Around the World," was shown and a recording of Dickens Christmas story was enjoyed.

Games were played and several gifts were presented to each guest by Fellowship members.

EUB Fidelis Chorus Feted By Director

December meeting of Fidelis chorus of First Evangelical United Brethren church met following the Christmas cantata, Sunday evening in the home of the director, Clarence Radcliffe of Northridge Road. Games arranged by the host were played and prizes awarded Miss Leona Wise and David Steele.

A gift exchange was held among the members who presented their director with a gift of appreciation. He in turn presented chorus members with gifts.

Refreshments were served to Mrs. Florence Noggle, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Nau, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel P. Nau, Edward J. Nau, the Rev. and Mrs. Carl L. Wilson, Nancy Ankrom, Jane Davis, Janet Eccard, Marilyn Francis, Patty Graham, Elliott Hawkes, Phyllis Hawkes, Judson Kochensperger, Mae Elizabeth Martin, Delores Davis, Marsha Morgan, Pat Nau, David Steele, Ruth Styers, Delores Valentine, Sandra Valentine, Fern Wise, Leona Wise, Velma Wise and Virginia Wise.

Christmas Breakfast Held

Mrs. Leslie Pontius of West High street entertained with several guests with breakfast Christmas morning in her home.

Each guest was presented with a gift by the hostess which were unwrapped following the breakfast.

Mrs. Pontius' guests were Mr. and Mrs. Paul White, Mr. and Mrs. Orville West and daughter, Jeanette, Miss Ella Crum and Miss Mattie Crum.

50th Anniversary Open House Set

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Delong of Tarlton will celebrate their 50th wedding anniversary New Years Day.

There will be hosts at an Open House between the hours of 2 and 5 p. m. Mr. and Mrs. Delong are the parents of four children and six grandchildren.

Dinner Meeting Held By Guild

Members of Berger Hospital Guild 20 met Thursday evening in Jackson Township school cafeteria for a covered dish dinner.

Following dinner, approximately 50 reassembled in the school auditorium for the annual Christmas program by pupils in the school.

Riffle-Cassell Rites Are Read In New Home

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Riffle of East High street have announced the marriage of their daughter, Doris Cathleen and Joseph Cassell III of Columbus.

The rites were read by the Rev. Robert Weaver of Circleville First Methodist church at 2:30 p. m. Dec. 22, in their new home, 801 South Warren avenue, Columbus.

Miss Betty Riffle attended her sister and best man was a brother of the bridegroom, Robert Cassell, also of Columbus.

Witnessing the ceremony were Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Cassell Jr.; Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Cassell; Mrs. Robert Cassell, all of Columbus; Mr. and Mrs. Carl Riffle of Circleville and Mr. and Mrs. James Alexander of Ashville.

Robert Brehmers Entertain With Buffet Supper

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Brehmer of Atwater avenue entertained Christmas Eve with a buffet supper in their home.

Guests at the family gathering were Mr. and Mrs. William Lutz of Columbus, Miss Emily Lutz of Ohio State university, Miss Evelyn Lutz of Akron and Mrs. C. T. Hott of East Mound street.

Birthday Dinner Honors Daughter

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Fosnaugh, 558 East Mound street, were hosts to a birthday dinner recently honoring their daughter Bonnie on her fifth birthday.

Those invited were: Mr. and Mrs. Elma Fosnaugh and Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Courtright of Stoutsville; Mr. and Mrs. Richard Drum and daughter Teresa of near Tarlton and Mr. and Mrs. Trenton Kern and sons Keith and Rex of Lancaster.

Personals

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Brizius of Newburgh, Ind., are holiday guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Blum of Watt street. The former Miss Ruth Blum, who has given several piano concerts in Circleville, is teaching piano in Evansville City college. They expect to return New Years Day.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Helvering of East Main street are leaving Friday morning for a month's vacation in Fort Myers, Fla.

Mr. and Mrs. John Meyer and son, Robert of Brookville, were holiday guests of Mrs. Ralph Heffner, Saltcreek Township.

Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Caldwell had as guests on Christmas Day the following members of their family: Dr. and Mrs. W. W. Renner and daughter, Carol Anne of Zanesville; Mr. and Mrs. Henry G. Caldwell and daughters, Susan and Kathleen of Chillicothe; Mr. and Mrs. Chester B. Hawley and children, Lynn Anne, Phil and Brent and Mrs. Henry Gerke, all of Columbus.

Seaman and Mrs. Norman Kuhn and son, Robert David of Columbus are spending a two-week vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kuhn of North Washington street. Seaman Kuhn has recently returned from seven months duty in Korean waters.

First Evangelical United Brethren Shining Light Sunday school class, will hold its Christmas party and gift exchange at 7:30 p. m. Friday, in the home of Mrs. Cora Coffland, East Main street.

Mr. and Mrs. Ross Hamilton of Spring Hollow Road had as house guests from Sunday until Wednesday: Mrs. Ed Rodeheffer of New Knoxville; Miss Naomi Rodeheffer of Detroit, Mich.; John Rodeheffer of Columbus and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Calebaugh and children, Connie, Jeff and Steve of Cincinnati. For Christmas dinner, Mr. and

Mrs. Glenn Hamilton of Watt street were also present.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Groce of East Main street had as dinner guests Christmas Day, Mr. and Mrs. James L. Groce and daughters, Diana and Suzanne of Groveport; J. O. Groce of Columbus and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Radcliffe and Miss Clara Lathouse of Circleville. Afternoon callers in the Groce home were Mrs. Roy Graves of Columbus and Miss Minnie Newton of East Main street.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Fosnaugh and daughter, Bonnie of East Mound street were Christmas guests of Mr. and Mrs. Elma Fosnaugh of Stoutsville.

Mrs. Ida Warner and Melvin Warner of Circleville, were Christmas guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Fetheroff of Stoutsville.

The Rev. and Mrs. Doyle Clay of South Pickaway street were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Williams of Stoutsville.

Mrs. Edna Hinton of near Circleville was a Sunday visitor of her mother, Mrs. N. F. Valentine of Stoutsville.

Miss Charlotte McConnell, a student in Circleville high school who is making her home with Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Robinson of Circleville Route 3, spent the Christmas holiday with her grandfather, Mr. William McConnell and aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. William McConnell Jr., and family of Nelsonville.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie May and Miss Mary Kay May of East Franklin street, returned Tuesday from Mansfield where they were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Donald May and daughters.

When you're using a candy thermometer for holiday sweets always let the thermometer heat up gradually in the syrup. If you plunge it into the boiling syrup you may crack the bulb.

Jackie Smith And Brother Give Holiday Breakfast

Miss Jackie Smith and her brother, J. I. Smith III, home for the holidays from Notre Dame university, entertained with a Christmas breakfast, served after midnight Mass, in the home of their parents, South Court street.

A gay Christmas cloth covered the table which was centered with an arrangement of red and white flowers for the occasion. Breakfast was served to:

Misses Nancy Bowe, Shirley Dunlap, Ruth Norpoth, Marilyn Crawford, Faye Leasure, Patricia Moats and to William Stout, Cliff Bowsler, Robert Schuster of the state of Washington, Roy Huffer,

Lad Is Honored On 5th Birthday

Mr. and Mrs. I. N. McFarland Jr., of Circleville Route 2 honored their son, David, recently in their home on his fifth birthday.

Refreshments were served in the dining room at a table which was decorated in keeping with the Christmas season and gifts were presented to the honored guest by the following:

Mr. and Mrs. I. N. McFarland; Miss Ruth Wright; Mr. and Mrs. Robert McFarland, son Ronnie; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Sabine and children, Audrey and Tommie and Louis McFarland, all of Circleville.

Miss Jane Porter of Chillicothe, the hosts and their two children, Daniel and Donna of the home; Mr. and Mrs. Clark McFarland and children, Joan, Louis and Clarkie.

Kingston Girl To Study In Mexico City

Miss Mary A. Gardner, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. J. P. Gardner, Kingston, is among 63 Ohio State university students who will study at Mexico City college during the Winter quarter. Miss Gardner accompanied by a friend left today by motor, according to her brother, Dr. Richard S. Gardner, a Chillicothe physician.

Beginning Jan. 3, the group will take courses to supplement their regular college studies. The 11-week study program runs through March 19.

Besides the Ohio State group, nine other students are enrolled: eight from Baldwin Wallace, and one from the University of Minnesota. Many of the students also will take a special tour by bus on their trip to the Mexican capital, leaving Thursday.

Miss Gardner, a veteran officer of the Marine Women Reservists, has been attending Ohio State for a year. Following her discharge from the Marines she was for three years with the State department as a special service employee in Austria.

St. Paul WSWS Books Meeting

The Woman's Society of World Service of St. Paul EUB church, Washington Township, will hold its annual Christmas party at 1:30 p. m. Thursday with Mrs. Arnold Ettenhofer of Stoutsville.

"Silent Sister" name, will be revealed and members are asked to bring box lunches.

BIG REWARDS
in MONEY-SAVING VALUES

Sauerkraut	2 No. 2 1/2 Cans	25c
Soap Powders	All Brands	29c
Gold Medal Flour	5 lbs.	49c
Toilet Tissue	Fort Howard	2 for 19c
Pork Roast	lb.	49c
Smoked Calas	lb.	35c
Pork Roast	lb.	49c
Sliced Bacon	lb.	43c
Jowl	lb.	19c

GREETINGS TO 1952

CLOSED ALL DAY NEW YEAR'S

GLITT'S
ICE CREAM

640 S. COURT ST.

And greetings, too, to our many friends and customers who have made the past year so pleasant for us! May we wish you the best of everything!

SHARFF'S ANNUAL JANUARY CLEARANCE

of
FALL AND WINTER
Coats, Suits, Dresses and Accessories

CASUAL, FUR TRIM, ZIP LINED

COATS
Originally To $69.95
$28.00 $38.00
Broken Sizes From 7 to 22 1/2 Are Included
All Coats Are From Our Regular Stock

SKIRTS
Flannels, Gabardines, Cords
$4.00
Values To $8.98

ROBES
Now
$8.00
Luxurious House Coats
Broken Sizes and Colors

FALL AND WINTER DRESSES
ORIGINALLY TO $19.98
$5.00 $7.00 $9.00
SIZES 7 TO 17, 10 TO 20 AND 12 1/2 TO 22 1/2

BLOUSES
Originally To $5.98
$2.00
Crepes, Failles and Prints

MILLINERY
Values To $12.50
1/2 Price
Original Styles By Gage and Digby

ODDS 'N' ENDS
Slightly soiled, shop worn odd 'n' ends of sweaters, gloves, slips, scarfs, gowns, umbrellas, etc.
REDUCED 1/2 or MORE
Save at this bargain counter.

SHOP EARLY

Sharff's
WOMEN'S APPAREL

ALL SALES FINAL

PENNEY'S
ALWAYS FIRST QUALITY!

NEW as '52

fresh Spring DRESSES
yes... in your size $5

Nothing old or stale here! They're spanking-new dresses that look ahead to Spring... in most-wanted fabrics... in a wide choice of smart styles... Spring's newest colors. Misses', women's, junior, half sizes!

Labels on dresses: MENSWEAR RAYONS, BUTCHER WEAVE RAYONS, ACETATE RAYON CREPE PRINTS, WOVEN COTTON GINGHAMS

:—: Social Happenings - Personals - News Of Interest To Women :—:

Gay Holiday Festivities Climaxed With Annual Kiwanis Mistletoe Ball

Welfare Program To Get Funds

Approximately 500 dancers attended the annual Mistletoe Ball held Wednesday night in Fairgrounds Coliseum and had so much fun that they "persuaded" Ned Mapes and his orchestra to stay overtime, prolonging the merry-making past the scheduled hour of 1 a. m.

The Coliseum was beautifully decorated for the highlight of the social season, in red and green streamers with sprays of the traditional mistletoe hanging over the dancers.

Long tables were placed around the hall for those who wished to "sit-out" a dance or two and listen to the orchestra which is so popular with the social set in Circleville.

Most of the couples were in formal attire, complete with corsages and evening wraps, but others attended without "dressing-up" and seemed to have just as much fun. The merry-makers expressed delight with the music provided by Mapes and his crew of specialty singers and entertainers.

Circleville Kiwanis Club sponsors the Ball as an annual affair to raise funds for the club's child welfare program which includes aid to underprivileged children, to the physically handicapped, vocational guidance and Key Clubs—junior Kiwanis clubs which are being planned for youth in the County school system.

Funds for the Summer playground program at Ted Lewis Park are received from the Ball. Future plans of the local Kiwanians call for a vocational guidance program in the local high school which will include speakers and visits to local industries in order to assist the students in selecting their vocations.

Both large and small parties were given before and after the dance for Circleville folk and many other guests from out-of-town.

Hedges Chapel Group Entertains With Yule Party

Children of Pickaway County Home were guests of Methodist Youth Fellowship and Woman's Society of Christian Service of Hedges Chapel church at a party given Friday evening in Walnut Township school.

Following a covered dish dinner, members of MYF and boys and girls from the Home participating. A film, "Christmas Around the World," was shown and a recording of Dickens Christmas story was enjoyed.

Games were played and several gifts were presented to each guest by Fellowship members.

EUB Fidelis Chorus Feted By Director

December meeting of Fidelis chorus of First Evangelical United Brethren church met following the Christmas cantata, Sunday evening in the home of the director, Clarence Radcliffe of Northridge Road. Games arranged by the host were played and prizes awarded Miss Leona Wise and David Steele.

A gift exchange was held among the members who presented their director with a gift of appreciation. He in turn presented chorus members with gifts.

Refreshments were served to Mrs. Florence Noggle, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Nau, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel P. Nau, Edward J. Nau, the Rev. and Mrs. Carl L. Wilson, Nancy Ankrom, Jane Davis, Janet Eccard, Marilyn Francis, Patty Graham, Elliott Hawkes, Phyllis Hawkes, Judson Kochensperger, Mae Elizabeth Martin, Delores Mavis, Marsha Morgan, Pat Nau, David Steele, Ruth Styers, Delores Valentine, Sandra Valentine, Fern Wise, Leona Wise, Velma Wise and Virginia Wise.

Christmas Breakfast Held

Mrs. Leslie Pontius of West High street entertained with several guests with breakfast Christmas morning in her home.

Each guest was presented with a gift by the hostess which were unwrapped following the breakfast. Mrs. Pontius' guests were Mr. and Mrs. Paul White, Mr. and Mrs. Orville West and daughter, Jeanette, Miss Ella Crum and Miss Mattie Crum.

50th Anniversary Open House Set

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Delong of Tarlton will celebrate their 50th wedding anniversary New Years Day.

There will be hosts at an Open House between the hours of 2 and 5 p. m.

Mr. and Mrs. Delong are the parents of four children and six grandchildren.

Dinner Meeting Held By Guild

Members of Berger Hospital Guild 20, met Thursday evening in Jackson Township school cafeteria for a covered dish dinner.

Following dinner, approximately 50 reassembled in the school auditorium for the annual Christmas program by pupils in the school.

Riffle-Cassell Rites Are Read In New Home

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Riffle of East High street have announced the marriage of their daughter, Doris Cathleen and Joseph Cassell III of Columbus.

The rites were read by the Rev. Robert Weaver of Circleville First Methodist church at 2:30 p. m. Dec. 22, in their new home, 801 South Warren avenue, Columbus.

Miss Betty Riffle attended her sister and best man was a brother of the bridegroom, Robert Cassell, also of Columbus.

Witnessing the ceremony were Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Cassell Jr.; Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Cassell; Mrs. Robert Cassell, all of Columbus; Mr. and Mrs. Carl Riffle of Circleville and Mr. and Mrs. James Alexander of Ashville.

Robert Brehmers Entertain With Buffet Supper

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Brehmer of Atwater avenue entertained Christmas Eve with a buffet supper in their home.

Guests at the family gathering were Mr. and Mrs. William Lutz of Columbus, Miss Emily Lutz of Ohio State university, Miss Evelyn Lutz of Akron and Mrs. C. T. Hott of East Mound street.

Birthday Dinner Honors Daughter

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Fosnaugh, 558 East Mound street, were hosts to a birthday dinner recently honoring their daughter Bonnie on her fifth birthday.

Those invited were: Mr. and Mrs. Elma Fosnaugh and Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Courtright of Stoutsville; Mr. and Mrs. Richard Drum and daughter Teresa of near Tarlton and Mr. and Mrs. Trenton Kern and sons Keith and Rex of Lancaster.

Personals

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Brizius of Newburgh, Ind., are holiday guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Blum of Watt street. The former Miss Ruth Blum, who has given several piano concerts in Circleville, is teaching piano in Evansville City college. They expect to return New Years Day.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Helvering of East Main street are leaving Friday morning for a month's vacation in Fort Myers, Fla.

Mr. and Mrs. John Meyer and son, Robert of Brookville, were holiday guests of Mrs. Ralph Heffner, Saltcreek Township.

Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Caldwell had as guests on Christmas Day the following members of their family: Dr. and Mrs. W. W. Renner and daughter, Carol Anne of Zanesville; Mr. and Mrs. Henry G. Caldwell and daughters, Susan and Kathleen of Chillicothe; Mr. and Mrs. Chester B. Hawley and children, Lynn Anne, Phil and Brent and Mrs. Henry Gerke, all of Columbus.

Seaman and Mrs. Norman Kuhn and son, Robert David of Columbus are spending a two-week vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kuhn of North Washington street. Seaman Kuhn has recently returned from seven months duty in Korean waters.

First Evangelical United Brethren Shining Light Sunday school class, will hold its Christmas party and gift exchange at 7:30 p. m. Friday, in the home of Mrs. Cora Coffland, East Main street.

Mr. and Mrs. Ross Hamilton of Spring Hollow Road had as house guests from Sunday until Wednesday: Mrs. Ed Rodeheffer of New Knoxville; Miss Naomi Rodeheffer of Detroit, Mich.; John Rodeheffer of Columbus and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Calebaugh and children, Connie, Jeff and Steve of Cincinnati. For Christmas dinner, Mr. and

Mrs. Glenn Hamilton of Watt street were also present.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Groce of East Main street had as dinner guests Christmas Day, Mr. and Mrs. James L. Groce and daughters, Diana and Suzanne of Groveport; J. O. Groce of Columbus and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Radcliffe and Miss Clara Lathouse of Circleville. Afternoon callers in the Groce home were Mrs. Roy Graves of Columbus and Miss Minnie Newton of East Main street.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Fosnaugh and daughter, Bonnie of East Mound street were Christmas guests of Mr. and Mrs. Elma Fosnaugh of Stoutsville.

Mrs. Ida Warner and Melvin Warner of Circleville, were Christmas guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Fetheroff of Stoutsville.

The Rev. and Mrs. Doyle Clay of South Pickaway street were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Williams of Stoutsville.

Mrs. Edna Hinton of near Circleville was a Sunday visitor of her mother, Mrs. N. F. Valentine of Stoutsville.

Miss Charlotte McConnell, a student in Circleville high school who is making her home with Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Robinson of Circleville Route 3, spent the Christmas holiday with her grandfather, Mr. William McConnell and aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. William McConnell Jr., and family of Nelsonville.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie May and Miss Mary Kay May of East Franklin street, returned Tuesday from Mansfield where they were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Donald May and daughters.

When you're using a candy thermometer for holiday sweets always let the thermometer heat up gradually in the syrup. If you plunge it into the boiling syrup you may crack the bulb.

Jackie Smith And Brother Give Holiday Breakfast

Miss Jackie Smith and her brother, J. I. Smith III, home for the holidays from Notre Dame university, entertained with a Christmas breakfast, served after midnight Mass, in the home of their parents, South Court street.

A gay Christmas cloth covered the table which was centered with an arrangement of red and white flowers for the occasion. Breakfast was served to:

Misses Nancy Bower, Shirley Dunlap, Ruth Norpoth, Marilyn Crawford, Faye Leasure, Patricia Moats and to William Stout, Cliff Bowsher, Robert Schuster of the state of Washington, Roy Huffer, Walter Heine, David Crawford, Robert Turner and the host and hostess.

Following breakfast the young couples enjoyed television and listening to recorded music.

Miss Smith and her brother also entertained several couples attending the Mistletoe Ball Wednesday night, with an intermission party in the Smith home.

Saturday evening the Smith home will be the scene of another holiday event when Miss Smith and J. I. Smith III hold open house for their many friends.

Willing Workers Meet In Home

Mrs. Walter Richards of Washington Township was hostess to Willing Workers Class of Pontius Evangelical United Brethren church for the December meeting.

Mrs. Floy Brobst directed the devotional program. The Christmas story was read interspersed with singing of Christmas carols. A candle lighting ceremony was conducted and Mrs. Forrest Croman read, "Ten Commandments for Christmas."

Miss Edwina Holderman was in the chair for the business meeting. Incoming president, Mrs. Nettie McCord appointed committees for 1952.

A gift exchange was held after which refreshments were served by the hostess.

Miss Huldah Leist invited the class to hold its January meeting in her home in Washington Township.

Kingston Girl To Study In Mexico City

Miss Mary A. Gardner, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. J. P. Gardner, Kingston, is among 63 Ohio State university students who will study at Mexico City college during the Winter quarter. Miss Gardner accompanied by a friend left today by motor, according to her brother, Dr. Richard S. Gardner, a Chillicothe physician.

Beginning Jan. 3, the group will take courses to supplement their regular college studies. The 11-week study program runs through March 19.

Besides the Ohio State group, nine other students are enrolled: eight from Baldwin Wallace, and one from the University of Minnesota. Many of the students also will take a special tour by bus on their trip to the Mexican capital, leaving Thursday.

Miss Gardner, a veteran officer of the Marine Women Reservists, has been attending Ohio State for a year. Following her discharge from the Marines she was for three years with the State department as a special service employe in Austria.

St. Paul WSWS Books Meeting

The Woman's Society of World Service of St. Paul EUB church, Washington Township, will hold its annual Christmas party at 1:30 p. m. Thursday with Mrs. Arnold Ettenhofer of Stoutsville.

"Silent Sister" name. will be revealed and members are asked to bring box lunches.

BIG REWARDS
in MONEY-SAVING VALUES

Sauerkraut	2 No. 2 1/2 Cans	25c
Soap Powders	All Brands	1ge. 29c
Gold Medal Flour	5 lbs.	49c
Toilet Tissue	Fort Howard	2 for 19c
Pork Roast	lb.	49c
Smoked Calas	lb.	35c
Pork Roast	lb.	49c
Sliced Bacon	lb.	43c
Jowl	lb.	19c

GREETINGS TO 1952

CLOSED ALL DAY NEW YEAR'S

GLITT'S
ICE CREAM

640 S. COURT ST.

SHARFF'S ANNUAL JANUARY CLEARANCE

of
FALL AND WINTER

Coats, Suits, Dresses and Accessories

CASUAL, FUR TRIM, ZIP LINED

COATS
Originally To $69.95

$28.00 $38.00

Broken Sizes From 7 to 22 1/2 Are Included
All Coats Are From Our Regular Stock

SKIRTS
Flannels, Gabardines, Cords
$4.00
Values To $8.98

ROBES
Now
$8.00
Luxurious House Coats
Broken Sizes and Colors

FALL AND WINTER DRESSES
ORIGINALLY TO $19.98

$5.00 $7.00 $9.00

SIZES 7 TO 17, 10 TO 20 AND 12 1/2 TO 22 1/2

BLOUSES
Originally To $5.98
$2.00
Crepes, Failles and Prints

MILLINERY
Values To $12.50
1/2 Price
Original Styles By Gage and Digby

ODDS 'N' ENDS
Slightly soiled, shop worn odd 'n' ends of sweaters, gloves, slips, scarfs, gowns, umbrellas, etc.
REDUCED 1/2 or MORE
Save at this bargain counter.

SHOP EARLY

Sharff's
WOMEN'S APPAREL

ALL SALES FINAL

PENNEY'S
ALWAYS FIRST QUALITY!

NEW as '52

fresh Spring DRESSES

yes... in your size $5

Nothing old or stale here! They're spanking-new dresses that look ahead to Spring... in most-wanted fabrics... in a wide choice of smart styles... Spring's newest colors. Misses', women's, junior, half sizes!

ACETATE RAYON CREPE PRINTS

MENSWEAR RAYONSI

BUTCHER WEAVE RAYONSI

WOVEN COTTON GINGHAMSI

LAND FRONTIERS GONE

More Fertilization Would Mean Higher Crop Yields

More fertilizer is the only answer to future food demands.

New land frontiers are gone but crop and soil scientists point out higher rates of fertilization would produce crop yields equal to those from vastly expanded acreages.

"Our food surpluses have disappeared," specialists say. "We are down to scant carryovers on many items. Last year we consumed staples at a greater rate than we produced them. Indications are that we will eat more than we grow in 1952."

"In the 12 North Central states alone, say the specialists, 40 pounds of nitrogen an acre with adequate amounts of other plant nutrients would produce an additional 600 million bushels of corn, 200 million bushels of wheat and 400 million bushels of oats."

THAT WOULD be equal to planting 14 million more acres of both corn and wheat and 11 million acres more oats. General use of 40 pounds of phosphoric acid an acre with soybeans would boost production by 42 million bushels, the equivalent of almost 2 million acres at current yield rates.

"Doubling the present average application of phosphoric acid on hay crops would boost yields in the same states by almost 3½ million tons. That would be like adding another million acres of hay land."

"The bottleneck in the plan is insufficient supplies of fertilizer. Phosphoric acid will run far short of needs. The 1952 supply will be curtailed by a sulfur shortage. Ways of producing more sulfur are being studied and nitric acid may be substituted for sulfuric in treating phosphate materials."

"The new nitrogen industry is expanding rapidly and in another year or two will be producing more nitrogen fertilizers than we once thought would be needed."

Stoutsville

Mr. and Mrs. Don Pemberton and children spent Christmas with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Pemberton of Washington C. H.

Rev. and Mrs. Ettenhoffer spent Christmas with his parents of Toledo.

Mr. and Mrs. Loren Hinton and daughters, Terry Jo and Brenda Kaye spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Ross Good.

Mr. and Mrs. Thorla Cannon of near Somerset, spent Monday with Mr. and Mrs. Henry Williams.

Mrs. Irene Gray of Columbus is spending her Christmas vacation with her mother, Mrs. Jennie Stahl and her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Gardner and daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. Clark Aldenderfer of Circleville called on Mr. and Mrs. George Valentine and Mrs. Gertie Marion Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Drake spent Sunday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Drake of Bremen.

Mr. and Mrs. Amos Valentine visited with Mr. and Mrs. Shirley Norman Sunday evening.

Christmas guests of Mr. and Mrs. Elma Fosnaugh were Pfc. James Fosnaugh of Denver, Colo. and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Drum and daughter, Teresa of near Turlington.

Clyde and Vaughn Reichelderfer are home from the service to spend Christmas with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Reichelderfer.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Christy were among the shoppers in Circleville Monday afternoon.

Cpl. Norman Hill is home from service camp in Texas to spend Christmas with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. C. Hill and other relatives and friends.

The Heidelberg E. and R. church will hold their annual business meeting New Year's Eve starting with a cooperative supper at 6:30 p. m. in the church basement.

Christmas Day guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Fetherolf were Mr. and Mrs. Oral Storts and family of Groveport and Miss Rose Leist.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Moore and family and Jack Hamp of Lancaster were Monday night and Christmas Day guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Hamp.

Mr. Clyde returned last week from a trip to Cuba with the Navy and is spending Christmas with his parents Mr. and Mrs. Russell Reichelderfer.

Jack Fausnaugh, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clay Fausnaugh who enlisted in the Air Force, left last week for his basic training in Texas.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Grooms were Christmas guests of her parents Mr. and Mrs. Amos Valentine.

Mr. and Mrs. Percil Bullock of Newark, spent Christmas with their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Calton and family.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Wynkoop spent Sunday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Burns and son, Bob and were the supper guests of Mrs. Leanna Stanton and family all of Lancaster.

Miss Alice Baird spent Sunday afternoon with Mrs. Addie Huston.

Mrs. Edith Fosnaugh and daughter, Mrs. Louise Byers of Columbus were Sunday visitors of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Wynkoop.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Crochran of Columbus are spending their Christmas vacation with Mr. and Mrs. Russ Reichelderfer.

Mrs. Mary Ellen Chapman and Robert Hill, Lancaster were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Hamp.

Mr. and Mrs. Clark Stout are visiting over Christmas with friends in Hamilton.

The Primary department of the Heidelberg E and R church held its annual Christmas party Saturday afternoon in the church basement.

MANY TOURISTS MISS OLD TAVERN IN 'IRISH HILLS'

By A. O. ALDRICH
Central Press Correspondent

DETROIT—Many vacationers come to Michigan every year, see the advertised attractions and return home without visiting one of the best of its kind in the nation. It is the old Walker Tavern, built in 1832 in the heart of the "Irish Hills" where Detroit-to-Chicago Route 112 crosses Route 50 at Cambridge Junction.

The Walker Tavern does not have a "restored" look. When the visitor goes through the door he is in an old-time hostelry with everything just as it was in long-gone days when horse and wagon travelers stopped for a night's rest.

James Fenimore Cooper, Daniel Webster and many other famous folks of the time stayed there.

The sitting room, complete with melodeon, stoves of a design no longer seen, ladies' hats on the rack in the hall, are so real visitors feel sure they are in another age.

The old bar and dining room table all set, and the kitchen cannot be described, they're so different from anything today. Narrow stairs take you to upper rooms with high four-poster beds with step stools needed to get into them. Stretched ropes support the tick, and you wonder how anyone ever rested in them.

There are old books on the shelves and some account books with names written in the flowery penmanship of that era.

The beautiful lakes and hills around Walker Tavern are worth a visit, too. Settled by a group of Irish, the region so resembled their own beloved Isle that its name came naturally—"The Irish Hills."

Holiday Food Price Reductions Limited For New Year's Feed

NEW YORK, Dec. 27.—Food shoppers planning menus for the rest of the holidays are likely to find price reductions this week largely restricted to hams—a popular New Year's item—and party snack foods.

Both smoked and fresh hams were reduced about three to four cents a pound to top the advertised specials list of many large chains and independent markets.

Geese also were being featured in some places, and at prices as much as six cents below the Thanksgiving Day levels.

Turkeys generally were being held at prices set just before Christmas. Most other meats along with eggs, butter and the bulk of canned foods were unchanged.

Party snacks and holiday specialties were being heavily promoted, most at slightly lower prices to attract the budget-conscious. On the fresh produce counters, snap beans, carrots, mushrooms and eggplant were lower priced this week, but cabbage, good cauliflower and onions edged a little higher.

SEASONAL specialty note: The first corn-on-the-cob of the winter crop from the Florida Everglades arrived in northern markets, and shipments of fresh strawberries were increasing.

The Agriculture Department stressed prunes and oranges as the week's most plentiful foods for thrifty buying.

Looking to January, the department offered this list of foods to be abundant nationally and hence likely to be comparatively low-priced:

Fresh oranges, tangerines, citrus juices, dried prunes, raisins, pork and frozen products, heavy turkeys, hens, frozen ocean perch fillets, frozen whiting, canned tuna, non-fat dry milk solids, cottage cheese.

Also, dry beans, including navy or pea beans and baby limas, rice, honey, almonds and pecans.

Largest living bird is the ostrich.

Circleville Rexall Drug Store

GOOD HEALTH TO ALL FROM REXALL

148 W. MAIN ST. — 114 N. COURT ST.

Fountain Special

Fried Chicken
French Fries
Cole Slaw
Bread, Butter and Coffee ..... 65¢

GIFT THIS WEEK

Pressure Fryer and Cooker

$16.95 Value — Guaranteed

Everybody Eligible!
Nothing To Buy!

WINNER LAST WEEK

OF POP-UP TOASTER

MISS JOANNE JACOBS
Route No. 1, Circleville

REMEDIES

100
BAYER
ASPIRIN
59c

Alka-Seltzer
8 Tablets..... 29c

Sal Hepatica
Med. Bottle..... 63c

Ex-Lax
Laxative, 18's..... 28c

Nujol Oil
Pint Bottle..... 69c

15 ANALIST
TABLETS
55c

LISTERINE

Antiseptic

14 oz. Bottle..... 79c

NOXZEMA

Skin Cream

85c Jar Now..... 59c

PERTUSSIN

Cough Remedy

4 oz. Bottle..... 57c

Headquarters for Cough & Cold Remedies

Suicide Ends Shooting Spree

CLEVELAND, Dec. 27.—(AP)—Mrs. Eileen Beaird, 24, is in fair condition from a gunshot wound fired by her stepfather who later killed himself.

Her husband—Dewey Beaird, 38—told police the stepfather had previously threatened her while attempting to get her to bring about a reconciliation between the stepfather and Mrs. Beaird's mother, who recently remarried.

The stepfather, Martin Shranko, 65, Wednesday rapped on the door of Mrs. Beaird's apartment, shouted "telegram," and then shot her in the chest with a .32 caliber pistol when she opened the door. Shranko's body later was found in the apartment hallway. Police said he had shot himself.

Mass Settlement To Be Proposed

CLEVELAND, Dec. 27.—(AP)—Attorneys will propose mass settlement of $19 million worth of claims in the Noronic ship disaster in federal court next week.

The Cleveland Plain Dealer says attorneys for the company and 75 per cent of the claimants would propose settling all claims for between $2 million and $2.5 million. Under the proposal claimants would share in a settlement on the basis of awards by a special court commissioner.

The Noronic, a pleasure ship owned by Canada Steamship Lines, Ltd., burned at Toronto Sept. 17, 1949, claiming 119 lives.

WCOL Sale OK'd

WASHINGTON, Dec. 27.—(AP)—Secretary of Commerce Charles Sawyer and members of his family have been authorized to buy Radio Stations WCOL and WCOL-FM in Columbus for $100,000. The Sawyer family also owns majority stock in Stations WING, Dayton, and WIZE, Springfield.

The flower, narcissus, derives its name from its narcotic qualities.

CHRYSLER

PLYMOUTH

Sales—Service

PARTS

USED CARS

'WES' EDSTROM
MOTORS
150 E. Main St.

AT A SPECIAL CEREMONY in Washington, Gen. Lemuel C. Shepherd (left) is sworn in as Commandant of the U.S. Marine Corps. Administering the oath is Rear Adm. George Russell (right), Navy Judge Advocate. Looking on is Gen. Clifton B. Cates, former Commandant, who will head the Marine Corps Schools at Quantico, Va. (International)

UP TO 18 MONTHS TO PAY!

LIBERAL TRADE-IN ALLOWANCE

For Your—• Washer • Radio • Phonograph
• Sweeper • Ice Box • Any Range or
Heater, etc., is worth real money if you
trade in now on this

BIG 17-INCH Table Model

With Trade-In Costs You Just $146<sup>95</sup> Plus Federal Tax and Warranty

CUSSINS & FEARN Co.

BUDGET BUYS

KRAUT For New Year's ..... 2 NO. 2½ CANS 25¢

PURE CANE SUGAR Stock Up ..... 5 lb. 49c

GOLD MEDAL FLOUR ..... 5 lb. 49c

Crisco ..... 3 Lb. Tin 95¢

BOSCUL COFFEE Regular or Drip ..... lb. 89c

VELVEETA CHEESE ..... 2 lb. loaf 98c

Slab Bacon—piece ..... lb. 29c

Pork Roast ..... lb. 49c

CABBAGE ..... lb. 5c

BANANAS ..... 2 lbs. 29c

We Will Close New Year's Eve At 6:00 P. M.

OPEN SATURDAY NITE TILL TEN

WARD'S MARKET

COURT and WALNUT STS.

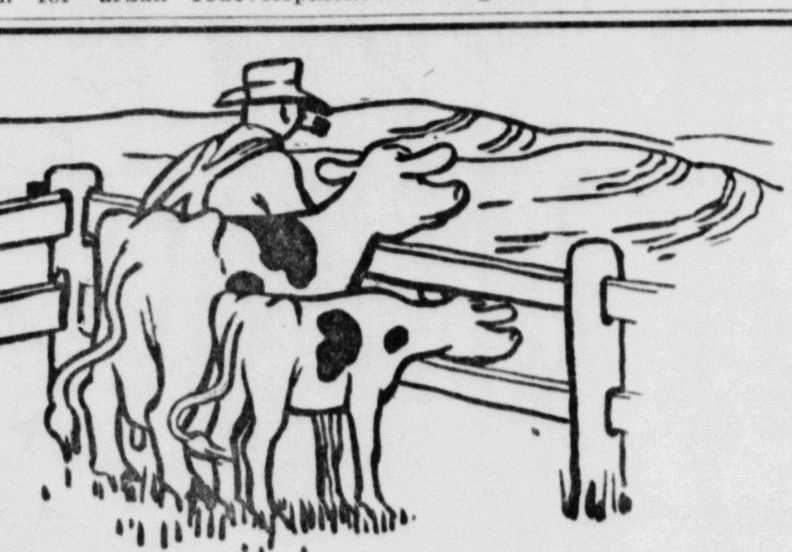

PHONE 577

Study Approved

SPRINGFIELD, Dec. 27.—(AP)—The federal government Wednesday gave $7,235 to Springfield as the first installment on a $26,750 allocation for urban redevelopment study. The money will be used to hire a redevelopment director and to survey sites.

Florida's official state bird is the mockingbird.

Up Out of the Mud

Keeping your Cows out of the mud and under shelter during bad weather will cut your feed costs considerably and will greatly increase your milk production. Provide plenty of water. Stable your Cows during bad weather if no other protection available—

PICKAWAY DAIRY CO-OP

CIRCLEVILLE, OHIO

PHONE 28

LAND FRONTIERS GONE

More Fertilization Would Mean Higher Crop Yields

More fertilizer is the only answer to future food demands.

New land frontiers are gone but crop and soil scientists point out higher rates of fertilization would produce crop yields equal to those from vastly expanded acreages.

"Our food surpluses have disappeared," specialists say. "We are down to scant carryovers on many items. Last year we consumed staples at a greater rate than we produced them. Indications are that we will eat more than we grow in 1952."

"In the 12 North Central states alone, say the specialists, 40 pounds of nitrogen an acre with adequate amounts of other plant nutrients would produce an additional 600 million bushels of corn."

200 million bushels of wheat and 400 million bushels of oats.

THAT WOULD be equal to planting 14 million more acres of both corn and wheat and 11 million acres more oats. General use of 40 pounds of phosphoric acid an acre with soybeans would boost production by 42 million bushels, the equivalent of almost 2 million acres at current yield rates.

"Doubling the present average application of phosphoric acid on hay crops would boost yields in the same states by almost 3 1/2 million tons. That would be like adding another million acres of hay land. "The bottleneck in the plan is insufficient supplies of fertilizer. Phosphoric acid will run far short of needs. The 1952 supply will be curtailed by a sulfur shortage. Ways of producing more sulfur are being studied and nitric acid may be substituted for sulfuric in treating phosphate materials."

"The new nitrogen industry is expanding rapidly and in another year or two will be producing more nitrogen fertilizers than we once thought would be needed."

Stoutsville

Mr. and Mrs. Don Pemberton and children spent Christmas with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Pemberton of Washington C. H.

Rev. and Mrs. Ettenhoffer spent Christmas with his parents of Toledo.

Mr. and Mrs. Loren Hinton and daughters, Terry Jo and Brenda Kaye spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Ross Good.

Mr. and Mrs. Thoria Cannon of near Somerset, spent Monday with Mr. and Mrs. Henry Williams.

Mrs. Irene Gray of Columbus is spending her Christmas vacation with her mother, Mrs. Jennie Stahl and her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Gardner and daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. Clark Aldenderfer of Circleville called on Mr. and Mrs. George Valentine and Mrs. Gertrude Marion Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Drake spent Sunday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Drake of Bremen.

Mr. and Mrs. Amos Valentine visited with Mr. and Mrs. Shirley Norman Sunday evening.

Christmas guests of Mr. and Mrs. Elma Fosnaugh were Pfc. James Fosnaugh of Denver, Colo. and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Drum and daughter, Teresa of near Turlington.

Clyde and Vaughn Reichelderfer are home from the service to spend Christmas with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Reichelderfer.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Christy were among the shoppers in Circleville Monday afternoon.

Cpl. Norman Hill is home from service camp in Texas to spend Christmas with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. C. Hill and other relatives and friends.

The Heidelberg E. and R. church will hold their annual business meeting New Year's Eve starting with a cooperative supper at 6:30 p. m. in the church basement.

Christmas Day guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Fetherolf were Mr. and Mrs. Oral Storts and family of Groveport and Miss Rose Leist.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Moore and family and Jack Hampp of Lancaster were Monday night and Christmas Day guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Hampp.

Mr. Clyde returned last week from a trip to Cuba with the Navy and is spending Christmas with his parents Mr. and Mrs. Russell Reichelderfer.

Jack Fausnaugh, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clay Fausnaugh who enlisted in the Air Force, left last week for his basic training in Texas.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Grooms were Christmas guests of her parents Mr. and Mrs. Amos Valentine.

Mr. and Mrs. Percil Bullock of Newark, spent Christmas with their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Calton and family.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Wynkoop spent Sunday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Burns and son, Bob and were the supper guests of Mrs. Leanna Stanton and family all of Lancaster.

Miss Alice Baird spent Sunday afternoon with Mrs. Addie Huston.

Mrs. Edith Fosnaugh and daughter, Mrs. Louise Byers of Columbus were Sunday visitors of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Wynkoop.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Crochran of Columbus are spending their Christmas vacation with Mr. and Mrs. Russ Reichelderfer.

Mrs. Mary Ellen Chapman and Robert Hill, Lancaster were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Hampp.

Mr. and Mrs. Clark Stout are visiting over Christmas with friends in Hamilton.

The Primary department of the Heidelberg E and R church held its annual Christmas party Saturday afternoon in the church basement.

MANY TOURISTS MISS OLD TAVERN IN 'IRISH HILLS'

By A. O. ALDRICH
Central Press Correspondent
DETROIT—Many vacationers come to Michigan every year, see the advertised attractions and return home without visiting one of the best of its kind in the nation. It is the old Walker Tavern, built in 1832 in the heart of the "Irish Hills" where Detroit-to-Chicago Route 112 crosses Route 50 at Cambridge Junction.

The Walker Tavern does not have a "restored" look. When the visitor goes through the door he is in an old-time hostelry with everything just as it was in long-gone days when horse and wagon travelers stopped for a night's rest.

James Fenimore Cooper, Daniel Webster and many other famous folks of the time stayed there.

The sitting room, complete with melodeon, stoves of a design no longer seen, ladies' hats on the rack in the hall, are so real visitors feel sure they are in another

age. The old bar and dining room table all set, and the kitchen cannot be described, they're so different from anything today. Narrow stairs take you to upper rooms with high four-poster beds with step stools needed to get into them. Stretched ropes support the tick, and you wonder how anyone ever rested in them.

There are old books on the shelves and some account books with names written in the flowery penmanship of that era.

The beautiful lakes and hills around Walker Tavern are worth a visit, too. Settled by a group of Irish, the region so resembled their own beloved Isle that its name came naturally—"The Irish Hills."

Holiday Food Price Reductions Limited For New Year's Feed

NEW YORK, Dec. 27.—Food shoppers planning menus for the rest of the holidays are likely to find price reductions this week largely restricted to hams—a popular New Year's item—and party snack foods.

Both smoked and fresh hams were reduced about three to four cents a pound to top the advertised specials list of many large chains and independent markets.

Geese also were being featured in some places, and at prices as much as six cents below the Thanksgiving Day levels.

Turkeys generally were being held at prices set just before Christmas. Most other meats along with eggs, butter and the bulk of canned foods were unchanged.

Party snacks and holiday specialties were being heavily promoted, most at slightly lower prices to attract the budget-conscious.

On the fresh produce counters, snap beans, carrots, mushrooms and eggplant were lower—priced this week, but cabbage, good cauliflower and onions edged a little higher.

SEASONAL specialty note: The first corn-on-the-cob of the winter crop from the Florida Everglades arrived in northern markets, and shipments of fresh strawberries were increasing.

The Agriculture Department stressed prunes and oranges as the week's most plentiful foods for thrifty buying. Looking to January, the department offered this list of foods to be abundant nationally and hence likely to be comparatively low-priced:

Fresh oranges, tangerines, citrus juices, dried prunes, raisins, pork and pork products, heavy turkeys, hens, frozen ocean perch fillets, frozen whiting, canned tuna, non-fat dry milk solids, cottage cheese. Also, dry beans, including navy or pea beans and baby limas, rice, honey, almonds and pecans.

Largest living bird is the ostrich.

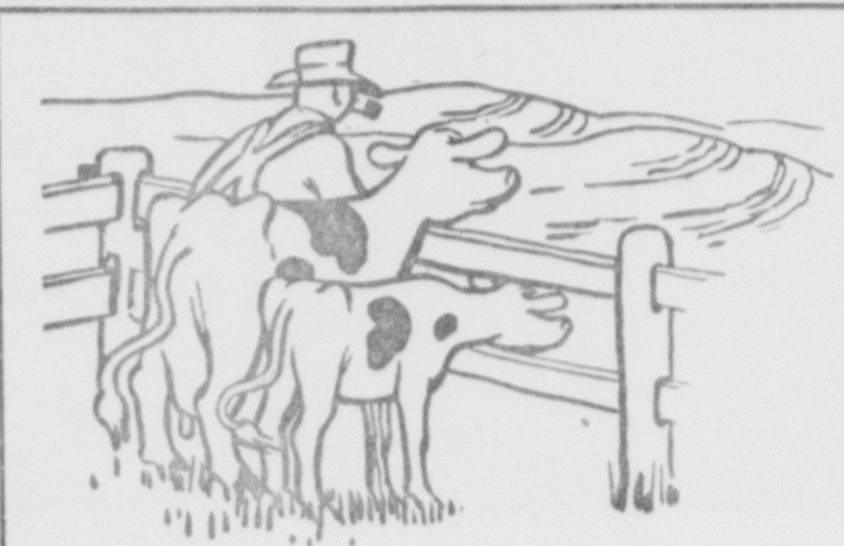

CHIEF ABBOT of the Nishi Honganji Buddhist sect of Japan, Koshu Ohtani, offers a prayer for American war dead at Tomb of the Unknown Soldier in Arlington National cemetery, Washington, after placing a wreath at the tomb. Ohtani represents seven million Japanese Buddhists. (International Soundphoto)

Study Approved

SPRINGFIELD, Dec. 27.—(AP)—The federal government Wednesday gave $7,235 to Springfield as the first installment on a $26,750 allocation for urban redevelopment study. The money will be used to hire a redevelopment director and to survey sites.

Florida's official state bird is the mockingbird.

Up Out of the Mud

Keeping your Cows out of the mud and under shelter during bad weather will cut your feed costs considerably and will greatly increase your milk production. Provide plenty of water. Stable your Cows during bad weather if no other protection available—

PICKAWAY DAIRY CO-OP

CIRCLEVILLE, OHIO

PHONE 28

CIRCLEVILLE Rexall DRUG STORE

GOOD HEALTH TO ALL FROM REXALL

148 W. MAIN ST. — 114 N. COURT ST.

Fountain Special

Fried Chicken
French Fries
Cole Slaw

Bread, Butter and Coffee

65¢

GIFT THIS WEEK

Pressure Fryer and Cooker

$16.95 Value — Guaranteed

Everybody Eligible!
Nothing To Buy!

WINNER LAST WEEK
OF POP-UP TOASTER

MISS JOANNE JACOBS
Route No. 1, Circleville

REMEDIES

100
BAYER
ASPIRIN
59c

Alka-Seltzer 29c

Sal Hepatica 63c

Ex-Lax 28c

Nujol Oil 69c

15 ANALIST
TABLETS
55c

LISTERINE

Antiseptic

14 oz. Bottle 79c

NOXZEMA

Skin Cream

85c Jar Now 59c

PERTUSSIN

Cough Remedy

4 oz. Bottle 57c

Headquarters for Cough & Cold Remedies

Suicide Ends Shooting Spree

CLEVELAND, Dec. 27.—(AP)—Mrs. Eileen Beaird, 24, is in fair condition from a gunshot wound fired by her stepfather who later killed himself.

Her husband—Dewey Beaird, 38—told police the stepfather had previously threatened her while attempting to get her to bring about a reconciliation between the stepfather and Mrs. Beaird's mother, who recently remarried.

The stepfather, Martin Shrunko, 65, Wednesday rapped on the door of Mrs. Beaird's apartment, shouted "telegram," and then shot her in the chest with a .32 caliber pistol when she opened the door. Shrunko's body later was found the apartment hallway. Police said he had shot himself.

Mass Settlement To Be Proposed

CLEVELAND, Dec. 27.—(AP)—Attorneys will propose mass settlement of $19 million worth of claims in the Noronic ship disaster in federal court next week.

The Cleveland Plain Dealer says attorneys for the company and 75 per cent of the claimants would propose settling all claims for between $2 million and $2.5 million. Under the proposal claimants would share in a settlement on the basis of awards by a special court commissioner.

The Noronic, a pleasure ship owned by Canada Steamship Lines, Ltd., burned at Toronto Sept. 17, 1949, claiming 119 lives.

WCOL Sale OKd

WASHINGTON, Dec. 27.—(AP)—Secretary of Commerce Charles Sawyer and members of his family have been authorized to buy Radio Stations WCOL and WCOL-FM in Columbus for $100,000. The Sawyer family also owns majority stock in Stations WING, Dayton, and WIZE, Springfield.

The flower, narcissus, derives its name from its narcotic qualities.

CHRYSLER
PLYMOUTH
Sales—Service
Parts
USED CARS

'WES' EDSTROM
MOTORS
150 E. Main St.

AT A SPECIAL CEREMONY in Washington, Gen. Lemuel C. Shepherd (left) is sworn in as Commandant of the U.S. Marine Corps. Administering the oath is Rear Adm. George Russell (right), Navy Judge Advocate. Looking on is Gen. Clifton B. Cates, former Commandant, who will head the Marine Corps Schools at Quantico, Va. (International)

UP TO 18 MONTHS TO PAY!

LIBERAL TRADE-IN ALLOWANCE

For Your—Washer • Radio • Phonograph
• Sweeper • Ice Box • Any Range or
Heater, etc., is worth real money if you
trade in now on this

BIG 17-INCH Table Model

With Trade-In Costs You Just $146<sup>95</sup>

Plus Federal Tax and Warranty

CUSSINS & FEARN Co.

BUDGET BUYS

KRAUT	For New Years	..... 2	NO. 2 1/2 CANS	25c
PURE CANE SUGAR	Stock Up	.....	5 lb. bag	49c
GOLD MEDAL FLOUR		.....	5 lb. bag	49c
Crisco		..... 3	Lb. Tin	95c
BOSCU COFFEE	Regular or Drip	.....	lb.	89c
VELVEETA CHEESE		..... 2	lb. loaf	98c

Slab Bacon—piece	.... lb.	29c
Pork Roast	.... lb.	49c

CABBAGE	.....	lb.	5c
BANANAS	.....	2 lbs.	29c

We Will Close New Year's Eve At 6:00 P. M.
OPEN SATURDAY NITE TILL TEN

WARD'S MARKET

COURT and WALNUT STS.

PHONE 577

'SPIT IN THIS SPOON, PLEASE'

Saliva Found To Reveal Some Blood Properties

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 26.—(AP)—Instead of pricking your finger to get a sample of blood the doctor may soon be saying: "Spit in this spoon, please."

He will be using the saliva for some tests now made only on blood. These tests were explained to the American Association for the Advancement of Science during its 118th annual meeting here.

The saliva report was made by Dr. Frances Krasnow of the Guggenheim Dental Clinic, New York City. She and associates discovered that saliva contains cholesterol in the same amounts that the chemical appears in your blood.

Cholesterol is a substance common in food, especially in eggs, and it is part of your body's chemical processes. This stuff gets out of order during arthritis and the rheumatic diseases. It is one of the causes—but not the main one—of hardening of the arteries.

SALIVA OF healthy persons contains less cholesterol than that of sick people. The difference, Dr. Krasnow said, is easily measurable. When you have tooth decay or other dental troubles, there is more cholesterol in your saliva. When you have tooth troubles and also are sick, there is the largest amount of saliva cholesterol.

Dr. Krasnow said all this makes the spit a good diagnostic tool. —A new index for the dangers of radioactivity was reported from

RALPH MARINARO JR., 6, of Passaic, N.J., walks out of the Hasbrouck Heights, N.J. Hospital, on his new legs. Ralph, who was born without bones in his lower legs, said: "I hope I'll be able to play games with the other boys." He was released from the hospital after 13 months of operations to fit him with artificial limbs from the knee down. A friend, Vito Stamato, paid most of the $8,000 medical fees. (International)

Hearing Delayed

AKRON, Dec. 27.—(AP)—The case against James Woodley, 28, accused of first degree murder in the Christmas-party shooting of his wife, has been continued until Jan. 4. Police said Woodley broke into the home of his estranged wife, Elizabeth, 22, and shot her on Christmas Day.

Woman Wins Case

CLEVELAND, Dec. 27.—(AP)—Mrs. Geraldine Niles, 23, has collected $7,500 for injuries received Feb. 15, 1950, at a circus here. Attorneys said Mrs. Niles became frightened and fell from bleacher seats after several elephants got out of control.

for a cash loan in 1-trip?

Call ECONOMY — of course

$25 to $1000

... ON SIGNATURE ALONE, CAR OR FURNITURE

We specialize in fast, convenient service. No need to go through needless red tape and bothersome detail. Just 'phone first, say "how much" and "when" ... complete the loan in one trip.

Loans arranged in strict privacy. You choose your own fit-your-budget payment plan.

The Friendly Loan People at H. W. Kirby, Mgr. 121 E. Main St. Phone 46

Economy SAVINGS AND LOANS

COMPOSER OF 'HOME SWEET HOME' HAD NO REAL HOME OF HIS OWN!

By JOHN PETERSEN
Central Press Correspondent
WASHINGTON—On a cold, dank night in late January, 1821, a slim, furtive figure slipped noiselessly through a prison gate and ran into the side streets of London, taking care to keep well in the shadows.

He hastened through narrow alleys and around "places where people might be congregated and headed for—of all places—the theater.

This fugitive from debtors' prison was John Howard Payne, American author and playwright who had been placed behind bars for being unable to pay bills totaling some $7,000.

Under English law he was to remain in prison until the debt was paid. Just how a man in prison was to pay back $7,000 no one pretended to know.

Payne found his answer in an educated and soft-hearted jailer, who let him slip out of prison at night in order to attend the rehearsals of a French play which Payne had earlier translated and rewritten.

John Howard Payne

THE 30-YEAR-OLD writer made his "sneak preview" appearances at the London theater with such telling effect that the play, Theresa, made a hit with the audiences and Payne soon had not only paid back the $7,000 he owed, but netted himself a handsome profit as well.

It was with this money that the American poet went gallily off to Paris and Italy and put the finishing touches to an opera little remembered today—but the music of which is sung all over the civilized world.

"Hit tune" from the opera Clari, or the Maid of Milan, was the ever-remembered song Home, Sweet Home.

It was first sung in London in 1823 as part of the opera written by Payne, who by this time was back in his accustomed role of bankrupt author. In fact, it was because of his sad pecuniary state that the opera ever got to England in the first place.

Down to his last tuppence and unwilling to try living any longer on the promises of his well-meaning, but non-producing friends, Payne in a desperate move, wrapped up six of his plays, including the opera, and sent them to a London producer.

The delighted producer immediately recognized the worth of the package. He sent Payne a check for 250 pounds for all rights and went into production.

As so often happens, in spite of the great success of the opera

Clari and the wonderful tune Home, Sweet Home, John Howard Payne received the least benefit of anybody.

Rep. Frances P. Bolton, of Ohio, one of Payne's staunchest admirers in the House of Representatives, takes up the story from there:

"The song was published and became immediately popular, being quoted in sermons and sung in churches as well as in the homes, theaters and on the streets," says Congressman Bolton.

"Yet the publisher did not even place Mr. Payne's name on the title sheet nor send him a complimentary copy!

"Payne returned to New York in financial straits which continued in spite of handsome royalties earned from his earlier plays, Brutus, Virginia and Charles the Second.

"From 1841 to 1845, and from 1851 until his death the following year, he was United States consul at Tunis. The appointment was obtained through friends. Payne was bankrupt at the time."

ALTHOUGH in his 60s at the time of his death, Payne had never married and apparently never had a home he could call his own.

All his years he wandered about the civilized world, homeless, and more often than not, penniless, while in his mind ran the words for that place for which he longed most—home.

These are the words as originally put to the song Home, Sweet Home, by Payne:

"Mid pleasures and palaces though we may roam,
Be it ever so humble, there's no place like home.
A charm from the skies seems to hallow us there,
Which seek thro' the world, is ne'er met with elsewhere.
Home! home! sweet home
There's no place like home."

of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Duval of Chillicothe.

Atlanta
Mr. and Mrs. John Peck and family of Columbus, had as their Christmas dinner guests Mr. and Mrs. Paul Peck and son Bob, and Mrs. Clem Tarbill, and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Bowman of Columbus.

Atlanta
Mr. and Mrs. George Donohoe had as their afternoon guests on Christmas Mr. and Mrs. Paul Donohoe and family of Washington C.H., Mr. and Mrs. Gene Donohoe and son Roger of Five Points, and Mr. and Mrs. Norman Mouser and sons Jerry and Gregory.

Atlanta
Mrs. Nellie Creighton and daughter Ellen, Ray Creighton of London and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Booth enjoyed Christmas with relatives in Glenford.

Atlanta
Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Mills entertained Sunday, with a turkey dinner. The guests included Mr. and Mrs. Norman Mills and family of Amanda, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mills Jr. and daughter Cinda Lou of Washington C.H.

Atlanta
Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Ater of Berrian Springs, Mich., arrived on Wednesday evening to spend the Holidays with Mr. and Mrs. Earl Ater and children and relatives in Columbus.

Atlanta
Nancy Wilkins of Columbus, is spending the school vacation with her mother Mrs. Bethel Wilkins and daughter Jean. Tommy Wil-kings of Urbana will also join the family during Christmas.

Atlanta
Mrs. Donald Kempton and daughters of Tucson, Ariz., arrived for a visit with Mr. and Mrs. George Weidinger and family of Washington C.H., and friends and relatives in this community. Mr. Kempton and daughter Patty are expected to arrive by plane, for Christmas holidays.

Atlanta
Pfe. Joe Drake of Ft. Bragg, N.C., arrived home for 10-day leave with Mrs. Drake and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Drake and family.

Atlanta
Among those in the graduating class, Thursday to receive diplomas at Ohio State university in Columbus, were Mrs. June Bowman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Peck. She received bachelor of science degree in nursing.

Ohio Liquor Aides To Be Rotated

CLEVELAND, Dec. 27.—(AP)—All but four of the 88 Ohio liquor enforcement agents will be transferred Jan. 2, their chief announced Wednesday.

Anthony A. Rutkowski said his yearly shuffle is designed to "finish the strong law enforcement job with the same vigor and devotion to duty with which it was started three years ago."

Tahiti natives believed that gods lived in trees.

Liquor Permit Applications Zoom

COLUMBUS, Dec. 27.—(AP)—Liquor Director William C. Bryant says he is receiving applications for new retail liquor permits at the rate of 75 a day.

The flood of requests followed a Dec. 19 Ohio supreme court decision, ordering Bryant to accept and process the applications.

The court ruling upset a long-standing liquor department policy.

The department stopped issuing permits on April 11, 1949, and did not accept new applications from that date until the supreme court ruling.

Report Given On Stock Sale Here Wednesday

Following is a complete report of the stock auctions held Wednesday in Cincinnati by the Pickaway Livestock Cooperative Association:

CATTLE RECEIPTS—140 Head—Steers and heifers, good 33.50-34.50 market active steady; steers and heifers, medium to good 30-33.50; steers and heifers, common to medium 20-30; cows, common to good 25-28 market steady; cows, common 16-23; bulls 25-28.75 market steady.

HOG RECEIPTS—300 Head—100-200 lbs. 19.50; 200-240 lbs. 19.25; 240-260 lbs. 18.50; 260-280 lbs. 18; 280-300 lbs. 17.50; 300-350 lbs. 16.75; 350-400 lbs. 16.25; 400-450 lbs. 15.75; 450-500 lbs. 15.25; 500-600 lbs. 14.50-15.50; cows 13.30-16.25 11-13.

CALF RECEIPTS—43 Head—Good to choice 38-41 market higher; medium to good 26-28; culs to medium 31-36; by head 15-49.50.

SHEEP AND LAMB RECEIPTS—107 Head—Good to choice 31.30-32.30; common to good 26.60-31.30.

CHIEF ISSUES WARNING

Auto Safety Check Urged Now That Winter's Here

Motor vehicle owners and operators were warned Thursday by Police Chief William F. McCrady to check the safety equipment on their vehicles now that the weather has shifted into high gear for Winter.

Despite one siege of Winter weather, there's more coming, the Chief said, and those who haven't given their cars the safety once-over should do so immediately.

"From the lesson learned during the severe Winter last year," he said, "wise motorists know that it pays to change driving habits and to have their vehicles put in shape to drive safely in any kind of inclement weather."

Reduced visibility and slippery roads were cited as two major dangers Winter consistently pulls from its bag of deadly tricks to confound the unwary motorist.

BRAKES should be equalized to reduce the chances of side skids when stopping on slippery roads. Tires with good treads are desirable, particularly for better traction on wet pavements. Chains should be checked and ready for use on snow or ice. Lights, windshield wipers, defrosters and heaters

THE OHIO RANGERS

From Lancaster
Now Playing
Every Saturday Night
For Your Entertainment At
Sons
BAR AND GRILL
EVERYONE INVITED!

MORE SAVINGS FOR YOU IN '52

Start Right NOW To Save!

Shop Here For Your New Year's Day Feast

OPEN UNTIL 6 P. M. NEW YEAR'S EVE

Regular Store Hours—
OPEN WEEKDAYS 7:30 TO 7
SATURDAYS 7:30 TO 10

Closed Wednesday Afternoon

COLLINS' MARKET

COURT and HIGH STS. PHONE 173

ROTHMAN'S

Sale of Misses' and Women's DRESSES

Reductions From Stock and Special Purchases

Regular $5.95 to $8.95 Dresses

Print or plain rayon crepes, cottons and trisilene.

Buy several at this low, low price.

Regular $8.95 to $11.95 Dresses

For misses and women. 2-piece and one-piece styles of rayon crepe print and plain satins and brokades. Broken sizes.

Regular $9.95 to $16.95 Dresses

One piece, two-piece and bolero styles . . . these are finer dresses extremely reduced

$3
$5
$7

A FOOD "STORE" IN YOUR HOME THAT SAVES YOU MONEY!

11-CU-FT FOOD FREEZER

SAVE $120 A YEAR ON YOUR FOOD BILLS!

You can buy food in quantity, when it's cheapest—freeze it and store it in your G-E Food Freezer.

You can buy frozen foods by the case—even freeze fruits and vegetables from your own garden!

LOW OPERATING COST!

You'll be amazed at how little it costs to run your G-E Food Freezer!

And the dependable G-E sealed-in refrigerating system will give you years of faithful service. More than 2,700,000 of these G-E systems have been in use 10 years or longer!

- Perfect-seal Cabinet Construction!
- Holds up to 385 lbs. of Frozen Food!
- Automatic Interior Light!
- Automatic Temperature Control!
- Extra Compartment for Storing Packaging Materials!

AS LITTLE AS $5.05 PER WEEK after down payment

SEE THIS REAL MONEY-SAVER TODAY!

COLUMBUS AND SOUTHERN OHIO ELECTRIC CO.

Authorized Dealer
GENERAL ELECTRIC
FOOD FREEZERS

'SPIT IN THIS SPOON, PLEASE'

Saliva Found To Reveal Some Blood Properties

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 26.—Instead of pricking your finger to get a sample of blood the doctor may soon be saying:

"Spit in this spoon, please."

He will be using the saliva for some tests now made only on blood. These tests were explained to the American Association for the Advancement of Science during its 118th annual meeting here.

The saliva report was made by Dr. Frances Krasnow of the Guggenheim Dental Clinic, New York City. She and associates discovered that saliva contains cholesterol in the same amounts that the chemical appears in your blood.

Cholesterol is a substance common in food, especially in eggs, and it is part of your body's chemical processes. This stuff gets out of order during arthritis and the rheumatic diseases. It is one of the causes—but not the main one—of hardening of the arteries.

SALIVA OF healthy persons contains less cholesterol than that of sick people. The difference, Dr. Krasnow said, is easily measurable. When you have tooth decay or other dental troubles, there is more cholesterol in your saliva. When you have tooth troubles and also are sick, there is the largest amount of saliva cholesterol.

Dr. Krasnow said all this makes the spit a good diagnostic tool. — A new index for the dangers of radioactivity was reported from the Argonne Laboratory in Chicago of the U. S. Atomic Energy Commission.

The more primitive a living tissue is, the less it is harmed by radioactivity. Human beings are made largely of the complicated tissues.

This does not mean there is no hope for human beings to escape harm from radioactivity. The study serves to set up an additional method of judging how much radioactivity humans can stand. At present that danger point is not known.

Atlanta

The WSCS held its December meeting at the home of Mrs. Ward Dean, with 33 members and 11 guests present. President Mrs. Ulin McGhee presided over the business meeting. Individual packages were prepared for the aged in the county home. Gifts were also planned for the people ill in the community. A Christmas program was given by Mrs. Earl Ater and Mrs. Clarence Fox with carols sung at intervals, accompanied by Mrs. George Levally at the piano. After the benediction was given in union, refreshments, using holiday gifts, were served by Mrs. Dean, and her assisting hostesses, Mrs. Tom Farmer, Mrs. Wendell Tarbill, Mrs. George Levally and Mrs. Robert Wood of Washington C.H. An exchange of gifts followed, with the society presenting their president, Mrs. Ulin McGhee, with a gift, and Mrs. Dennis Lamb accepting a farewell gift from the WSCS. Rev. and Mrs. McGarity were also presented with numerous gifts from members of the society.

Miss June Speakman arrived home Thursday from a few months visit with Mr. and Mrs. Donald Kempton and daughters of Tucson, Ariz.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Miller and daughter Jane of Cincinnati, were Christmas dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Errel Speakman and son Johnny Speakman. Other afternoon guests included Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Shaffer and son Larry, and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Satchell.

Mr. and Mrs. George Levally and daughter Susan were Christmas dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Williams and daughter Lynn. Additional afternoon guests were Mr. and Mrs. George Levally and daughter Sharon of Columbus.

Mr. and Mrs. Pearl Ater and family had as their Christmas dinner guests Mr. and Mrs. Charles Henry. Other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Russell Henry of Columbus.

Mr. and Mrs. Mac Graves had as their Tuesday dinner guests Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Head and Mr. and Mrs. Donald Graves and children Patti and Jimmy.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Bush entertained Sunday with a turkey dinner. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Chester Beverly and son Joe of Sabina, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Bush and children of Williamsport and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bush and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Mills and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Ackley of Mt. Sterling visited Friday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Wood of Columbus.

Miss Patty Hamman, a student at Ohio State university, is visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Royal Hamman. Christmas dinner guests were Mr. and Mrs. Roger May and daughters Valerie and Nancy of Circleville, and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hamman and daughter Barbara of Williamsport.

Mr. and Mrs. George Donohoe were Christmas dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. William Tolbert and Mr. and Mrs. Frances Tolbert.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Ater of Columbus, had as their Tuesday dinner guests Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Farmer and Charles Ater.

Mr. and Mrs. Amos Duval and son, Charles were Christmas guests

COMPOSER OF 'HOME SWEET HOME' HAD NO REAL HOME OF HIS OWN!

By JOHN PETERSEN

Central Press Correspondent
WASHINGTON—On a cold, dank night in late January, 1821, a slim, furtive figure slipped noiselessly through a prison gate and ran into the side streets of London, taking care to keep well in the shadows.

He hastened through narrow alleys and around "places where people might be congregated and headed for—of all places—the theater.

This fugitive from debtors' prison was John Howard Payne, American author and playwright who had been placed behind bars for being unable to pay bills totaling some $7,000.

Under English law he was to remain in prison until the debt was paid. Just how a man in prison was to pay back $7,000 no one pretended to know.

Payne found his answer in an educated and soft-hearted jailer, who let him slip out of prison at night in order to attend the rehearsals of a French play which Payne had earlier translated and rewritten.

THE 30-YEAR-OLD writer made his "sneak preview" appearances at the London theater with such telling effect that the play, Theresa, made a hit with the audiences and Payne soon had not only paid back the $7,000 he owed, but netted himself a handsome profit as well.

It was with this money that the American poet went gaily off to Paris and Italy and put the finishing touches to an opera little remembered today—but the music of which is sung all over the civilized world.

"Hit tune" from the opera Clari, or the Maid of Milan, was the ever-remembered song Home, Sweet Home.

It was first sung in London in 1823 as part of the opera written by Payne, who by this time was back in his accustomed role of bankrupt author. In fact, it was because of his sad pecuniary state that the opera ever got to England in the first place.

John Howard Payne

Down to his last tuppence and unwilling to try living any longer on the promises of his well-meaning, but non-producing friends, Payne in a desperate move, wrapped up six of his plays, including the opera, and sent them to a London producer.

The delighted producer immediately recognized the worth of the package. He sent Payne a check for 250 pounds for all rights and went into production.

As so often happens, in spite of the great success of the opera

Clari and the wonderful tune Home, Sweet Home, John Howard Payne received the least benefit of anybody.

Rep. Frances P. Bolton, of Ohio, one of Payne's staunchest admirers in the House of Representatives, takes up the story from there:

"The song was published and became immediately popular, being quoted in sermons and sung in churches as well as in the homes, theaters and on the streets," says Congressman Bolton.

"Yet the publisher did not even place Mr. Payne's name on the title sheet nor send him a complimentary copy!"

"Payne returned to New York in financial straits which continued in spite of handsome royalties earned from his earlier plays, Brutus, Virginia and Charles the Second.

"From 1841 to 1845, and from 1851 until his death the following year, he was United States consul at Tunis. The appointment was obtained through friends, Payne was bankrupt at the time."

ALTHOUGH in his 60s at the time of his death, Payne had never married and apparently never had a home he could call his own.

All his years he wandered about the civilized world, homeless, and more often than not, penniless, while in his mind ran the words for that place for which he longed most—home.

These are the words as originally put to the song Home, Sweet Home, by Payne:

"Mid pleasures and palaces though we may roam,
Be it ever so humble, there's no place like home.

A charm from the skies seems to hallow us there,
Which seek thro' the world, is ne'er met with elsewhere.

Home! home! sweet, sweet home
There's no place like home,
There's no place like home."

CHIEF ISSUES WARNING

Auto Safety Check Urged Now That Winter's Here

Motor vehicle owners and operators were warned Thursday by Police Chief William F. McCrady to check the safety equipment on their vehicles now that the weather has shifted into high gear for winter.

Despite one seige of winter weather, there's more coming, the Chief said, and those who haven't given their cars the safety once-over should do so immediately.

"From the lesson learned during the severe winter last year," he said, "wise motorists know that it pays to change driving habits and to have their vehicles put in shape to drive safely in any kind of inclement weather."

Reduced visibility and slippery roads were cited as two major dangers winter consistently pulls from its bag of deadly tricks to confound the unwary motorist.

BRAKES should be equalized to reduce the chances of side skids when stopping on slippery roads. Tires with good treads are desirable, particularly for better traction on wet pavements. Chains should be checked and ready for use on snow or ice. Lights, windshield wipers, defrosters and heaters

THE OHIO RANGERS
From Lancaster
Now Playing
Every Saturday Night
For Your Entertainment
At
Sons
BAR AND GRILL
EVERYONE INVITED!

MORE SAVINGS FOR YOU
IN '52
Start Right NOW To Save!
Shop Here For Your New Year's Day Feast
OPEN UNTIL 6 P. M. NEW YEAR'S EVE
Regular Store Hours—
OPEN WEEKDAYS 7:30 TO 7
SATURDAYS 7:30 TO 10
Closed Wednesday Afternoon
COLLINS' MARKET
COURT and HIGH STS.
PHONE 173

ROTHMAN'S
Sale of Misses' and Women's DRESSES
Reductions From Stock and Special Purchases
Regular $5.95 to $8.95 Dresses
Print or plain rayon crepes, cottons and trisolene.
Buy several at this low, low price.
Regular $8.95 to $11.95 Dresses
For misses and women. 2-piece and one-piece styles of rayon crepe print and plain satins and brokades. Broken sizes.
Regular $9.95 to $16.95 Dresses
One piece, two-piece and bolero styles . . . these are finer dresses extremely reduced

RALPH MARINARO JR., 6, of Passaic, N.J., walks out of the Hasbrouck Heights, N.J. Hospital, on his new legs. Ralph, who was born without bones in his lower legs, said: "I hope I'll be able to play games with the other boys." He was released from the hospital after 13 months of operations to fit him with artificial limbs from the knee down. A friend, Tito Stamato, paid most of the $8,000 medical fees. (International)

Hearing Delayed

AKRON, Dec. 27.—The case against James Woodley, 28, accused of first degree murder in the Christmas-party shooting of his wife, has been continued until Jan. 4. Police said Woodley broke into the home of his estranged wife, Elizabeth, 22, and shot her on Christmas Day.

Woman Wins Case

CLEVELAND, Dec. 27.—Mrs. Geraldine Niles, 23, has collected $7,500 for injuries received Feb. 15, 1950, at a circus here. Attorneys said Mrs. Niles became frightened and fell from bleacher seats after several elephants got out of control.

for a cash loan in 1-trip?
Call ECONOMY — of course
$25 to $1000
... ON SIGNATURE ALONE, CAR OR FURNITURE
We specialize in fast, convenient service. No need to go through needless red tape and bothersome detail. Just 'phone first, say "how much" and "when" . . . complete the loan in one trip.
Loans arranged in strict privacy. You choose your own fit-your-budget payment plan.
The Friendly Loan People at
H. W. Kirby, Mgr.
121 E. Main St.
Phone 46

A FOOD "STORE" IN YOUR HOME THAT SAVES YOU MONEY!
11-CU-FT
GE FOOD FREEZER
SAVE $120 A YEAR ON YOUR FOOD BILLS!
You can buy food in quantity, when it's cheapest—freeze it and store it in your G-E Food Freezer.
You can buy frozen foods by the case—even freeze fruits and vegetables from your own garden!
LOW OPERATING COST!
You'll be amazed at how little it costs to run your G-E Food Freezer!
And the dependable G-E sealed-in refrigerating system will give you years of faithful service. More than 2,700,000 of these G-E systems have been in use 10 years or longer!
* Perfect-seal Cabinet Construction!
* Holds up to 389 lbs. of Frozen Food!
* Automatic Interior Light!
* Automatic Temperature Control!
* Extra Compartment for Storing Packaging Materials!
AS LITTLE AS $5.05 PER WEEK after down payment
SEE THIS REAL MONEY-SAVER TODAY!
COLUMBUS AND SOUTHERN OHIO ELECTRIC CO.
Authorized Dealer
GENERAL ELECTRIC
FOOD FREEZERS

CLASSIFIED

Classified Ad Rates

To order a classified ad just use phone 782 and ask for an ad-taker. She will quote rates and help you write your ad. You may mail your ad to the Circleville Herald if you prefer.

Per word one insertion ..... 8c
Per word consecutive ..... 10c

Per word 5 insertions ..... 20c
Minimum charge, one time ..... 50c

Obituaries, $1.50 minimum.
Cards of Thanks $1.00 per insertion.

75 word maximum on obituaries and cards of thanks. Each additional word 8 cents.

Publisher reserves the right to edit or reject all classified advertising copy. Ads ordered for more than one time and cancelled before expiration will only be charged for the number of times the ad appears and adjustments made at the rate earned. Publishers reserve the right to classify ads under the appropriate headings.

Publishers are responsible for only one incorrect insertion of an ad. Out of town advertising must be cash with the order.

Classified ads must be in the Herald office before 2:30 p. m. the day before publication.

Business Service

PLASTERING
Stucco and Paper Steaming
new and repair
GEORGE R. RAMEY
733 S. Scioto St. Phone 3133

MINNEAPOLIS-MOLINE
Sales and Service
DREXEL JONES
Halleville Phone 2485

WALLPAPER STEAMING
George Byrd Phone 588R

SEWER AND DRAIN SERVICE
Inexpensive and effective. Only Roto Rooter can give complete cleaning service without unnecessary digging. Circleville 455 or Lancaster 3653

REFINISH your floors yourself by using our floor sander and water. Also a variety of quality floor finishes. Kochheiser Hardware.

JOE CHRISTY
Plumbing and Heating
808 S. Court Phone 889M

Builder of Your Home of Tomorrow—
Remodeler of Your Home of Today
G. E. LEIST, CONTR.
358 Logan St. Phone 914

TERMITE CONTROL
Free Inspection Est.
KOCHHEISER HARDWARE
Phone 100

Ward's Upholstery
225 E. Main St. Phone 135

BARTHELMAS SHEET METAL AND PLUMBING
230 E. Main St. Phone 127

Leslie Hines — Everybody's Auctioneer
119 E. Walnut, Chillicothe
Phone 9175

CHESTER HILL PAINTING, SPRAYING
By Contract or Hourly
CALL 4058

WATER WELL DRILLING
Phone 70 Williamsport ex.
LINKOUS BROS.

STOP and THINK

Repair bills are cheaper than having pits. With the cost of brake relining, steering adjustment and repair so very low there's no reason to go driving in a faulty car. We suggest you drive in today for a check-up.

Clifton Motor Sales
119-21 S. Court
Phone 50

Wanted To Rent
Wanted to Rent — Storage space for farming equipment. Write box 1775 c-o Herald.

BUSINESS DIRECTORY

Detailed Reference to Business Facilities of Circleville

DAIRY PRODUCTS DEALERS

PICKAWAY DAIRY ASSN.
Pickaway Dairy Phone 28

ELECTRIC APPLIANCES
PETTIT'S
130 S. Court Phone 214

LOCKER PLANT

CIRCLEVILLE FACT FREEZE
F. J. Griffin owner-operator
161 Edison Ave. Phone 133

RETAIL LUMBER DEALERS

CIRCLEVILLE LUMBER CO.
159 Edison Ave. Phone 269

VETERINARIANS

DR. C. W. CROMLEY & R. G. RAGEL
Pet Hospital Boarding—X-Ray
Phone 4 Asheville

DR. FLOYD P. DUNLAP
48 N. Court St. Phone 318

DR. PAUL E. FENSTERMAKER
P. O. 1 Williamsport, Ohio

DR. WELLS M. WILSON
Phone 182 Rt. 1, Circleville

Articles For Sale

BUY Crosley Shelvador Refrigerators. New—1952 models are on display at Gordon's.

SOFTENER Salt—good for icy sidewalks. Lovelace Electric Co., 156 W. Main St. Ph. 408.

IT'S THE same old story. The early chicks will be the most profitable. It's time to send in your order for Jan. and Feb. Chicks. Croman's Hatchery.

BALE-O-MATIC Baler—2 years old, like new $1700. Ph. 54227 New Holland ex.

MAHOGANY dining room suite Duncan Phyffe table, 6 ladder back chairs, buffet. Phone 10 Williamsport ex.

THREE milk cows, freshen in January. Eugene Clifton, 4 miles Northwest of Fox.

MAHOGANY dining room suite—Duncan Phyffe table, 6 ladder back chairs, buffet. Phone 10 Williamsport.

IT'S A PROVEN fact—the early chicks make the most profit. Our first hatch will be January 23. Croman's Hatchery. Ph. 1834 or 4045.

GOOD off grade hay, baled, cheap. Ph. 1831.

WHY WORRY if affected with any skin disease. Ask about V-J-O at Circleville Rexall Drugs.

DID YOU know you can buy a genuine Schwinn bicycle at $3.99 down $1.50 week at B. F. Goodrich Co., 115 E. Main Street.

SO BRIGHT, shiny and easy to clean. Glaxo plastic type linoleum. Finish, end waxing. Harpster and Yost.

DON'T pay tribute to moths. Stop with Berliou. Five year guarantee. Odorous and Stainless. Griffith Floorcovering.

COAL
Lump and stove. Phone 622R.
EDWARD STARKEY

OLIVER AND NEW IDEA
Sales and Service
BECKETT IMPLEMENT CO.
119 E. Franklin Ph. 122

ED HELWAGEN
PONTIAC AGENCY
400 N. Court St. Phone 843

TOP DAIRY COWS
Fresh and close up springers. Registered and purebred. Phone 4040.
PETE BOWMAN

RECONDITIONED WASHERS
$39.95 to $69.95
PETTIT'S
130 S. Court St. Ph. 214

DEAN AND BARRY PAINTS
COMPLETE LINE
GOELLER PAINT STORE
219 E. Main St. Phone 546

KINGSTON SALES & SERVICE
MASSEY-HARRIS
DEALERS
TRIM CARROLL, Owner
Kingston Phone 8441

RICHARDS IMPLEMENT
Agents for
ALLIS-CHALMERS
JOHN DEERE — GMC TRUCKS
E. Main St. at Mingo Pk. 194 and 182

Jones Implement
YOUR ALLIS-CHALMERS
DEALER
Sales and Service—Phone 7081
Open 7 to 9 Daily

USED CARS & TRUCKS

The Harden Chevrolet Co.
Your Chevrolet Dealer Since 1928
132 E. Franklin Phone 322

Superphosphate
49%

We Have A Car Coming The Middle of January—Approximately $68 Ton
Off The Car Price
PLACE YOUR ORDER NOW
Farm Bureau Store
W. Mound St. Phone 834

PHILGAS
BOTTLE GAS
Gas and Oil Stoves
Large Installation
DURO THERM
Easy Terms
For Free Estimates
Phone 136

BOB LITTER'S
FUEL & HEATING CO.
163 W. Main St. Phone 821

SAVE FUEL
INSTALL
"RUSCO"
All Metal
Self Storing
STORM WINDOWS
Easy Terms

McAfee Lumber
and Supply Co.
Kingston, O. Phone 8421

Wanted to Buy

NEW corn wanted—we do custom drying also. Phone for prices—Lloyd Reiterman and Son, Kingston. Ph. 8484.

USED FURNITURE
WEAVER FURNITURE
150 W. Main St. Phone 210

Business Opportunities

NEW MECHANICAL Product Wanted To make and market by established manufacturer electro mechanical products. National coverage to electrical, hardware, dept. stores. P.O. Box 322, Rochester, N.Y.

Financial

FARMERS loans—to purchase livestock, machinery, seed and operating—low interest rate. See Don Clump, Production Credit, 231 N. Court St.

For Rent

BEDROOM with kitchen privileges. Inq. 334 1/2 E. Main or phone 819R.

Real Estate For Sale

MODERN DUPLEX
2 Apts. 3 rms. each, hd-wood floors, bath and furnace down; partial hd-wood floors, bath up; good location, 113 S. Court St. Phone 110 p.m. monthly; good home and investment. Show anytime.

MACK D. PARRETT
214 E. Main St. Phone 303

Central Ohio Farms
City Property
4 Percent Farm Loans
DONALD H. WATT, Realtor
1213 N. Court St.
Circleville, Ohio
Phone 70 and after 5 p. m. 342-R

Farms—City Property—Loans
W. D. HEISKELL, Realtor
Wm. D. Heiskell Jr., Salesman
Williamsport, Ohio
Phones: Office 27 Residence 28

ADKINS REALTY
Bob Adkins, Salesman
Call 114, 565, 117Y
Masonic Temple

FARMS AND CITY PROPERTY
George C. Barnes
Phone 43

I HAVE farms in Pickaway Fayette, Ross and Highland Counties.
B. S. (TIM) MILLAR, Broker
Ph. 56R22 Asheville

BUILDING LOTS
Beautiful homesites in Collins Court, Spring Hollow, Park Place, Northridge Rd., Atwater Ave. Now is the time to buy your lot for that new home. Show anytime.

MACK D. PARRETT
214 E. Main St. Phone 303

Employment

2 WAITRESSES over 18, want ed. Apply in person at Gal laher's Drug Store—see Mr. Johnson.

EXPERIENCED bar girl wanted—apply in person to Manager, Hanley's Grill.

SALESMAN WANTED
Good opportunity for men who desire to learn to sell. Openings available at present.

ELECTROLUX CORP.
1585 N. High St., Columbus UN 4187
Apply between 8 and 10 a. m.
Evenings call K1 6224

Lost

WHITE and Orange spotted Pointer Bird Dog. Call R. M. Leach, 722Y, or Ralph Wallace, 1034, $25.00 Reward.

Personal

REXALL Drugs is ready to help you with your choice of cough and cold remedies.

KIN FOLKS coming for Christmas? Clean the rug and upholstery with Fina Foam. Harpster and Yost.

ATTENTION HOUSEWIVES: Don't let moths ruin your rugs. Get Berliou Mothspray. Five year guarantee. Griffith Floorcovering.

Legal Notices

PROBATE COURT NOTICE
All interested parties are hereby notified that the following named Administrators, Executors and Trustees, have filed their accounts in the Probate Court of Pickaway County, Ohio:

1. Robert R. Walker, Administrator of the estate of Sylvia Walker, deceased. First and final account.

2. Lydia E. Bickel, Administratrix of the estate of Thomas G. Bickel, deceased. Final and distributive account.

3. Clara Evelyn Francis and Leonard Francis, Executors of the estate of Clara Mae Marshall, deceased. First and final account.

4. Russell Moraine, Trustee under the Will of Mary E. Tanner, deceased. Third Partial account.

And that said accounts will be for hearing and settlement before the Probate Court on Monday, January 14, 1952, at 9 o'clock a. m. Exceptions to said accounts, if any, must be filed herein on or before January 8, 1952.

Witness my hand and the seal of said Probate Court, this 13th day of December, 1951.

GEORGE D. YOUNG,
Probate Judge.

Dec. 13, 20, 27, Jan. 3.

PROBATE COURT NOTICE
All interested parties are hereby notified that the following named Administratrix, Administrator and Guardian have filed their accounts in the Probate Court of Pickaway County, Ohio:

1. Eva Burnley, Administratrix of the estate of Della Burnley, deceased. Final and distributive account.

2. Alice B. Cady, Administratrix of the estate of Edwin L. Price, deceased. First and final account.

3. Armilda E. Neubauer, Executrix of the estate of Samuel D. Smith, deceased. First and final account.

4. Sterling M. Lamb, Guardian of Laura Catherine Reeser, Janis Marie Reeser and Cora Jean Reeser, Jr., minors. First partial account.

5. George B. Bochard, Guardian of Sadie Hoover, an incompetent person. First partial account.

6. Arrie L. Chilcote, Guardian of Russell Eugene Seay, an incompetent person. Third partial account.

7. Elizabeth Sines Gibson, Guardian of Marvin Lewis Sines, a minor. Second partial account.

And that said accounts will be for hearing and settlement before the Probate Court on Monday, January 7, 1952, at 9 o'clock a. m. Exceptions to said accounts, if any, must be filed herein on or before January 2, 1952.

Witness my hand and the seal of said Probate Court, this 6th day of December, 1951.

GEORGE D. YOUNG,
Probate Judge.

Dec. 6, 13, 20, 27.

NOTICE OF APPOINTMENT
No. 16424
Estate of William Marshall Dalton, Deceased.

Notice is hereby given that Mary Johnson whose Post Office address is Circleville, Ohio has been duly appointed Administratrix of the Estate of William Marshall Dalton, late of Pickaway County, Ohio, deceased.

Dated this 10th day of December, 1951.

GEORGE D. YOUNG
Judge of the Probate Court
Pickaway County, Ohio

Dec. 13, 20, 27.

PROBATE COURT NOTICE
All interested parties are hereby notified that the following named Administratrix, Executors and Guardian have filed their accounts in the Probate Court of Pickaway County, Ohio:

1. Harry W. Brinker, Administrator of the estate of Lida Jane Brinker, deceased. First and final account.

2. Lemuel B. Weldon, Executor of the estate of Jacob Wunsinger, deceased. First and final account.

3. Harry R. Dreisbach, Executor of the estate of Theresa Dreisbach, deceased. First and final account.

4. Myrtle May Kinser, Executrix of the estate of Scott W. Kinser, deceased. First and final account.

5. Ray W. Davis, Guardian of Doris Lorraine Poivre, a minor. Third partial account.

And that said accounts will be for hearing and settlement before this Probate Court on Monday, January 28, 1952, at 9 o'clock a. m. Exceptions to said accounts, if any, must be filed herein on or before January 15, 1952.

Witness my hand and the seal of said Probate Court, this 20th day of December, 1951.

GEORGE D. YOUNG,
Probate Judge.

Dec. 20, 27, Jan. 3, 10.

New Bond Series Paying Higher Interest Urged

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 27.—A new series of popular treasury bonds, paying higher interest to curb inflation has been proposed before the American Association for the Advancement of Science.

This was part of a plan for economic mobilization of the United States by Marion B. Folsom, chairman of the board of the committee for economic development, of New York City. He is treasurer of Eastman Kodak Co.

"More E-bonds," he said, "have been cashed this year than have been sold. The poor results are sufficient evidence of the need for a new bond. It is hard to sell a 1941 model of anything in 1951.

"This is especially true of a bond, because of the marked change in interest rates the past ten years. To be attractive the new bond should bear a higher interest rate, particularly during the first few years. A bond of this type should greatly stimulate savings."

The savings, he said, will hold down inflation.

Snow Hikes Take

CLEVELAND, Dec. 27.—The Cleveland Transit System says the heavy snow the week before Christmas helped it make $68,000 extra. CTS revenue was $678,906, compared with $610,463 the preceding week and $557,010 the same week last year.

SPECIAL NOTICE
Municipal

Civil Service Examination
The Circleville Municipal Civil Service Commission will hold an examination on

Monday, January 21, 1952 at 7:00 O'clock P.M., in the Council Chamber in the City of Circleville, Ohio for the purpose of:

Patrolman of Police Department to fill an Eligible List.

Blank applications may be secured at the Office of Commission in City Building or from any member of the commission, and must be returned not later than 7:00 P.M. on Friday, January 18, 1952. The law requires that a fee of $1.00 be charged for all examinations where the salary exceeds $1,000.00 per year.

Applicants must be resident voters of Pickaway County. Applicants for a position in the Police Department must not be less than 5 feet 6 inches in height and weigh not less than 155 pounds, and must be between the ages of 21 and 31 years.

For information as to salaries, etc., inquire of Luther Bower, Chairman; J. S. Barr, Vice Chairman; or V. L. Hawkes, Secretary. Dec. 27, 28, 29, Jan. 12, 14, 15.

Legal Notices

CIRCLEVILLE PUMPKIN SHOW
Treasurer's December 18, 1951 Statement

RECEIPTS

Donations ..... 1,532.12

Rides ..... 2,272.90

Shows ..... 2,386.81

Pumpkin Pie Booth ..... 175.30

Refunds ..... 1,093.63

Total Receipts ..... 7,463.56

EXPENDITURES

Expense ..... 1,718.82

Printing & Advertising ..... 737.77

Premiums Paid ..... 2,497.53

Judges ..... 173.49

Supplies ..... 2,308.50

Labors ..... 561.25

Watchmen & Police ..... 859.74

Supplies ..... 1,716.57

Postage ..... 170.35

Deposits Returned ..... 20.00

Entertainment & Free Acts ..... 1,410.00

Rent ..... 859.90

Total ..... 13,015.10

Less—Check No. 84 ..... 75.00

Total Expenditures ..... 12,940.10

Balance (Deficit) ..... 287.19

Adjusted to equal the total of said purchased this year ..... $757.32

Depreciation claimed 25 percent ..... 189.33

Deficit as shown by record ..... 287.19

R. G. COLVILLE, Treas.

Dec. 27.

PROBATE COURT NOTICE
All interested parties are hereby notified that the following named Administratrix and Guardian have filed their accounts in the Probate Court of Pickaway County, Ohio:

1. E. L. Hosler, Administrator of the estate of Dena D. Hosler, deceased. First and final account.

2. Lewis J. Pohl, Guardian of Lewis C. Hammel, an incompetent person. Thirteenth partial account.

And that said accounts will be for hearing and settlement before this Probate Court on Monday, January 28, 1952, at 9

CLASSIFIED ADS

Classified Ad Rates

To order a classified ad just the phone 782 and ask for an ad-taker. She will quote rates and help you write your ad. You may mail ads to the Circleville Herald if you prefer.

WORD RATE
Per word one insertion ..... 8c
Per word 5 consecutive insertions ..... 10c
Minimum charge, one time ..... 60c
Obituaries $1.50 minimum.
Cards of Thanks $1.00 per insertion.
75 word maximum on obituaries and cards of thanks. Each additional word 8 cents.

Publisher reserves the right to edit or reject all classified advertising copy. Ads ordered for more than one time and cancelled before expiration will only be charged for the number of times the ad appears and adjustments made at the rate earned. Publishers reserve the right to classify ads under the appropriate headings.

Publishers are responsible for only one incorrect insertion of an ad. Out of town advertising must be cash with the order.

Classified ads must be in the Herald office before 2:30 a. m. the day before publication.

Business Service

PLASTERING
Stucco and Paper Steaming
new and repair
GEORGE R. RAMEY
733 S. Scioto St. Phone 3137

MINNEAPOLIS-MOLINE
Sales and Service
DREXEL JONES
Hallsville Phone 2485

WALLPAPER STEAMING
George Byrd Phone 558R

SEWER AND DRAIN SERVICE
Inexpensive and effective. Only Roto Rooter can give complete cleaning service without unnecessary digging. Circleville 455 or Lancaster 3663.

REFINISH your floors yourself by using our floor sander and waxer. Also a variety of quality floor finishes. Koehneiser Hardware

JOE CHRISTY
Plumbing and Heating
508 S. Court Phone 880M

Builder of Your Home of Tomorrow—
Remodeler of Your Home of Today
G. E. LEIST, CONTR.
358 Logan St. Phone 914

TERMITE CONTROL
Free Inspection Est.
KOCHHEISER HARDWARE
Phone 100

Ward's Upholstery
425 E. Main St. Phone 135

BARTHELMAS SHEET METAL AND PLUMBING
239 E. Main St. Phone 127

Leslie Hines — Everybody's Auctioneer
119 E. Water St., Chillicothe
Phone 9175

CHESTER HILL
PAINTING, SPRAYING
By Contract or Hourly
CAVART 4058

WATER WELL DRILLING
Phone 70 Williamsport ex.
LINKOUS BROS.

STOP and THINK

Repair bills are cheaper than hospital bills. With the cost of brake relining, steering adjustment and repair so very low there's no reason to go driving in a faulty car. We suggest you drive in today for a check-up.

Clifton Motor Sales
119-21 S. Court
Phone 50

Wanted To Rent
WANTED To Rent — Storage space for farming equipment. Write box 1775 c-o Herald.

BUSINESS DIRECTORY

Detailed Reference to Business Facilities of Circleville

DAIRY PRODUCTS DEALERS
PICKAWAY DAIRY ASSN.
Pickaway Butler Phone 28

ELECTRIC APPLIANCES
PETTIT'S
130 S. Court St. Phone 214

LOCKER PLANT
CIRCLEVILLE FACT FREEZE
Griffin owner-operator
161 Edison Ave. Phone 133

RETAIL LUMBER DEALERS
CIRCLEVILLE LUMBER CO.
150 Edison Ave. Phone 209

VETERINARIANS
ORS C. W. CROMLEY & M. HAGELY
Pet Hospital Boarding—X-Ray
Phone 4 Asheville

DR. FLOYD P. DUNLAP
48 N. Court St. Phone 315

DR. VOL E. FENSTERMAKER
Ph 2 Williamsport Ohio

DR. WELLS M. WILSON
Phone 1338 Rt. L. Circleville

Articles For Sale

BUY Crosley Shelvare Refrigerators. Now—new 1952 models are on display at Gordon's.

SOFTENER Salt—good for icy sidewalks. Lovelace Electric Co., 156 W. Main St. Ph. 405.

IT'S THE same old story. The early chicks will be the most profitable. It's time to send in your order for Jan. and Feb. Chicks. Croman's Hatchery.

BALE-O-MATIC Baler—2 years old, like new $1700. Ph. 58427 New Holland ex.

MAHOGANY dining room suite
Duncan Phyffe table, 6 ladder back chairs, buffet. Phone 10 Williamsport ex.

THREE milk cows, fresh in January. Eugene Clifton, 4 miles Northwest of Fox.

MAHOGANY dining room suite—Duncan Phyffe table, 6 ladder back chairs, buffet. Phone 10 Williamsport.

IT'S A PROVEN fact—the early chicks make the most profit. Our first hatch will be January 22. Croman's Hatchery. Ph. 1834 or 4045.

GOOD off grade hay, baled, cheap. Ph. 1831.

WHY WORRY if affected with any skin disease. Ask about V-J-O at Circleville Rexall Drugs.

DID YOU know you can buy a genuine Schwinn bicycle at $3.99 down $1.50 week at R. F. Goodrich Co., 115 E. Main Street.

SO BRIGHT, shiny and easy to clean. Glaxo plastic tile linoleum finish, end waxing. Harpster and Yost.

DON'T pay tribute to moths. Stop them with Berio. Five year guarantee. Odors and Stainless. Griffin Floor-covering.

COAL
Lump and stoker. Phone 622R. EDWARD STARKEY

OLIVER and NEW IDEA
Sales and Service
BECKITT IMPLEMENT CO.
119 E. Franklin Ph. 122

ED HELWAGEN
POSTAGE AGENCY
400 N. Court St. Phone 843

TOP DAIRY COWS
Fresh and grade Cows and Heifers.
PETE BOWMAN — Phone 4040

RECONDITIONED WASHERS
$39.95 to $69.95
PETTIT'S
130 S. Court St. Ph. 214

DEAN and BARRY PAINTS
COMPLETE LINE
GOELLER PAINT STORE
219 E. Main St. Phone 546

KINGSTON SALES & SERVICE
MASSEY-HARRIS
DEALERS
TRIM CARROLL, Owner
Kingston Phone 8141

RICHARDS IMPLEMENT
Agents for
ALLIS-CHALMERS
JOHN DEERE — GMC TRUCKS
E. Main St. at Mingo Pk. 194 and 183

Jones Implement
YOUR ALLIS-CHALMERS
DEALER
Sales and Service—Phone 7081
Open 7 to 9 Daily

USED CARS & TRUCKS
The Harden Chevrolet Co.
Your Chevrolet Dealer Since 1928
132 E. Franklin Phone 322

Superphosphate
49%
We Have A Car Coming The Middle of January—Approximately $68 Ton
Off The Car Price
PLACE YOUR ORDER NOW
Farm Bureau Store
W. Mount St. Phone 834

PHILGAS
BOTTLE GAS
Gas and Oil Stoves
Large Installation
DURO THERM
Easy Terms
For Free Estimates
Phone 136

BOB LITTER'S
FUEL & HEATING CO.
163 W. Main St. Phone 821

SAVE FUEL
INSTALL
"RUSCO"
All Metal
Self Storing STORM WINDOWS
Easy Terms

McAfee Lumber
and Supply Co.
Kingston, O. Phone 8421

Wanted to Buy
NEW corn wanted—we do custom drying also. Phone for prices—Lloyd Reiterman and Son, Kingston, Ph. 8481.

USED FURNITURE
WEAVER FURNITURE
159 W. Main St. Phone 210

NEW MECHANICAL Product Wanted To make and market by established manufacturer electro mechanical products. National coverage to electrical, hardware, dept. stores. P.O. Box 322, Circleville, Ohio.

Financial
FARMERS loans—to purchase livestock, machinery, seed and operating—low interest rate. See Don Clump, Production Credit, 231 N. Court St.

For Rent
BEDROOM with kitchen privileges. Inq. 334½ E. Main or phone 819R.

Real Estate For Sale

MODERN DUPLEX
2 Apts 5 rms each; hd-wood floors, bath and furnace down, partial hd-wood floors, bath up. Road location. 113 N. Scioto St. rents $110 per month; good home and investment. Show anytime.

MACK D. PARRETT
214 E. Main St. Phone 303

Central Ohio Farms
City Properties
4 Percent Farm Loans
DONALD H. WARD, Realtor
1121 N. Court St.
Circleville, Ohio
Phone 70 and after 5 p. m. 342-R

Farms—City Property—Loans
W. D. HEISKELL, Realtor
Wm. D. Heiskell Jr., Salesman
Williamsport, Ohio
Phones: Office 27 Residence 28

ADKINS REALTY
Bob Adkins, Salesman
Call 114, 363, 1173
Masonic Temple

FARMS and CITY PROPERTY
4 Percent Farm Loans
GEORGE C. BARNES
Phone 423

I HAVE farms in Pickaway, Fayette, Ross and Highland Counties.
B. S. (TIM) MILLAR, Broker
Ph. 93R22 Ashville

BUILDING LOTS
Beautiful homesites in Collins Court, Spring Hollow, Park Place, Northridge Rd., Atwater Ave. Now is the time to buy your lot for that new home. Show anytime.

MACK D. PARRETT
214 E. Main St. Phone 303

Employment
2 WAITRESSES over 18, want ed. Apply in person at Gal-laher's Drug Store—see Mr. Johnson.

EXPERIENCED bar girl wanted—ap- ply in person to Manager, Hanley's Grill.

SALESMAN WANTED
Good opportunity for men who desire to learn to sell. Openings available at present.

ELECTROLUX CORP.
1585 N. High St., Columbus OH 4187
Apply between 9:30-10:30 a. m.
Evenings call KI 8926

Lost
WHITE and Orange spotted Pointer
Red Dog, Call R. M. Leach, 727, or
Ralph Wallace, 1034, 825-09 Reward.

Personal
RECALL Drugs is ready to help you with your choice of cough and cold remedies.

KIN FOLKS coming for Christmas? Clean the rugs and upholstery with Fina Foam Harpster and Yost.

ATTENTION HOUSEWIVES: Get Berio moth traps. Five year guarantee. Griffin Floorcovering.

Legal Notices
PROBATE COURT NOTICE
All interested parties are hereby notified that the following named Administrators, Executors and Trustees, have filed their accounts in the Probate Court of Pickaway County, Ohio:

1. Robert R. Walker, Administrator of the estate of Sylvia Walker, deceased. First and final account.

2. Lydia E. Bickel, Administratrix of the estate of Thomas G. Bickel, deceased. Final and distributive account.

3. Clara Evelyn Francis and Leonard Francis, Executors of the estate of Clara Mae Marshall, deceased. First and final account.

4. Russell Moraine, Trustee under the Will of Mary S. Tanner, deceased. Third Partial account.

And that said accounts will be for hearing and settlement before this Probate Court on Monday, January 14, 1952, at 9 o'clock a. m. Exceptions to said accounts, if any, must be filed herein on or before January 8, 1952.

Witness my hand and the seal of said Probate Court, this 13th day of December, 1951.

GEORGE D. YOUNG,
Probate Judge.

PROBATE COURT NOTICE
All interested parties are hereby notified that the following named Administrators, Executors and Trustees, have filed their accounts in the Probate Court of Pickaway County, Ohio:

1. Eva Burnell, Administratrix of the estate of Della Burnell, deceased. Final and distributive account.

2. Alice B. Cady, Administratrix de bonis non of the estate of Edwin L. Price, deceased. First and final account.

3. Armilda E. Neubauer, Executrix of the estate of Samuel D. Smith, deceased. First and final account.

4. Sterling M. Lamb, Guardian of Laura Catherine Reeser, Janis Marie Reeser and George David Reeser, Jr., minors. First partial account.

5. George B. Bochar, Guardian of Sadie Hoover, incompetent person. First partial account.

6. Ailie L. Chilcote, Guardian of Russell Eugene Seymour, incompetent person. Third partial account.

7. Elizabeth Sines Gibson, Guardian of Paul D. Sines, a minor. Second partial account.

And that said accounts will be for hearing and settlement before this Probate Court on Monday, January 1952, at 9 o'clock a. m. Exceptions to said accounts, if any, must be filed herein on or before January 2, 1952.

Witness my hand and the seal of said Probate Court, this 6th day of December, 1951.

GEORGE D. YOUNG,
Probate Judge.

NOTICE OF APPOINTMENT
No. 16194
Estate of William Marshall Dalton, deceased.

Notice is hereby given that Mary Johnson, whose Post Office address is Circleville, Ohio has been appointed Administratrix of the Estate of William Marshall Dalton, late of Pickaway County, Ohio, deceased.

Dated this 16th day of December, 1951.

GEORGE D. YOUNG
Judge of Probate Court
Pickaway County, Ohio
Dec. 13, 20, 27.

PROBATE COURT NOTICE
All interested parties are hereby notified that the following named Administrators, Executors and Guardians, have filed their accounts in the Probate Court of Pickaway County, Ohio:

1. Harry W. Brinker, Administrator of the estate of Lida Jane Brinker, deceased. First and final account.

2. Lemuel B. Weidon, Executor of the estate of Jacob Hunsinger, deceased. First and final account.

3. Harry R. Dreisbach, Executor of the estate of Theresa Dreisbach, deceased. First and final account.

4. Myrtle May Kinser, Executrix of the estate of Scott W. Kinser, deceased. First and final account.

5. Ray W. Davis, Guardian of Doris Lorraine Poirve, a minor. Third partial account.

And that said accounts will be for hearing and settlement before this Probate Court on Monday, January 21, 1952, at 9 o'clock a. m. Exceptions to said accounts, if any, must be filed herein on or before January 15, 1952.

Witness my hand and the seal of said Probate Court, this 20th day of December, 1951.

GEORGE D. YOUNG,
Probate Judge.
Dec. 20, 27, Jan. 3, 10.

New Bond Series Paying Higher Interest Urged

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 27.—(P)—A new series of popular treasury bonds, paying higher interest to curb inflation has been proposed before the American Association for the Advancement of Science.

This was part of a plan for economic mobilization of the United States by Marion B. Folsom, chairman of the board of the committee for economic development, of New York City. He is treasurer of Eastman Kodak Co.

"More E-bonds," he said, "have been cashed this year than have been sold. The poor results are sufficient evidence of the need for a new bond. It is hard to sell a 1941 model of anything in 1951.

"This is especially true of a bond, because of the marked change in interest rates the past few years. To be attractive the new bond should bear a higher interest rate, particularly during the first few years. A bond of this type should greatly stimulate savings."

The savings, he said, will hold down inflation.

Snow Hikes Take

CLEVELAND, Dec. 27.—(P)—The Cleveland Transit System says the heavy snow the week before Christmas helped it make $68,000 extra.

CTS revenue was $678,906, compared with $610,463 the preceding week and $557,010 the same week last year.

SPECIAL NOTICE
Municipal
Civil Service Examination

The Circleville Municipal Civil Service Commission will hold an examination on

Monday, January 21, 1952 at 7:00 O'clock P.M., in the Council Chamber in the City of Circleville, Ohio for the purpose of:

Patrolman of Police Department to fill an Eligible List.

Blank applications may be secured at the Office of Commission in City Building or from any member of the commission, and must be returned not later than 7:00 P.M. on Friday, January 18, 1952. The law requires that a fee of $1.00 be charged for all examinations where the salary exceeds $1,000.00 per year.

Applicants must be resident voters of Pickaway County. Applicants for a position in the Police Department must not be less than 5 feet 6 inches in height and weigh not less than 155 pounds, and must be between the ages of 21 and 31 years.

For information as to salaries, etc., inquire of Luther Bower, Chairman; J. S. Barr, Vice Chairman; or V. L. Hawkes, Secretary. Dec. 27, 28, 29, Jan. 12, 14, 15.

Legal Notices
CIRCLEVILLE PUMPKIN SHOW
December 18, 1951

RECEIPTS
Donations ..... 1,532.12
Concessions ..... 2,722.90
Rides ..... 2,388.81
Shows ..... 15.20
Deposits in Pie Booth ..... 1,092.83
Refunds ..... 270.45
Total Receipts ..... 12,652.91

EXPENDITURES
Expense ..... 1,718.82
Printing & Advertising ..... 737.77
Premiums Paid ..... 2,487.53
Judgments ..... 173.49
Hands ..... 2,308.30
Labor ..... 361.25
Watchmen & Police ..... 829.74
Supplies ..... 1,716.57
Insurance ..... 20.90
Deposits Returned ..... 1,410.00
Entertainment & Free Acts ..... 850.00
Rent ..... 13,015.10

Less—Check No. 84
Issued & not used ..... 75.00
Total ..... 12,940.10
Balance (Deficit) ..... 287.19
Additions to equipment ..... $757.32
Depreciation claimed 25 per cent ..... 190.23
Deficit as shown by record ..... 287.19
Profit ..... 280.81
Dec. 27.

PROBATE COURT NOTICE
All interested parties are hereby notified that the following named Administrators and Guardians have filed their accounts in the Probate Court of Pickaway County, Ohio:

1. E. L. Hostler, Administrator of the estate of Dena D. Hostler, deceased. First and final account.

2. Paul D. Hinton, Guardian of Effie Brundage, an incompetent person. Inventory and appraisal.

3. Maxine E. Feltner, Administratrix of the estate of Rom Barnes, deceased. Inventory and appraisal.

4. Elizabeth Sines Gibson, Guardian of Paul D. Sines, a minor. Second partial account.

And that said accounts will be for hearing and settlement before this Probate Court on Monday, January 28, 1952, at 9 o'clock a. m. Exceptions to said accounts, if any, must be filed herein on or before January 22, 1952.

Witness my hand and the seal of said Probate Court, this 27th day of December, 1951.

GEORGE D. YOUNG,
Probate Judge.

PROBATE COURT NOTICE
All interested parties are hereby notified that the following named Administrators and Guardians have filed their accounts in the Probate Court of Pickaway County, Ohio:

1. E. L. Hostler, Administrator of the estate of Dena D. Hostler, deceased. First and final account.

2. Paul D. Hinton, Guardian of Effie Brundage, an incompetent person. Inventory and appraisal.

3. Maxine E. Feltner, Administratrix of the estate of Rom Barnes, deceased. Inventory and appraisal.

4. Elizabeth Sines Gibson, Guardian of Paul D. Sines, a minor. Second partial account.

And that said accounts will be for hearing and settlement before this Probate Court on Monday, January 28, 1952, at 9 o'clock a. m. Exceptions to said accounts, if any, must be filed herein on or before January 22, 1952.

Witness my hand and the seal of said Probate Court, this 27th day of December, 1951.

GEORGE D. YOUNG,
Probate Judge.

PROBATE COURT NOTICE
All interested parties are hereby notified that the following named Administrators and Guardians have filed their accounts in the Probate Court of Pickaway County, Ohio:

1. E. L. Hostler, Administrator of the estate of Dena D. Hostler, deceased. First and final account.

2. Paul D. Hinton, Guardian of Effie Brundage, an incompetent person. Inventory and appraisal.

3. Maxine E. Feltner, Administratrix of the estate of Rom Barnes, deceased. Inventory and appraisal.

4. Elizabeth Sines Gibson, Guardian of Paul D. Sines, a minor. Second partial account.

And that said accounts will be for hearing and settlement before this Probate Court on Monday, January 28, 1952, at 9 o'clock a. m. Exceptions to said accounts, if any, must be filed herein on or before January 22, 1952.

Witness my hand and the seal of said Probate Court, this 27th day of December, 1951.

GEORGE D. YOUNG,
Probate Judge.
Dec. 20, 27, Jan. 3, 10.

JOCKEY CHARLIE BURR, only 17, breaks out a victory smile after riding the winner in the Trophy Plate at Coral Gables, Fla., for his 300th win of the year, seventh jockey in history to ride 300 winners in one year. He made successful bid aboard Four No Trump. (International)

Ironton, Rosary And Hamilton Twp. Ready To Play In Carnival

Teams from Ironton, Columbus Holy Rosary and Hamilton Township of Franklin County will invade Circleville Thursday night for a two-day basketball carnival for local cage fans.

The holiday carnival will begin at 7:30 p. m. Thursday in Pickaway Fairgrounds Coliseum with a match between Circleville's Tiger cagers and the Crusaders of Holy Rosary.

Ironton and Hamilton Township will exchange blows in the final game Thursday, slated to begin at about 8:30 p. m.

PHOTOGRAPHED BY A COMMUNIST newsman last November, five American soldiers are reportedly shown at a prisoner-of-war camp near Pyongyang. Two of the men, Cpl. Marvin King (left), of Des Moines, Iowa, and William Hanneman (second from right), of Chicago, are on list of captured American war prisoners just released. (International)

World Today

By James Marlow
Associated Press
News Analyst

WASHINGTON, Dec. 27.—(AP)—The Communists are playing it stupid.

Each incident like the present one—holding Americans for ransom of one kind or another—hardens and unifies American thinking.

It prepares feeling here for the most drastic measures against Communism, when and if this government thinks they're necessary.

The $120,000 collected for the four American fliers can't compensate the Communists for the hatred, contempt and revulsion stirred up here.

That Communism is bent on world conquest is taken for granted. But jailing and mistreating a few Americans is hardly conquest on the grand scale.

Each irritation like that is so minor and crude, against the larger Communist plan, that one may ask: Why do the Communists stoop to this kind of gangsterism?

SOME REASONS can be guessed at: Each such episode is a deliberate needle, a slap at American prestige; and each provides the Communist masters with another ounce of anti-American propaganda.

That's the Communist view, the subjective view. It doesn't allow for the fact that each jailing episode may have an effect here far outweighing any temporary and small benefits the Communists think they get at home.

To see the depth of the Communist stupidity involved in this—since this is the only country capable of doing the most damage to Russia if war starts—it's necessary to ask this question:

What's the smartest tactic for the Communists where we're concerned? It's this:

To keep American opinion divided on the action to be taken against Communism, in kind and degree, and for this reason:

The more united we are, not only on the need for action, but on the need for strong action, the more dangerous we are.

And there has been strong division of opinion here. Last winter provided a good example in the debate on sending troops to Europe. There was wide support for the idea we should withdraw behind the two oceans.

THIS WAS THE ostrich approach to reality, of course, since if we withdraw, Europe's will to resist would be weakened. Europe would have been ducked for the Communists if the isolationists had won.

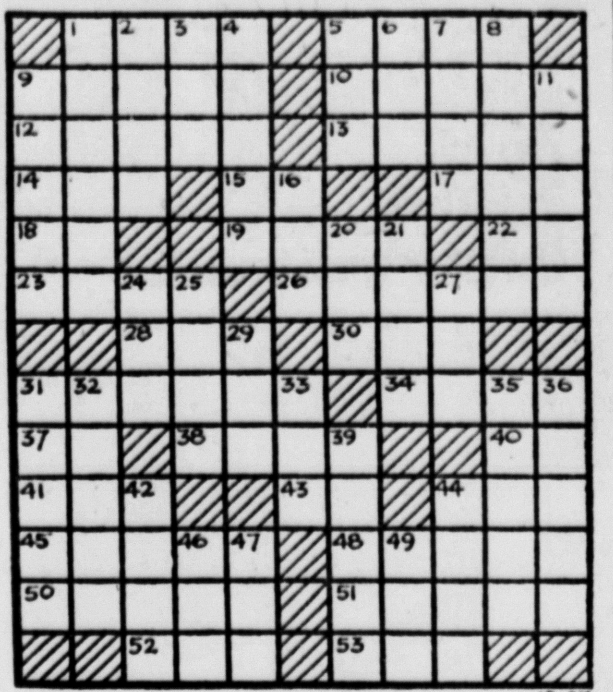

American thinking has been divided on other great issues involved in stopping Communism, and for various reasons, including obvious political ones.

But American reaction to the jailing and mistreatment of Americans behind the Iron Curtain was instant and unanimous: A filthy, corrupt, vicious, unnecessary, inhuman performance.

If this hatred is intensified by new irritations it will have far-reaching effect on decisions made by the government for those decisions, fanned by hate, will be more active, not more passive.

Crossword Puzzle

- |                             |                             |                          |
|-----------------------------|-----------------------------|--------------------------|
| ACROSS               | DOWN                 | 16. Lubricate     |
| 1. Yield                    | 1. Industrial combination   | 20. Male swan            |
| 5. Lose strength            | 2. Fencing                  | 21. Pitcher              |
| 9. Part of jacket front     | 3. Lair                     | 24. Mischievous person   |
| 10. Coins (Ind.)            | 4. South                    | 25. Bishop of Rome       |
| 12. Sphere of action        | 5. African antelope         | 27. Self                 |
| 13. Desert plants           | 6. Decorated letter         | 28. Marry                |
| 14. Shoshonean Indian       | 7. Miscellaneous            | 31. Implements           |
| 15. Negative word           | 8. Being more recent        | 32. A ship's lowest deck |
| 17. Luzon native            | 9. Praises                  | 33. Tear                 |
| 18. From (prefix)           | 11. Asiatic kingdom (poss.) | 36. Intellect            |
| 19. Gaming cubes            |                             | 38. Stretches of beach   |
| 22. Type measure            |                             | 39. Slightly intoxicated |
| 23. Slide                   |                             | 42. Give out, as relief  |
| 26. Lets down               |                             | 44. Cigarettes (slang)   |
| 28. Cut grass               |                             | 46. Cutting tool         |
| 30. Plead                   |                             | 47. Organ of sight       |
| 31. High silk hat (slang)   |                             | 49. Untruth              |
| 34. Steals                  |                             |                          |
| 37. Gold (Her.)             |                             |                          |
| 38. Prepare for publication |                             |                          |
| 40. Sun god                 |                             |                          |
| 41. Ancient Greek letter    |                             |                          |
| 44. Winnow                  |                             |                          |
| 45. Black                   |                             |                          |
| 48. Cross-barred cloth      |                             |                          |
| 50. Spread out              |                             |                          |
| 51. Symbols                 |                             |                          |
| 52. Female sheep            |                             |                          |
| 53. Affirmative reply       |                             |                          |

Yesterday's Answer

French War Bride Loses Right To Regain Husband

CLEVELAND, Dec. 27.—(AP)—An attractive French war bride has lost a court fight to become the wife again of a former Air Force major.

She is Mrs. Francine Van Eizner—member of a socially prominent family in Tunis, Tunisia—who married Frank Van Eizner in March, 1947, in Fort Wayne, Ind.

Three months later the husband won a divorce, declaring she treated him ruthlessly and frequently flared into fits of temper.

Mrs. Van Eizner contended in court during the latest action that he was the father of her daughter, born in July, 1948, that they had lived together as man and wife during and after the divorce action and that she is again expecting a child by him.

Van Eizner denied her declarations.

Judge Samuel H. Silbert ruled her claims were "not germane to the issue confronting the court" and that there was not sufficient evidence presented to cause him to set aside the divorce.

Mrs. Van Eizner testified she was worth three million francs, estimated at $60,000. She still owns a hotel in Tunis.

Sokolosky's These Days

(Continued from Page Four)

Every member of the American Communist party is a Russian agent. Every member of the American Communist party must regard Russia as the mother country. It is a fundamental of the Communist conspiracy, which has been organized along those lines and maintains an effective discipline against those who forget that obligation. It is possible that the Russians assume that America has similar agents in European and Asiatic countries. Undoubtedly, we have intelligence officers and there is ample international law to cover them.

The various movements to liberate satellite countries from Russian tyranny deserve encouragement among all Americans who love freedom. Beyond that, we ought not to go. The Russians should be required to respect the American passport and American good faith and if they refuse to act properly, we ought to retaliate with vigor and forthrightness. This is no era for pussyfooting.

There are some 4,000 varieties of grass.

DEAD STOCK
Cash Paid On The Spot
Horses .....$1.00 each
Cows .....$1.00 each
Hogs, Calves and Sheep
Also Removed
All according to size and condition
DARLING & COMPANY
Phone Collect To
Circleville 31

TELEVISION & RADIO FOR TONIGHT

WTWV—Ch. 6 WLW-700 KC	WLW-C Channel 3 WBNS-1450—WHKC-650 KC	WBNS-TV—Ch. 10 WOSU-820 KC
5:00 Gaby Hayes Western Thea. W. Roundup Plain Bill Tom Gieba Mert's Adv. Students	5:15 Gaby Hayes Western Thea. W. Roundup Front Page F. Martin Mert's Adv. Sing America	5:30 Howdy Doody Western Thea. W. Theater West. Roundup Ernie Lee Tom Gieba Bob Benson News

PHILCO Balanced Beam TELEVISION

PETTIT'S APPLIANCE — 130 S. Court St.—Phone 214

6:00	6:15	STATION	6:30	6:45
Scoreboard Sports Picture All in Fun Queen Dinner Win. Dinner Con.	Serenade Film Short All in Fun Queen Sports Dinner Win. Dinner Con.	WTWV WBNS-TV WBNS WLW WHKC WOSU	Meeting Time Calhoun Pres. Weather Chet Long 3 Star Extra Keynotes UN Today	Meeting Time Calhoun Pres. Weather Chet Long 3 Star Extra Keynotes UN Today

CITY CAB

City Limous—256 Country—30c Mile

7:00	7:15	STATION	7:30	7:45
Kukla, Fran Capt. Video Beat the Clock News Beulah F. Lewis Jr. Symposium	Bob Ray Show Capt. Video Beat the Clock Jaylord Show Jack Smith Melody Symposium	WTWV WBNS-TV WBNS WLW WHKC WOSU	Dinah Shore Lone Ranger News Club 15 G. Heatter Concert	New Lone Ranger Stork Club 1 Man's News Newsreel Concert

R. E. WARD

223-25 E. Main St. Phone 135
Antiques Repaired—Upholstering in Nylon and All Modern Materials
ALL WORK UNCONDITIONALLY GUARANTEED

FRED MAVIS SOHIO SERVICE

Choice Line of Fruits and Vegetables
E. Mound and Main—Route 56 Phone 12-L

8:00	8:15	STATION	8:30	8:45
Groucho Marx Stop the Music Garry Moore Father F. B. L. Cavalcade Sign Off	Groucho Marx Stop the Music Garry Moore Father F. B. L. Cavalcade	WTWV WBNS-TV WBNS WLW WHKC WOSU	T-Men Stop Music Amos 'n Andy Open House Playhouse Rod and Gun	T-Men Stop Music Amos 'n Andy Open House Playhouse Rod and Gun

GIFTS — BURTON'S GIFT SHOP

For All Occasions 105 E. Main St. Circleville

10:00	10:15	STATION	10:30	10:45
Martin Kane Paul Dixon Fora Intrigue Hit Parade News	Martin Kane Paul Dixon Fora Intrigue Hit Parade Blue Baron	WTWV WBNS-TV WBNS WLW WHKC WOSU	T.B.A. At Home Show Crime Photo T.B.A. Mr. Melody Orchestra	T.B.A. Late Show Crime Photo T.B.A. Mr. Melody Orchestra

FRIDAY'S TV-RADIO PROGRAMS

WTWV—Ch. 6 WLW-700 KC	WLW-C Channel 3 WBNS-1450—WHKC-650 KC	WBNS-TV—Ch. 10 WOSU-820 KC
5:00 Hawkins Falls Western Thea. Roundup Plain Bill Tom Gieba Mert's Adv. Hi-Forum	5:15 Gaby Hayes Western Thea. Roundup Front Page F. Martin Mert's Adv. Waltz Fez.	5:30 Howdy Doody Western Thea. W. Theater Roundup Ernie Lee Tom Gieba C. Massey Marshall News

PHILCO Advanced Design REFRIGERATORS

PETTIT'S APPLIANCE — 130 S. Court St.—Phone 214

6:00	6:15	STATION	6:30	6:45
Bar 3 Corral Sports Picture All in Fun Queen Day Dinner Win. Dinner Con.	Bar 3 Corral Film Short All in Fun Queen Day Sports Dinner Win. Dinner Con.	WTWV WBNS-TV WBNS WLW WHKC WOSU	Meeting Time News Weather Chet Long 3 Star Extra Keynotes UN Today	Meeting Time News Weather Chet Long 3 Star Extra Keynotes UN Today

NEW — USED — REBUILT AUTO PARTS

Circleville Iron & Metal Co. ACCESSORIES
PHONE 3-L 545 S. Clinton

7:00	7:15	STATION	7:30	7:45
Kukla, Fran Video Circlo Kid Star Search Jack Smith Melody Lewis Jr. Lon. Column	Bob Ray Show Circlo Kid Star Search Jack Smith Melody Lewis Jr. Ch'ing World	WTWV WBNS-TV WBNS WLW WHKC WOSU	Those Two Say It Acting Doug Edwards News Club 15 G. Heatter Concert	News Say It Acting Perry Come 1 Man's Newsreel Concert

DRAKE PRODUCE

BUYERS OF CREAM—POULTRY—EGGS
222 E. Main St. Phone 260

8:00	8:15	STATION	8:30	8:45
Ezio Pinza 20 Questions Mama Jamboree B. Blackie Cavalcade Sign Off	Ezio Pinza 20 Questions Mama Jamboree B. Blackie Cavalcade	WTWV WBNS-TV WBNS WLW WHKC WOSU	We the Peo. Bookshop Against Crime Jamboree Phil Vance Cavalcade	We the Peo. Bookshop Against Crime Jamboree Phil Vance Cavalcade

Open Everyday Except Sundays. Zero Locker—Ashville

Open Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday Evenings
Homemade Ice Cream and Delicious "Zero Treat"
Phone 9

9:00	9:15	STATION	9:30	9:45
Big Story Crime Father Playhouse Land Ours Rayburn Air Force	Big Story Crime Father Playhouse Land Ours Rayburn Air Force	WTWV WBNS-TV WBNS WLW WHKC WOSU	Aldrich Fam. T.B.A. Playhouse Mr. Keene Rayburn Time Song	Aldrich Fam. T.B.A. Playhouse Mr. Keene Rayburn Time Song

CROMAN'S CHICK and FEED STORE

YOUR MASTER-MIX FEED DEALER
152 W. Main St. Phone 166

10:00	10:15	STATION	10:30	10:45
Boxing Cav. Stars Live Like Mill Varieties News	Boxing Cav. Stars Live Like Mill Varieties Blue Baron	WTWV WBNS-TV WBNS WLW WHKC WOSU	Boxing Cav. Stars TV Presents Personalities H. S. Huddle Orchestra	Boxing Cav. Stars TV Presents Personalities H. S. Huddle Orchestra

Scott's Scrap Book By R. J. Scott Room and Board By Gene Ahern

SCRAPBOOK
I'M ANXIOUS TO MEET THAT VALET THE EARL BROUGHT BACK WITH HIM FROM ENGLAND! HM...MAYBE I CAN ENTICE HIM AWAY FROM THE BIG OAF TO SERVE AS MY VALET AND LOOK AFTER MY WARDROBE AND SARTORIAL NEEDS!

ROOM AND BOARD
TH' FIRST THING HED GET YOU IS A PAINTER'S DROPCLOTH TO DRAPE OVER YOUR VEST!...A CHEWIST COULD WORK ON THOSE SPOTS AND GIVE AN ANALYSIS OF EVERYTHING YOU'VE EATEN THE PAST MONTH!

BOAST
TO SHAPE ROUGHLY WITH A BIGAD CHISEL IN PREPARATION OF FIKER WORK.

BOAST
TO VALU' ONESELF OR ONE'S POSSESSIONS: NO BRAG.

SCRAP
HOW MANY POUNDS OF COPPER WIRE USED IN HOUSEHOLD LABOR SAVING DEVICES IN THE U.S. IN 1950 OVER 220,000,000 POUNDS.

IN HIS STRUGGLE FOR EXISTENCE, A TENACIOUS LITTLE WHITE BIRCH OVERCAME THE HANDICAP OF HAVING A BIG ROCK ON HIS HEAD, THROUGH A FISSURE IN THE BOULDER IT GREW AND GREW UNTIL IT EVENTUALLY SPLIT OFF THE HEAD OF THE ROCK.

A MENU ON WOOL

PHOTOGRAPHED BY A COMMUNIST newspaper last November, five American soldiers are reportedly shown at a prisoner-of-war camp near Pyongyang. Two of the men, Cpl. Marvin King (left), of Des Moines, Iowa, and William Hanneman (second from right), of Chicago, are on list of captured American war prisoners just released. (International)

World Today

By James Marlow
Associated Press
News Analyst

WASHINGTON, Dec. 27.—(AP)—The Communists are playing it stupid. Each incident like the present one—holding Americans for ransom of one kind or another—hardens and unifies American thinking.

It prepares feeling here for the most drastic measures against Communism, when and if this government thinks they're necessary.

The $120,000 collected for the four American fliers can't compensate the Communists for the hatred, contempt and revulsion stirred up here.

That Communism is bent on world conquest is taken for granted. But jailing and mistreating a few Americans is hardly conquest on the grand scale.

Each irritation like that is so minor and crude, against the larger Communist plan, that one may ask: Why do the Communists stoop to this kind of gangsterism?

SOME REASONS can be guessed at: Each such episode is a deliberate needle, a slap at American prestige; and each provides the Communist masters with another ounce of anti-American propaganda.

That's the Communist view, the subjective view. It doesn't allow for the fact that each jailing episode may have an effect here far outweighing any temporary and small benefits the Communists think they get at home.

To see the depth of the Communist stupidity involved in this—since this is the only country capable of doing the most damage to Russia if war starts—it's necessary to ask this question:

What's the smartest tactic for the Communists where we're concerned? It's this:

To keep American opinion divided on the action to be taken against Communism, in kind and degree, and for this reason:

The more united we are, not only on the need for action, but on the need for strong action, the more dangerous we are.

And there has been strong division of opinion here. Last winter provided a good example in the debate on sending troops to Europe. There was wide support for the idea we should withdraw behind the two oceans.

THIS WAS THE ostrich approach to reality, of course, since if we withdraw, Europe's will to resist would be weakened. Europe would have been ducked out for the Communists if the isolationists had won.

American thinking has been divided on other great issues involved in stopping Communism, and for various reasons, including obvious political ones.

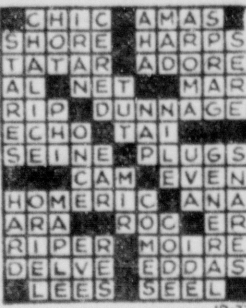

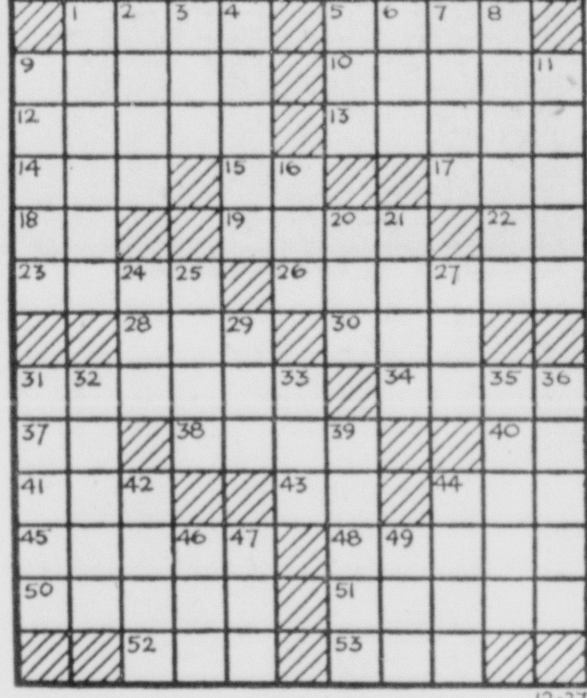

But American reaction to the jailing and mistreatment of Americans behind the Iron Curtain was instant and unanimous: A filthy, corrupt, vicious, unnecessary, inhuman performance.

If this hatred is intensified by new irritations it will have far-reaching effect on decisions made by the government for those decisions, fanned by hate, will be more active, not more passive.

Crossword Puzzle

- ACROSS
1. Yield
  2. Lose strength
  3. Part of jacket front
  4. Coins (Ind.)
  5. Sphere of action
  6. Desert plants
  7. Shoshonean Indian
  8. Negative word
  9. Luzon native
  10. From (prefix)
  11. Gaming cubes
  12. Type measure
  13. Slide
  14. Lets down
  15. Cut grass
  16. Plead
  17. High, silk hat (slang)
  18. Steals
  19. Gold (Her.)
  20. Prepare for publication
  21. Sun god
  22. Ancient Greek letter
  23. Winnow
  24. Black
  25. Cross-barred cloth
  26. Spread out
  27. Symbols
  28. Female sheep
  29. Affirmative reply

- DOWN
1. Industrial combination
  2. Fencing sword
  3. Lair
  4. South
  5. African antelope
  6. Decorated letter
  7. Miscellaneous
  8. Peruvian Indian
  9. Being more recent
  10. Praises
  11. Asiatic kingdom (poss.)
  12. Lubricate
  13. Male swan
  14. Pitcher
  15. Mischievous person
  16. Bishop of Rome
  17. Self
  18. Marry
  19. Implements
  20. A ship's lowest deck
  21. Tear
  22. Intellect
  23. Stretches (slang)
  24. Cutting tool
  25. Organ of sight
  26. Untruth

Yesterday's Answer

44. Cigarettes (slang)
46. Cutting tool
47. Organ of sight
49. Untruth

French War Bride Loses Right To Regain Husband

CLEVELAND, Dec. 27.—(AP)—An attractive French war bride has lost a court fight to become the wife again of a former Air Force major.

She is Mrs. Francine Van Eizner—member of a socially prominent family in Tunis, Tunisia—who married Frank Van Eizner in March, 1947, in Fort Wayne, Ind.

Three months later the husband won a divorce, declaring she treated him ruthlessly and frequently flared into fits of temper.

Mrs. Van Eizner contended in court during the latest action that he was the father of her daughter, born in July, 1948, that they had lived together as man and wife during and after the divorce action and that she is again expecting a child by him.

Van Eizner denied her declarations. Judge Samuel H. Silbert ruled her claims were "not germane to the issue confronting the court" and that there was not sufficient evidence presented to cause him to set aside the divorce.

Mrs. Van Eizner testified she was worth three million francs, estimated at $60,000. She still owns a hotel in Tunis.

Sokolosky's These Days

(Continued from Page Four)

Every member of the American Communist party is a Russian agent. Every member of the American Communist party must regard Russia as the mother country. It is a fundamental of the Communist conspiracy, which has been organized along those lines and maintains an effective discipline against those who forget that obligation. It is possible that the Russians assume that America has similar agents in European and Asiatic countries. Undoubtedly, we have intelligence officers and there is ample international law to cover them.

The various movements to liberate satellite countries from Russian tyranny deserve encouragement among all Americans who love freedom. Beyond that, we ought not to go. The Russians should be required to respect the American passport and American good faith and if they refuse to act properly, we ought to retaliate with vigor and forthrightness. This is no era for pussyfooting.

There are some 4,000 varieties of grass.

FRIDAY'S TV-RADIO PROGRAMS

WTWV—Ch. 6 WTLW-700 KC	WLW-C Channel 3 WBNS-1450—WHKC-650 KC	WBNS-TV—Ch. 10 WOSU-820 KC
5:00 Gaby's Haves Western Thea. W. Roundup Plain Bill Tom Gieba Mert's Adv. Students	5:15 Gaby's Haves Western Thea. W. Roundup Front Page F. Martin Mert's Adv. Sing America	5:30 Howdy Doody Western Thea. West. Roundup Ernie Lee Tom Gieba Bob Benson Sports

PHILCO Advanced Design REFRIGERATORS

—AT—
PETTIT'S APPLIANCE — 130 S. Court St.—Phone 214

6:00	6:15	STATION	6:30	6:45
Scoreboard Sports Picture All in Fun Queen News Dinner Win. Dinner Con.	Serenade Film Short All in Fun Queen News Sports Dinner Con.	WTWV WBNS-TV WBNS WHKC WOSU	Meetin' Time Catharin Pres. Weather News Dinner Date Masters	Meetin' Time Chet Long 3 Star Extra Keynotes UN Today

NEW — USED — REBUILT AUTO PARTS

Circleville Iron & Metal Co. 545 S. Clinton
PHONE 3-L

7:00	7:15	STATION	7:30	7:45
Kukla, Fran Capt. Video Beat the Clock News Beulah F. Lewis Jr. Symposium	Bob Ray Show Capt. Video Beat the Clock Jaylord Show Jack Smith Melody Symposium	WTWV WBNS-TV WBNS WHKC WOSU	Dinner Date Concert	News Long Ranger Stork Club 1 Man's News Newsreel Concert

DRAKE PRODUCE

BUYERS OF CREAM—POULTRY—EGGS
222 E. Main St. Phone 260

Open Everyday Except Sundays. Open Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday Evenings

Homemade Ice Cream and Delicious "Zero Treat"

8:00	8:15	STATION	8:30	8:45
Big Story Crime Father Playhouse Land Ours Rayburn Air Force	Exile Pinza 20 Questions Mama Jamboree Blackie Cavalcade Sign Off	WTWV WBNS-TV WBNS WHKC WOSU	We the Peo. Bookshop Against Crime Jamboree Philo Vance Cavalcade	8:45 We the Peo. Bookshop Against Crime Jamboree Philo Vance Cavalcade

Open Everyday Except Sundays. Open Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday Evenings

Homemade Ice Cream and Delicious "Zero Treat"

Phone 9

Homemade Ice Cream and Delicious "Zero Treat"

Phone 166

Phone 166

Phone 166

Phone 166

Phone 166

Phone 166

Phone 166

Phone 166

Phone 166

PHILCO Balanced Beam TELEVISION

—AT—
PETTIT'S APPLIANCE — 130 S. Court St.—Phone 214

6:00	6:15	STATION	6:30	6:45
Scoreboard Sports Picture All in Fun Queen News Dinner Win. Dinner Con.	Serenade Film Short All in Fun Queen News Sports Dinner Con.	WTWV WBNS-TV WBNS WHKC WOSU	Meetin' Time Catharin Pres. Weather News Dinner Date Masters	Meetin' Time Chet Long 3 Star Extra Keynotes UN Today

CITY CAB

PHONE 900 Country—30c Mile

7:00	7:15	STATION	7:30	7:45
Kukla, Fran Capt. Video Beat the Clock News Beulah F. Lewis Jr. Symposium	Bob Ray Show Capt. Video Beat the Clock Jaylord Show Jack Smith Melody Symposium	WTWV WBNS-TV WBNS WHKC WOSU	Dinner Date Concert	News Long Ranger Stork Club 1 Man's News Newsreel Concert

FRED MAVIS SOHIO SERVICE

Choice Line of Fruits and Vegetables
Phone 12-L E. Mound and Main—Route 56 Phone 12-L

Phone 12-L

Phone 12-L

Phone 12-L

Phone 12-L

Phone 12-L

Phone 12-L

Phone 12-L

Phone 12-L

Phone 12-L

Phone 12-L

Phone 12-L

Phone 12-L

Phone 12-L

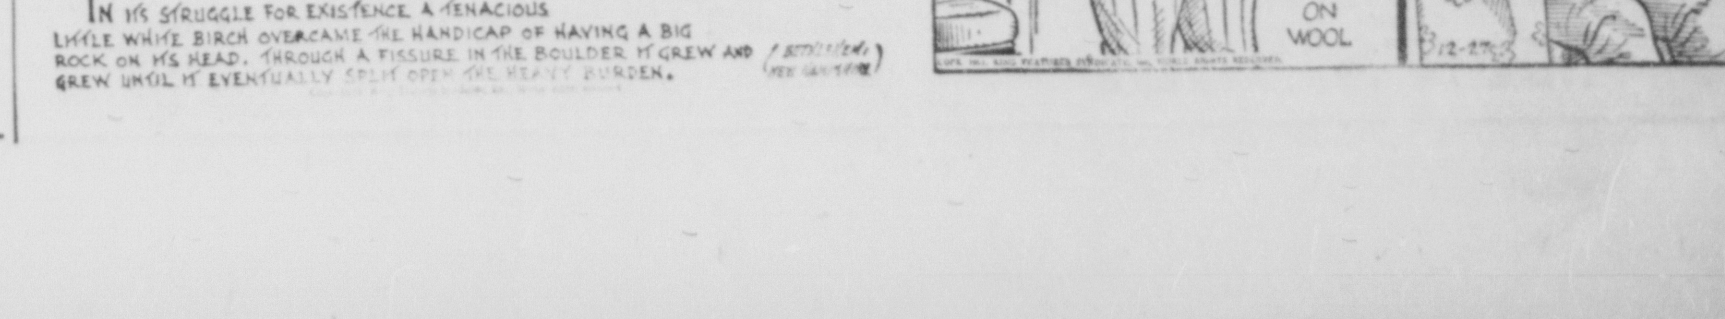

Phone 12-L

Phone 12-L

Phone 12-L

Phone 12-L

Phone 12-L

Time For Filing 1951 Income Tax Returns Nears

Collectors To Be Here Jan. 8-9

Must File Between Jan. 1 And March 15

With Christmas over and the New Year approaching, Pickaway Countians also face another problem.

Time for filing 1951 Income Tax returns is just around the corner, the Internal Revenue Service reminded local taxpayers Thursday.

Deputy Collectors Clay Covey and George Shafer will be at Circleville Postoffice on Jan. 8-9 to assist local taxpayers with preparation of their returns.

The collectors will visit from 8 a. m. to 5 p. m. on those days. To assist city and county taxpayers, the Collector of Internal Revenue Thursday released the following information relative to filing the 1951 returns.

EVERY person who had gross income of $600 or more must file a return.

It must be filed between Jan. 1 and March 15, with the Collector of Internal Revenue, Columbus.

The Bureau stated that taxes must be computed by the Collector if income is solely from wages and is under $5000 by filing Form 1040-A.

If income is over $5000 or is from other sources such as self-employment, partnership, rents, etc., persons must file on Form 1040, listing total receipts and expenses. The taxpayer may itemize deductions or may elect to take the standard deduction. Any balance of tax due must be paid in full with your return.

Assistance in preparing returns can be secured at the Internal Revenue Department office, in the Postoffice.

Those desiring help are urged to bring all information as to income, wages, rents, expenses and deductions, and a copy of the previous year's return, Form 1040-F, showing income and expenses from farming as well as Schedule "C" showing income and expenses from business must be prepared by the taxpayer before coming into the office for assistance.

ALL WAGE slips received from employers must be attached to the return, even though no tax was withheld from the wages. Wage earners should wait until all wage statements are received from each place of employment before filing their return, but in no event should the filing of a return be delayed beyond March 15, 1952.

Individuals who have filed Estimated Tax returns for 1951, which are correct, should file their income tax return, Form 1040, between Jan. 1 and March 15, 1952. Those who have filed incorrect estimates must amend their estimates or file their final income tax return, Form 1040, by Jan. 15, 1952.

This final return will serve as an amended estimate. Farmers may file their estimated tax returns by January 15, or their final completed income tax return by January 31 in lieu of an estimated return.

FOR TAXABLE years beginning after Dec. 31, 1950, a Social Security Tax of 2 1/2 per cent is imposed

ARRESTED BY POLICE in Lynwood, Cal., after her 3-year-old daughter Phyllis (right) was found dead in a motel, Mrs. Anne Ingraffia says, "I believe in spanking." Both the baby's arms were broken and her body was covered with bruises. The mother said she hit her with a broom handle. (International Soundphoto)

DON'T DISCARD THEM

Yule Trees Can Do Tricks For You After New Year's

Let your Christmas tree do tricks for you after New Year's.

Instead of discarding it, try the following suggestions:

1. If it is a fir, anchor it in the back yard—perhaps in a corner of the garden—and use it as a bird feeder the remainder of the winter. Pieces of suet and little bags of seed may be tied to the branches. Place a container of water beneath the tree. And keep it filled with fresh water so the birds will have a drink every day.

2. Cut off the branches and place them, curved ends up, over flower beds when the ground is exposed. An evergreen mulch helps prevent the soil from heaving during alternate freezes and thaws. Longer branches may be built into little lean-tos to protect tender shrubs from sun scald.

3. SPRINKLE the needles beneath acid-loving plants such as laurel, andromeda, rhododendron and blueberries.

4. If the needles on the tree are still firm, use the branches in an outdoor windowbox. Moisten the soil in the box. Then push the cut ends of the branches down to the bottom and firm the soil around them. This will give you greenery all winter.

Don't toss the Christmas tree into a fireplace. If you must burn it, cut off the branches and burn them safely one by one. Then saw the trunk into sections.

A Christmas tree tossed into the street can become a fire hazard if playful children pick it up and on individuals having earnings from self-employment.

Inasmuch as income from certain occupations, such as farming, physicians, attorneys, etc., are not covered, your instruction booklet should be consulted for the various types of income that are subject to the tax. Self-employment net earnings of at least $400 but not exceeding $3600 are subject to the tax.

make a bonfire of it in a vacant lot. It can be a hazard to traffic to passing motorists also, for stubs along the trunk are sharp enough to puncture auto tires.

Sentence Read

YOUNGSTOWN, Dec. 27 — (P)—Three of four men charged in the kidnapping and rape of a young woman here last August have been sentenced. The latest sentenced was Charles L. Kennedy, 24, who was sent to Ohio Penitentiary Wednesday for five to 30 years.

Principal Named

SARDINIA, Dec. 27 — (P)—Miss Ruth Brown of Sardinia has been named supervising principal of the Brown County school system. H. D. West, superintendent, announced the appointment, which was made by the county board of education.

Bogus Bills Eyed

CLEVELAND, Dec. 27 — (P)—Police and federal agents arrested five men Wednesday in an effort to trace a flood of phony $10 and $20 bills which turned up here over the Christmas holidays.

Pastor To Move

HAMILTON, Dec. 27 — (P)—The Rev. Charles Fish has accepted a call to Trinity Episcopal church here. He succeeds the Rev. Grant Morrill, who resigned to join the leadership division of the National Council of Churches. Rev. Mr. Fish who served as pastor of Trinity Episcopal church in Xenia three years, will assume the pulpit early in January.

READ THE CLASSIFIED ADV.

Top Fireman Dies

CINCINNATI, Dec. 27 — (P)—Charles F. Fischer, retired Cincinnati fire captain who helped fight most of the memorable fires in downtown Cincinnati from 1916 to 1939, died in Christ hospital Wednesday at the age of 68. He retired in 1939 after serving 33 years.

Fish are reported to produce more abnormalities than any other living beings.

Funeral Booked

RAVENNA, Dec. 27 — (P)—Funeral services will be held here Saturday for Willie Lecount who drove the horses which pulled President McKinley's hearse in Canton. He died Wednesday at age 78.

Smoked Hams

Customers' Corner

Here's our New Year's resolution:
To do everything in our power to make every customer say, "I'm glad I shop at A&P."

If we can make the new year a happy shopping year for you, it will be a happy year for us, too.

CUSTOMER RELATIONS DEPT.
A&P Food Stores
420 Lexington Avenue, New York 17, N. Y.

Festive Cue for '52...Serve A&P's Tender

"Super-Right" or Finley's	Whole Ham
lb. 59c	or Shank Ham
Smoked Picnics	lb. 39c
Center Loin Pork Chops	lb. 77c
Fresh Spare Ribs	Meaty lb. 48c
Fresh Picnics	Whole or Half lb. 35c
Fully Cooked Hams	lb. 61c
Bulk Sauerkraut	2 lbs. 17c

PORK LOIN ROAST

7-Rib End	Loin End	Whole or Rib Half
lb. 35c	lb. 45c	lb. 49c

Party Snacks

- Honey Grahams 1-lb. box 33c
- Nabisco... 3 inner seal packs
- Ritz Crackers —1-lb. box 37c
- Nabisco... a fresh, crisp snack
- Town House Crackers lb. 35c
- Enjoy a box of these taste tempters
- Armour's Treet 12 oz. can 49c
- Solid packed luncheon meat
- Sweet Pickles 15 oz. jar 33c
- Hi Life... small whole pickles
- Fancy Pretzels —9 1/2 ozs. 24c
- Nabisco... fresh and crisp, 3 ring
- Boneless Chicken —6 ozs. 56c
- College Inn... boneless, solid pack
- Maraschinos —9 oz. bot. 15c
- Red candied cherries... Liberty

Beverage Buys

- 7-Up —6 bottles 30c
- "Fresh Up" —the all family drink
- Coca-Cola —6 bottles 25c
- Keep plenty on hand all the time
- Pepsi-Cola —6 bottles 35c
- Go get Pepsi for that Pepsi bounce
- Canada Dry —28-oz. bot. 15c
- All varieties... popular for everyone
- 8 O'clock Coffee —1-lb. bag 77c
- Mild and mellow flavor 3-lb. bag $2.25

Cheeses Galore

- Sliced Swiss —lb. 73c
- Fancy Wisconsin... choice center pieces
- Beer Kaese Cheese —lb. 69c
- Mild flavor... soft texture
- Sliced Mel-O-Bit —lb. 59c
- Pimento-Brick-American... processed
- Cheese Spreads —2 5-oz. jars 35c
- Swift's Brookfield... choice of 4 kinds
- Philadelphia Cream 8-oz. pkg. 41c
- Krafts... spreads like butter
- Borden's Gruyere —pkg. 45c
- Six portions... distinctive flavor

Ann Page Salad Dressing

- Ann Page Beans 31 oz. can 21c
- Just heat and serve... 3 kinds
- Ann Page Ketchup 2 bottles 45c
- Pure tomato... top quality
- Jello Desserts 6 delicious flavors... serve often pkg. 9c
- Morton's Salt 26 oz. box 11c
- Free running... plain or iodized
- Hershey's Syrup 1 lb. can 18c
- Rich chocolate syrup... dessert favorite

Ann Page Salad Dressing

- Ann Page Beans 31 oz. can 21c
- Just heat and serve... 3 kinds
- Ann Page Ketchup 2 bottles 45c
- Pure tomato... top quality
- Jello Desserts 6 delicious flavors... serve often pkg. 9c
- Morton's Salt 26 oz. box 11c
- Free running... plain or iodized
- Hershey's Syrup 1 lb. can 18c
- Rich chocolate syrup... dessert favorite

Ann Page Salad Dressing

- Ann Page Beans 31 oz. can 21c
- Just heat and serve... 3 kinds
- Ann Page Ketchup 2 bottles 45c
- Pure tomato... top quality
- Jello Desserts 6 delicious flavors... serve often pkg. 9c
- Morton's Salt 26 oz. box 11c
- Free running... plain or iodized
- Hershey's Syrup 1 lb. can 18c
- Rich chocolate syrup... dessert favorite

DESIGNED RIGHT BUILT RIGHT
PRICED RIGHT

For UTMOST CONVENIENCE in Small Home
HEATING

Timken Silent Automatic "Duty-Designed" heating units are built specifically to provide small homes with all the comforts and conveniences of automatic oil heat plus utmost reliability and quiet operation. Wall-Flame burner saves up to 25% on oil bills. Phone us today!

TIMKEN
Silent Automatic OIL HEAT
OIL BURNERS • OIL FURNACES
OIL BOILERS • WATER HEATERS

JOE CHRISTY
Plumbing and Heating
508 S. Court St. Phone 889-M

Look Smarter Feel Better:

Smart walking ahead in this tailored bal that's style-right, fit-right and down-right comfortable. To look smarter and feel better, come in and try on a pair of Jermans.

KINSEY'S
MEN'S SHOP

OPEN FRI. AND SAT. TILL 9 P. M.

166 W. Main St.

R. C. KIFER, Mgr.

Iona... Halves or Slices in Rich Syrup

PEACHES No. 2 1/2 can 31c

All Prices In This Ad Guaranteed Through Monday December 31st

Cheer A wonderful helper for your heavy dirty wash 2 large size 59c giant size 80c	Brillo Cleanser For pots and pans, etc. large size 21c small size 11c	Swift's Prem Solid pack luncheon meat Ideal served hot or cold 12 oz. can 49c	Clorox Laundry Bleach For the whitest clothes qt. 19c 1/2 gal. 31c	Felso A mild suds for dishes or duds... fast acting 2 large pkgs. 59c
Armour's Chili Con Carne Chopped meat with typical sauce 16 oz. size 37c	Staleys Waffle Syrup Served hot with hot cakes 1 1/2-lb. glass 39c	Oscar Mayer Wieners Tender wieners with sauce 11 oz. can 47c	Armour's Dried Beef Thin sliced... cured 2 1/2 oz. glass 37c 5 oz. jar 63c	Dole Fruit Cocktail Fine choice fruits in heavy syrup No. 2 1/2 can 43c

A&P Super Markets

